THE P. T. A. SONG

By Walter Ben Hare, Springfield, Mo.
Tune: Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus
I saw the shadows lengthen
Across our mighty land;
I saw the haunt of sorrow
And sin on every hand;
I heard the sobbing Mothers,
The babies' lisping prayer—
Could I sit here in comfort
When I was needed there?
I heard the cry of children
From the sweat-shop and from loom;
And in that cry of anguish
I read a nation's doom.
But Motherhood United
Advanced with flag unfurled—
The hand that rocks the cradle's
The hand that saves the world.
A million happy voices
Awake the land with song,
And Motherhood United
In triumph moves along;
And church and school and Nation
All honor her today—
A word of happy children
Shall bless the P.-T. A.

Mr. Smith—They have machines now that can tell when a man is lying. Ever seen one?
Mr. Fleming—Seen one? By gosh, I married one

PLANT SALES OF THE FIRST WEEK SHOW THAT MY Complete Job Plan

is welcomed with open arms by the farmers of this county. SURPRISE! This expresses the feeling of those who have heard my offer and accepted it— They say: "Didn't think it possible." "How can you afford to sell Willy's Light with such a large battery and a complete job for so little money?" How are you able to give so much?
HERE ARE THE REASONS: 1. Carload freight on plants, accessories, wiring material and fixtures. 2. Quantity prices. Quantity sales--or-thirty plant sales this month allow me to be satisfied with a smaller profit per sale. 3. A special co-operative plan on the part of my factory which makes it possible for me to quote a lower completely installed price than ever before heard of.
