

LOCAL ...AND... PERSONAL.

Mr. D. E. Rainey, a prominent and influential citizen and an enterprising merchant, of Sturgis, was transacting business here Wednesday.

Col. and Mrs. J. A. Wiggs were here Wednesday shopping and returned home in their new, beautiful carriage.

Chief Justice A. H. Whitfield was a distinguished personage upon our streets Wednesday.

Mr. Tom Shropshire, the accommodating and efficient druggist of the Richardson Drug Store at Sturgis, was here Tuesday on business.

Mr. Jud Spraggins of Sessums was transacting business here Tuesday.

Mr. L. A. Dawkins, of Sturgis, was transacting business here yesterday. Many of his friends were up to identify him at first sight, never having seen him so thoroughly shaven before. It is very becoming and makes him look quite youthful.

Mrs. J. R. Cannon and little daughter were shopping here yesterday.

Miss Minnie Washington returned from Louisville, Ky., last Wednesday.

The celebrated Sach's Ladies Shoes at Blumen- feld & Fried.

The merchants are getting ready for a large Fall trade.

Business will soon be on a boom. Cotton is opening rapidly and if the weather continues fair it is predicted that it will all be gathered by Nov. 1st.

Mrs. J. S. Lander departed for West Point Monday where she is under treatment of Doctor Unger. She will be there for a month probably returning every Saturday.

Rev. R. H. B. Gladney is conducting a protracted meeting at Crawford this week. He departed Monday morning. He will no doubt have a most successful week.

Mr. T. M. Vaughan has remodeled and painted his neat cottage at Bradley and it is most attractive. Mr. Vaughan is a successful merchant there and does a splendid business.

Mrs. W. W. Nye, of Longview, spent Sunday with her sister here, Mrs. Herries Maxwell.

Mrs. S. M. McIlvaney spent Sunday with relatives at Bradley.

We had a nice shower Monday evening.

Mr. B. R. Henry has been at home for the past week ceiling several unfinished rooms.

Call and inspect the new Grocery warehouse of Blumenfeld and Fried.

OUR JOB DE- PARTMENT IS COMPLETE

Look out for the latest novelties in Ladies Dress Goods and Trim- mings at Blu- menfeld & Fried.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodson and little daughter Maud, came up Sunday and spent the day with their daughter Mrs. J. C. Wood.

Rev. Tom Tomlinson was a visitor to our town Monday.

Messrs. Clint Hunt and W. M. Dabbs, of Sturgis, were here on Monday evening looking after business.

Mrs. T. J. Wood spent Monday with relatives at Ackerman. She returned home accompanied by Master Kellis who had been visiting relatives at New Albany and Ackerman.

Mr. T. W. Woodward and Lawyer G. Odie Daniel spent Monday at Sturgis.

Mrs. Walter Shropshire, of Sturgis, visited relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. J. P. Castles, of Sessums neighborhood, was looking after business here Tuesday.

It is the most unreasonable personage who is so thoughtless and presumptuous as to take liberties in criticising their fellows uncomplimentarily and most uncharitably and expect courtesies and respect from them in return.

Mrs. W. D. Askew and her interesting daughter Miss Pattie Will were here Tuesday shopping.

Mr. A. C. Ervin is having the David A. Bardwell old quarters remodeled and will occupy same himself. The improvement is one of enterprise and progress.

T. E. Alexander, Sr., who has been visiting in his old home in Winston Co., for several weeks, Pugh Mill neighborhood, passed through Tuesday en-route to Macon where he has employment.

T. E. Alexander, Jr., who has been spending some time in South Miss., passed through Tuesday morning on his way home south of Longview in Winston Co.

Mr. J. T. Bobbitt, of Newton, who worked here several years ago spent a portion of Wednesday and Thursday here. He is a splendid sheet iron worker and withal a first class young gentleman. He left here for Montgomery and Louisville and will be absent for thirty days before returning home. We appreciate his visit very much and wish him much happiness and prosperity.

Rev. E. C. Newburn preached at Sessums Sunday for Rev. J. N. Hall and that evening departed for Longview where he will be engaged in a Union meeting for a week or more. He and Revs. Tom Tomlinson and J. N. Hall will conduct the meeting and probably with the assistance of Mr. W. V. Shearer. It is hoped that a good meeting will be the result.

OKTIRBEHA COUNTY FAIR!

STARKSVILLE, MISS.,
October 8, 9 and 10, 1907.

Fine agricultural and live stock exhibits.

Three days of racing by fastest horses in the State.

Liberal premiums awarded on all exhibits. Let everybody attend.

H. H. SIKES, Secretary.

Cossett's Cele- brated Shoes for Men at Blumen- feld & Fried.

Prof. J. S. Weir and family, of College Station, Texas, are on a visit to relatives here. We are pleased to see Stewart looking as himself, natural. Prof. Weir is of the faculty of the Agricultural & Mechanical College of Texas and most efficient. We are reminded of the magnitude of this institution when we consider that Texas is about seven times as large as our state.

