

The Pascagoula Democrat-Star

BY F. M. MAYERS & M. A. DEES.

"PEACE, GOOD WILL AND PROSPERITY TO ALL MANKIND."

TERMS—$5 00 a Year, in Advance.

VOLUME 30.

PASCAGOULA, MISSISSIPPI, FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1880.

NUMBER 19.

The Bachelor's Confession.

I live in a French flat. Of course there are objections to French flats. So there are to most things. I can't afford a hotel, and I detest a boarding house. A bachelor of thirty odd, who has been at the mercy of boarding house keepers all his days, can easily understand that.

So, when I engaged a suite of rooms—third floor, in a French flat edifice—and arranged my household goods therein, with a fine outlook over a green dot of a park in front, and a glimmer of the Falls far away to the rear, above a forest of shipping, I considered myself well off.

What is my profession? I haven't in particular. I am an artist, a little, daily, in front of my easel. I contribute to the press and write when the divine afflatus seizes me. I read law whenever I feel like it, and draw a regular income from a snug little property left me by an uncle in India. Consequently I was able to decorate my new quarters very prettily with Bagdad rugs, old china dragons, black and gold Japanese screens, and pictures I had picked up at a bargain.

And when the fire was burning cheerfully in the grate, the first rainy May evening, the student lamp shining softly on a red-covered table, and the waiter from a neighboring restaurant had brought me in my frugal dinner of broiled bird, a mold of currant jelly, a slice of roast beef, and a raspberry dumpling, I considered myself pretty comfortable.

"Upon the whole," I said to myself, "I rather approve French flats."

I rang the bell. The janitor—a respectful, decent sort of fellow, in a round jacket and carpet slippers—answered the summons.

"Janitor," said I, "who occupies the floor above?"

"Nobody, sir," the man answered. "Last party moved out yesterday. New party moves in to-morrow."

"A large family?" said I, rather dubiously.

"Bless your heart, sir," said the man, "no family at all—single lady, sir."

At this I congratulated myself more and more.

"I shall have a prospect of a little peace now, I think," said I; and I ate my dinner in a fool's paradise of happiness.

The single lady moved in on the morrow. She must have moved in when I was down town, selecting some new mill board and color-tubes for the summer sketches which I intended to make; for, when I returned, loudly expecting once more to enter my kingdom of peace and serenity, everything was changed.

There was banging and pounding overhead, a thumping and hammering—a sound as if some middle-aged plantess, in hobnailed shoes, were enjoying herself.

I sent for the janitor in a rage.

"Is the house coming down?" said I.

"It's the new tenant—a movin' in, sir," said he, apologetically.

"Does her furniture consist entirely of Herring's safes and square pianos?" said I.

"There is two pianos, sir," said he. "She's musical."

"The dence she is!" roared I. "Two pianos! And does she play on both of 'em?"

"Don't know, sir, I'm sure," said the man, with a distressed expression of countenance.

I endured the noise until midnight, and I then sent up by the janitor's wife.

"The third floor's compliments to the fourth floor, and would like to know if this sort of thing is to go on all night."

Down came the woman again.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and wishes to know if he expects people to get settled without a noise."

The next day the piano—only one, however—commenced. I was elaborating on a skeleton for a scientific essay, and it disturbed me seriously. I endured it as long as I possibly could, and then I had recourse once more to the janitor's wife.

"The third floor's compliments to the fourth floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

That evening, when I was obliged to solace myself with a little violin practice in the twilight, tap, tap, came the janitor's wife at my door.

"Fourth floor's compliments to the third floor, and will feel obliged if she will favor me with a little peace and quietness, long enough to do some necessary writing."

There was no reply, but the music stopped abruptly.

STATE NEWS.

Crystal Springs Monitor.
The Mayor's office, heretofore situated near the depot, is now elegantly mounted on wheels, with headquarters on Green's corner.

Courier-Conservative.
Judge J. Z. George and family are spending the summer at "Cotsworth," the old homestead, about two miles north of Carrollton.

Columbus Dispatch.
Burkitt, of the Chickasaw Messenger, and Miller, of the Tupelo Journal had a fist fight in Corinth Wednesday, but nobody got hurt. Each was put under a bond of $100 to keep the peace.

Magnolia Gazette.
We learn that the census taker of the Third district, in this (Pike) county, that there are 102 persons in that district by the name of Brumfield, and 103 persons by the name of Holmes.

