The Incarnation of Christ

56 incarnation must, for all who believe it, become the absolutely central truth of their philosophy.

Just as the Copernican astronomy and the doctrine of evolution have enlarged and modified our views of the universe, so the incarnation, once accepted, throws a new light upon the entire world.

for, on the one hand, against mere idealism it emphasizes the value and importance of matter as being the agent through which God's spiritual purpose is effected, and, on the other hand, against mere materialism it interprets this value and importance as consisting in the capability to subserve this purpose.

Chue, while rejecting the respective negations of idealism and materialism, it sanctions their positive elements—the supremacy of spirit and the reality of matter-and so, supplementing each by the other, combines both in a concrete whole. -J. R. Illingworth.

Christmas Gifts

What can I give him, Poor as I am? If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb.
If I were a wise man I would do my part: Yet what I can I give him-

Give my heart.
—Christina Rossetti.

Christmas gifts for thee, Grand and free! Christmas gifts from the King of Love, Brought to thee in the faroff land. Brought to thee by his own dear hand. Promises held by Christ for thee, Peace as a river flowing free, Joy that in his own joy must live And love that infinite love can give. Surely thy heart of hearts uplifts Carols of praise for such Christmas gifts.

—Frances Ridley Havergal.

The Vision of the Angels. There is love in the will, truth in the understanding, peace on earth, good will among men. The sight of such a glorious vision, even in the dim distance of future ages, kindled the holy affections of the angelic host until their toy burst forth into an anthem of praise that filled the heavens with harmony. "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will among men." Let us take up the refrain, and let the earth re-echo the song "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men."-Rev. Chauncev Giles.

Christ the Shepherd. It is certainly significant of the mission of Christ that shepherds should be the particular recipients of the angelic message. In beautiful parable the Master called bimself the Good Shepherd. There is not one of he ordinary vocations of our busy life which has not in it ennobling and divine elements. Unswerving fidelity is the secret of honor.

The Mission of the Christ Child. Wondrous indeed was the mission of the Christ Child. He gave himself to the world on the first Christmas day, and with him came every other good gift. This is what is typified by every Christmas tree and every gift it bears, by every bulging little stocking that hangs in the chimney corner, by every wreath of holly, by every greeting and merry wish. And this spirit, oh, how much it is needed on the 24th of December and on the 26th, as well as the 25th, and on every day of the round year as well. "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister"-this motto lived out on every day of the year would dispel the sorrows of the world, smooth out its wrinkles, abolish its poverty, soothe its pain. comfort its heartaches, heal its diseases, make it a heaven.-Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark.