Mr. W. W. Blake, of Sturgis, spent several days here last week looking after business. Mr. Blake is engaged in the laying of a tramway into the forest for the large saw mill now being erected near Philadelphia. It is being laid with standard Steel rails and when completed will be 30 or 40 miles in length and will eventually reach Meridian it is thought. Mr. Blake is in search of more laborers. We wish Mr. Blake much success and prosperity.

Mesdames W. F. DeMiller and W. H. Leslie, of Mobile, who were pleasant visitors in the hospitable home of Mr. F. E. Gottseig, their brother, several days, departed for West Point Monday morning where they will visit other relatives before returning home.

The newest styles of Laces, Ribbons and Cor- sets at Blumen- feld & Fried.

Judge Holloman, of the Bradley neighborhood, was here yesterday looking after business.

Mr. A. Magolis is in New York buying his Fall and Winter stock. He proposes to satisfy his patrons and the general public. Look for his Ad. later on.

Hon. J. Q. Robbins presided at the September term of the Chancery Court in his usually dignified manner and dispatched quite an amount of business. We are quite fortunate in having such an able and painstaking Chancellor.

Pay up your subscription to the NEWS. We have indulged you at a great personal and financial sacrifice.

Mr. D. W. Outlaw, Jr., was transacting business here Wednesday.

Visiting Attorneys to our Chancery Court this week: Gould and McKegney, Eupora; S. H. Harrington, Macon and Hon. J. G. Millsaps, West Point.

Mr. F. G. Hawkins, a popular and prominent business man of West Point, was an appreciated guest in the hospitable home of his brother-in-law, Hon. J. W. Norment, Sunday, 2 miles north west of Starkville.

Mr. James Edwards, of Sturgis, was here on business Wednesday.

Miss Mary Colclough returned from the Jamestown Exposition, Washington, D. C., and other points of interest last week after several weeks absents.

A car of Lion Buggies just to hand.

Turner & Pierce.

Goodman Bros. are getting ready for the fall trade and will have one of the most inviting stores in the city.

Mr. H. J. Livingstein, when completed will have one of the most attractive stores upon Main Street.

The Dixie Bargain House people are beginning to look as if at home in their new quarters on Main Street.

Prof. and Mrs. J. S. Wallace and Master Harris are visiting relatives at Corinth this week and part of last.

Mr. Jonas P. McManis, of the Longview neighborhood, an old Confederate veteran, was here Wednesday.

Mr. M. Rossoff is still absent, but new goods are piling in by the wagon loads.

Blumenfeld &
Fried are now receiving an entire new stock of fall and winter goods.

Chancery Court adjourned at noon Wednesday.

Merchants at Sturgis are getting in a large stock of goods for the Fall and Winter business.

Mrs. Laura Bridges, of Starkville, and Mrs. Charlie Denham, and little children, Mildred, Elizabeth and Loula, of Laurel, are the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Miles, this week.—Eupora Progress.

Mr. S. Gary, one of Kosciusko's prominent citizens and large merchants, spent several days here this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. M. Block. Mr. Gary is most favorably impressed with our city and with what he saw of its surroundings.

Miss Minnie Washington departed for Louisville, Ky., last Friday where she will purchase her fall and winter stock of millinery and will occupy her new quarters heretofore occupied by Mr. Tom Katz, a most desirable location. Her stock will be full and complete and such as to please her costumers and the public generally.

Mrs. Cordelia Cornell and grand son, Mr. W. E. Ward, after six or eight weeks' visit to Prof. J. T. Connell's home at Gulfport returned home Sunday evening. Will E. reports a most delightful time and pleasant visit.

Messrs. Benton Daugherty, of Hickory Grove and J. E. Daugherty, of Lowndes County, were here attending Chancery Court this week.

Dr. T. C. Wier, after a most successful meeting at Sturgis last week returned home Friday morning. We are glad to see the Doctor looking so well and vigorous and hope that he will be spared many years of usefulness and happiness.

Mr. W. H. N. Seitz, one of Longview's popular and enterprising citizens, was here looking after business Wednesday.

Mr. J. H. McKinnon, a prominent citizen and merchant of Weir, spent Tuesday and part of Wednesday in our town on business.

Most every town reports its first bale of new cotton. Goodman Bros. purchased it and Mr. A. W. Reynolds the seed.

Starkville has about the best Cotton Warehouse within the State and complete in all its appointments.

Mr. T. H. Cox returned from Ackerman where he has been visiting for several days Tuesday night. His little niece, Miss Minnie Marton, accompanied him and will be a pleasant guest for a while in his home.

Mr. D. C. Johnston section foreman of the Ills. Cent. spent Monday at Kosciusko on business.

The Chancery Court brought in quite a number of people from all sections of the county this week.

Mr. J. N. Hamill, of the firm of Robt. L. Hannah & Co., general merchants, of Sturgis, spent a portion of yesterday at the A. & M. C. and here. He accompanied several boys who came up to enter college. Mr. Hamill was a student some years ago of that institution.

NOTICE:—Extra copies of the NEWS may be had at this office.