Columbus Index.
W. D. Frazee, of Okolona, is the candidate of the republicans for congress in this district. He does not expect to be elected, of course, and runs under the impression that his candidacy will give him credit and character with Garfield in the event Garfield should be elected.

Brookhaven Ledger.
Henry Furr, an old citizen of this county, died at the age of 90 years. He was buried in a coffin made 25 years ago by J. R. Perkins, which was made for his son, but being too small instructed to have it laid aside for himself. He wore a suit that was made for him when a boy.

Meridian Mercury.
Peaches sold on the street yesterday for a dollar a bushel. Mr. Jerry Hayman, of Clark, brought in some of the best on the market, and they went readily at that price. He considered it satisfactory and regretted he hadn't brought a larger supply. The crop is poor and generally sorry.

Yazoo City Herald.
The trial of Mr. Wm. Swayze for killing A. O. Clark, his brother-in-law, commenced before Justice Caruthers on last Wednesday. The killing occurred on Clark's place a few miles from Benton about a week ago. We will not pretend, not knowing, to say what brought about the tragic affair.

Grenada Sentinel.
Mad dogs are reported in several parts of the State, but we have heard of no mad sheep; and sometimes we wish a mad dog had every member of the last legislature who voted against our dog and sheep bill, by the coat tail, provided he would do him no more harm than learn him a good lesson of the advantages of more sheep and fewer dogs.

Holly Springs South.
The enumeration of the census for this district, embracing the corporate limits only of Holly Springs, furnishes the following memoranda: White, 1276; colored, 1074; total, 2350. The territory formerly included in corporate limits and left out in the change of boundaries made in 1877 would, if added to the city proper, give a population of 3000 or more. The oldest inhabitant scores 106.

Raymond Gazette.
In 1838 there were twenty-six banks in the State of Mississippi, all issuing paper money. Their aggregate capital was $62,000,000. The Union bank, located at Jackson, had a capital of $15,500,000. The Mississippi railroad company's bank of Vicksburg and Natchez, had a capital of $8,000,000. The Planter's bank, at Natchez, and the Mississippi and Alabama railroad bank, at Brandon, each had a capital of $4,000,000. There was plenty of money—'flat' money at that—and every man in the State almost went into bankruptcy in 1840, and in 1841 the State itself took advantage of the insolvent laws. A people having no money at all, are unfortunate; while a people having too much are cursed.

Jackson Clarion.
A man named J. W. Nelson, a Norwegian by birth, and by trade a ship-builder, was found dead at his home, on the bank of Pearl river, yesterday evening, under circumstances which lead to the opinion that he had committed suicide. Nelson was rather past middle age, and prior to last winter had been for a number of years in the Mississippi State penitentiary, his crime being wife-murder, which was committed in Harrison Co. A few months since he was pardoned and set at liberty. The steamer Oliver Clifton is the work of his hands, and was built entirely under his direction. Since his pardon he has been living with negroes in a little hovel near the oil mill, and yesterday he took his future into his own hands and ended his unhappy existence.

For the Democrat-Star.
SPIRIT OF BEAUTY—AN INVOCATION.

ME SENNE.

Spirit of beauty, floating before me
Come, and ever near me stay
With thy bright wings, hovering over me,
Fan the clouds of care away.

Come, dwell in my heart's deepest recesses
Waking it to joyous life,
With thy tender, whispering caresses,
And dreams gloriously bright.

Oh! let thy white garments, and brow so fair,
Thy calm eyes, of heavenly blue
And the gleam of thy radiant hair
Brighten the path I pursue.

Bear me away to thy halls of glory
From thee, no more to sever,
Fill my soul with thy divine Aurora
Feast me on thy charms forever,
Pascagoula, Miss., July, 1880.

And Still they Come.

More Republicans Who Are for Peace, Prosperity and Justice.

Rochester (N.Y.) Union and Advertiser.
Edward Butler, ex-stellar editor of the New Haven (Ct.) Palladium, has declared for Hancock.

Peter Wilson, a prominent republican lawyer, heads the call for a Hancock club at Streeter, Ill.

The Pittsburg Volksblatt, heretofore strongly republican, has deserted Garfield and run up the Hancock flag.

Mr. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, is another Grant man who has all the symptoms of being for Hancock.

