NEWS AND VIEWS

From The
STATE CAPITAL
By F. R. Birdsall

One of the most popular places in Jackson is the Carnegie Public Library, which stands in front of the new million dollar Capitol, and has been presided over since its establishment eight years ago by Mrs. Annie M. Parker. This institution under Mrs. Parker's splendid management has grown to be one of the finest libraries in the south and visitors from all over Mississippi, whom she graciously welcomes, continue to increase in numbers.

Initiative petitions containing 7,500 signatures have been filed with the secretary of state asking for an election in November to change the main sections of the Constitution with reference to bequests, to religious denominations, and schools. It is understood that the Protestant denominations in Mississippi are behind the movement to change the sections of the Constitution on this subject, which were made a part of that instrument when it was adopted by the constitutional convention of 1890.

Visitors to the capital bring the word that trust and combines and the abolishment of the office of state revenue agent which absorbed much of the time of the recent Legislature—an effort being made to repeal the trust and combine laws and to abolish the office of state revenue agent both of which failed—is to be a principle issue for the campaign for governor and members of the legislature next year, and that these matters are being brought to the front in the primary campaign for various offices this year. The revenue agent's office has been unsuccessfully attacked since it was created some forty years ago.

Widely published corrections of erroneous statements that the senatorial, congressional and judicial primaries will not be held on the same day have been made. These primaries are fixed by law and not by executive committee and all take place on August 15. In 1914 the law which authorized the state executive committee to hold senatorial primaries was changed, and provides that the congressional executive committees of the eight districts shall also hold the primaries for United States senator, and make their returns to secretary of state of the result the same as they do for congressman.

The State treasury is empty again, the million dollars received by recent sale of bonds, according to Treasurer Murray, having been spent. Treasurer Murray states that unless another bond issue is made all state warrants are issued with have to hypothecate the same, or hold them until there is money in the treasury. Unless other bonds are sold there will be very little money in the treasury until tax paying time next December when tax collectors settle with the auditor. Authority to allow the state bonding commission to sell bonds was granted by a majority vote of the legislature when it reduced the tax levy from 9 to 8 mills.

The secretary of state expects the printer to have the laws of 1922 ready at an early date, when he will send them to every public officer in Mississippi, and all others who are entitled to receive them. It is not known when the journals of the house and senate will be ready. They are understood to be quite voluminous, and it seems to be taking more time to print them than it has to print the laws. Many inquiries are reported to be made for the legislative journals by candidates, as they contain the yeas and nays votes on all important legislative matters and many of these votes, especially on trust and combine, and the unsuccessful attempt to abolish the state revenue agents of office, are said to be issues in congressional, senatorial and judicial races.

"Watermelon Week" Now, Jackson.—The Mississippi Truck Growers' Association is following up the request of Gov. The Young Mother.

THE ILLS OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN should be so well known to the youngest of mothers that a reminder or a repetition of the symptoms of illness seems unnecessary, yet there are some mothers who overlook a feverish condition, a little colic, or a disposition to be irritable. If not corrected they may lead to serious sickness. And to correct them, to bring Baby back to its happy self, is so easy by the use of Castoria—a medicine prepared just for infants and children. It will regulate the bowels (not force them), aid digestion and so bring quiet and rest.

Fletcher's Castoria has been doing this for over 30 years; regulating the stomach and bowels of infants and children. It has replaced the nauseating Castor Oil, so-called Soothing Syrup, poisonous Paregoric and other vicious concoctions in the homes of true and honest mothers—mothers who love their children.

Those mothers will give their babies foods and medicines especially prepared for infants and children.

CASTORIA

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrup was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.