Hon. Horatio King, ex-postmaster-general, supported Hayes in 1870, and will take the stump for Hancock in 1880.

Col. John A. Wimby, heretofore a prominent republican in Georgia, has announced his intention to vote for Hancock.

Hinton Rowan Helper, author of the "Impending Crisis," has written a letter in which he announces himself for Hancock and English.

Col. Williamson, of Shreveport, Louisiana, declines the republican nomination for congress, and announces his determination to support Hancock.

Lewis Lovelace, a prominent republican of Pike county, Ind., and formerly a candidate of his party for congress, has renounced his connection with the republican organization, and is out for Hancock and English.

Hon. S. W. Moulton, a former republican and member of congress from Illinois, and Judge Moeser, a republican county judge, astonished the republicans of Shelbyville, Ill., last week by openly declaring for Hancock and English.

Hon. Geo. R. Wendling, of St. Louis, once a leading republican congressman, has declared against Garfield and will take the stump for Hancock and English. He will be remembered as the gentleman who replied to Bob Ingersoll's lecture.

Capt. M. M. B. Griffin and Capt. A. J. Forgraves, are numbered among the converted republican members of the Hancock and English club, at Council Bluffs, Iowa. They can hardly expect to carry Iowa, but evidently they desire to record their preference on the right side.

Hon. N. C. Towle, for several years recorder of the District of Columbia, by appointment of President Lincoln, and for nearly a dozen years officially connected with the government service, has addressed an open letter to the democratic candidate for the vice-presidency.

Don H. Powers, a prominent republican of Eastern Maine, a well-known member of the Penobscot bar, and brother of ex-congressman Lew Powers, has joined a Platist club at Newport, and will do all in his power to elect Gen. Plafist and the Union ticket. Five other republicans of Newport have joined the same club.

A correspondent writing from Standish, Michigan, says: "The president of our Hancock and English club is Mr. M. McCormick, who has voted the republican ticket for twenty-seven years, but is through with that party now. Our vice-president, Mr. Oliver T. Rugg, is a veteran of eighty-two years, the oldest citizen we have in Standish, and a man who has always heretofore opposed the democratic party. We have on our list the names of six other working members who have been republicans up to this time. We are all enthusiastic for Hancock and English, in some respects the best ticket the party has presented since the days of Jackson."

An individual who boasted of "moving in select circles" was afterwards ascertained to be the clown in a circus.

Democratic State Executive Committee.

Jackson Comet.
The democratic state executive committee met in the judiciary room, adjoining the senate chamber, at 10 o'clock, Wednesday, the 14th inst., pursuant to a call from the chairman.

Present—W. L. Hemingway, chairman; Oliver Clifton and Alex. Yeger, from the State-at-large; James Kincannon, 1st district; L. C. Balch, and J. B. H. Hemingway, proxy for John W. T. Faulker, 2d district; C. H. Campbell, 3d district; E. F. Noel and John P. Harris, 4th district; R. H. Thompson, 5th district; Stephen Thrasher and J. W. Lambert, 6th district; Hon. D. P. Porter, secretary.

The Chairman presented the resignation of Hon. G. C. Shands of the position of elector for the 2d district, and also that of Hon. J. M. Ellis for the 3d district, and of Hon. Benj. King, Sr., of his membership in the executive committee for the State-at-large. These resignations were accepted, and the Secretary instructed to notify Capt. Spight that by virtue of the resignation of Mr. Shands, he became the presidential elector for the 2d district, and Hon. L. C. Balch, of Polk county, was elected alternate elector for that district, made vacant by the promotion of Mr. Spight. The same action was taken in reference to the notification of Hon. Wm. Price, of Winston county, who becomes elector in the 3d district, by the resignation of Capt. Ellis. The election of alternate for this district was postponed to a future meeting. Hon. R. H. Thompson, member of the committee for the 5th district, was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Benj. King, for the State-at-large, and Hon. Tim E. Cooper, on motion of Mr. Thompson, was elected as a member of the committee from the 5th district, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Mr. Thompson.

The Chairman called on the members to report the political condition, prospects and needs of their respective districts. It is manifestly improper to publish all that was said, but upon the whole reports were highly gratifying, and showed a wholesome state of politics, which could be preserved and improved by proper and timely effort and organization. It was the unanimous voice of the committee that proper steps should be taken to effect perfect and working local organizations in every county.

Mr. Clifton presented the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That the Secretary of this committee take such steps as are necessary to ascertain the name and address of the chairmen of the county executive committees; and if it shall appear that any county or counties are without such committees, the Chairman of this committee shall at once do what may seem best to him to secure the organization of such committees: By Mr. Thompson—

Resolved, That this committee recommend the meeting of the democratic executive committee of each county at an early date, and that such county committee is requested to report its organization to this committee, and said county executive committees are earnestly recommended to organize democratic clubs throughout their counties.

By Mr. Kincannon—

Resolved, That the various county executive committees be requested to appoint for each county a sub-elect, whose duty it shall be to meet the speakers of the opposition at all appointments in his county, and to be placed subject to the order of the chairman of the State executive committee for duty in his county.

A motion was made and prevailed, requesting newspaper proprietors of the State to send a copy of their respective journals to Hon. D. P. Porter, secretary, for the use of the committee.

Several other motions and resolutions were acted on, but the above embraces all that is deemed proper to publish and acted like committees worked and acted like men who were in dead earnest, and we look for efficient action from their hands.

Just now the newspapers are teeming with the paragraph, "Don't drink ice-water when you are hot," and it is one that should be regarded by all. The time to drink ice-water is along in the dead of winter, when it is a tight scratch to keep from freezing to death.

Dr. Tanner, the faster, has been accused of taking nutriment out of a sponge. Well, if this is so, the experiment has demonstrated a wonder, as it is the first time we ever heard of anybody getting anything out of a sponge. It has always been the other way.

HOTELS.

Norris House,
Mississippi City, Miss.
J. L. NORRIS, Proprietor.

This house is now open for the reception of permanent or transient boarders, and is kept open all the year round. Excursionists furnished with meals at 75 cents, and no extra charge for rooms. Rates for board reasonable.

May 7, 1880. 34-ly

Private Boarding
A few boarders, by the day, week or month, with or without lodging, can find accommodations at a private boarding house near the railroad depot, on Pascagoula street, Seranton, Miss. Terms in accordance with the times.

May 9, 1879. MRS. F. A. BLAKE. 7-*

THE DODSON HOUSE,
Open all the Year Round.

East Pascagoula, Miss.
Situating immediately upon the beach it has the full benefit of the salt air and salt-water bathing. Noted for its shade trees and croquet ground. Board to suit the times. Address W. S. DODSON, or MRS. C. D. HENDRICKSON.

June 18, 1880. 13-3m

F. W. ILLING,
OCEAN SPRINGS, MISS.

DEALER IN
GENUINE SINGER SEWING MACHINES
Machine needles, Attachments, Machine Oil, Thread and Ready wound Bobs, with Sea Island Cotton, white and black, and the celebrated

Sloan's Six-Wheel
SEWING MACHINE CASTERS.
Agent for the LIGHTNING COVERS BOOKS FILES and LIGHTNING LETTER BINDERS, Etc., Etc.

Sewing Machines sold on monthly instalments. Liberal discount for cash. January 23, 1880. 44-6m

Ocean Springs Hotel
AND MINERAL SPRINGS.

OCEAN SPRINGS, MISS.
This charming summer resort, one of the most delightful on the lake coast, is now open under the new management for the season of 1880, with first-class accommodations for two hundred and fifty guests.

The health and pleasure attractions of the Gulf Coast of Mississippi are unparalleled, and at Ocean Springs alone can visitors enjoy the benefits of the mineral waters. The salt sea bathing and fishing are unsurpassed.

All that visitors can desire is obtainable within three hours' ride from New Orleans and two from Mobile by three daily trains (the accommodation and excursion trains being now extended to this point).

Terms reasonable. HARVEY CREE, Proprietor. June 18, 1880. 13-2m

Spengler House.
The Only Hotel Up-Town.

OPEN ALL NIGHT.—(Opposite the Capitol.)
Rooms renovated, repaired and furnished with new furniture throughout. Guests can choose the American or European plan.

None but polite and attentive servants employed. Sample Rooms fitted up especially for commercial men.

Free Hack from and to all trains, day and night. Terms, $2 per day. When you come to Jackson and want a square meal and clean bed, stop at the Spengler House.

CHRIS. HINCKLE, Manager. March 5, 1880. 50-1f

Montross House,
BILOXI, MISS.

P. J. Montross, Prop'r.
This well-known and popular resort is open the year round for transient and permanent guests. It is delightfully situated, directly on the beach, fronting the Gulf of Mexico, commanding a fine view of the Gulf and the adjacent "islands," and the salt breezes coming from the sea impart new vigor to those suffering from "bronchial complaints," and is peculiarly favorable for rheumatic complaints; and, in fact, is conceded to be one of the most healthy spots along the whole coast. It is situated eighty miles east of New Orleans and sixty-one miles west of Mobile, on the New Orleans and Mobile railroad, one of the finest roads in the Southwest.

The hotel, in its appointments, is first-class, large, pleasant rooms and best of beds; table supplied with abundance of the choicest of food, nicely served. We have several fine-conditioned rooms, leading through a beautiful pine country, and also the beautiful Back Bay, affording a most pleasant drive, for which we have every facility. Bathing, hunting and fishing of the finest kind, and during the season it is the home of countless numbers of sail and row boats, peopled with gay and happy crowds who assemble here to spend the hot months of summer, when pleasure grows more and more delightful, and one never tires of the continual round of pleasure and enjoyment that here presents itself.

For terms, etc., address the proprietor. February 8, 1880. 46-1f

Central Restaurant,
MOSS POINT, MISSISSIPPI.

Having built a wharf at a tremendous expense for the accommodation of foreign and domestic ships and steamboats, I have fitted up the Central Restaurant in first-class style, and have an artist coming from Paris to superintend the decoration and fitting up of the culinary department. I trust that I will receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

FREE LUNCH from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Fresh Lager Beer on tap night and day. Call and see. June 11, 1880. 19-4f

JOB
PRINTING
DONE AT THIS OFFICE.

THE COURTS.

CIRCUIT COURT—SEVENTH DISTRICT.
JAMES S. HANW, Judge.
THOMAS S. FORD, District Attorney.

Lauderdale county, second Monday in February and August, continuing 18 days. Kemper county, first Monday in March and September, continuing 12 days. Clarke county, third Monday in March and September, continuing 12 days. Wayne county, first Monday in April and October, continuing 6 days. Greene county, second Monday in April and October, continuing 6 days. Perry county, third Monday in April and October, continuing 6 days. Marion county, fourth Monday in April and October, continuing 6 days. Hancock county, first Monday after the fourth Monday of April and October, continuing 12 days. Harrison county, third Monday after the fourth Monday of April and October, continuing 6 days. Jackson county, fourth Monday after the fourth Monday of April and October, continuing 12 days.

CHANCERY COURT—7TH DISTRICT.
GEORGE WOOD, Chancellor.

Jackson county, first Monday of March and September, continuing 6 days. Harrison county, second Monday in March and September, continuing 6 days. Hancock county, third Monday in March and September, continuing 6 days. Marion county, second Monday after the fourth Monday in March and September, continuing 6 days. Wayne county, fourth Monday after the fourth Monday of March and September, continuing 6 days. Perry county, first Monday after the 4th Monday in March and September, continuing 6 days. Greene county, fourth Mondays in March and September, continuing 6 days. Lauderdale county, third Monday of May and November, continuing 12 days. Kemper county, second Monday in May November, continuing 6 days. Monthly Rules of Chancery Court on the second Monday in each month.

PROFESSIONAL.
J. J. Barry,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Residence—Hindsboro, Miss.
Can be found at his office, near Court-house, Mississippi City, every day, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 12 m. every day.

Dr. A. P. Champlin,
Biloxi, Miss.
Has returned to Biloxi to stay. He renders his services to the citizens generally.

W. H. McIntosh,
ATTORNEY AT LAW AND NOTARY
No. 40 St. Francis St., Mobile, Ala.
Will practice in the courts of Jackson county.

R. Seal,
ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW
Mississippi City, Miss.
Practices in all the Courts of the Seventh Judicial District.

J. W. Tharp,
ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
No. 11 South Loyal street,
Mobile, Ala.
Will practice in the Circuit and Chancery Courts of Jackson county, Miss., as well as in the courts of Mobile county, Ala. Correspondence solicited.

Dr. W. D. Bragg,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Residence—Moss Point, Miss.
Office—Stewart's drug store, Moss Point, and Cox's drug store, Seranton.
Will practice at Moss Point, Seranton, the Seashore and vicinity.
All calls promptly attended to.

John J. Curtis,
ATTORNEY & COUN