The North Mississippi Conference of the M. E. Church South, adjourned Tuesday, having been in session for a week. There was a vast amount of business transacted, which will, no doubt, result in great good for mankind in the uplift of the Master's work. Our entire community is glad to know that Rev. T. H. Lipscomb was returned to the church here, though it was not expected, for he has given general satisfaction, a splendid man and a most excellent and zealous preacher and a rising young young minister, far in advance in his age, a christian gentleman of scholarly attainments and becoming meekness. Another good thing, the next Annual Conference will be held in our city and we predict this far in advance that it will be more largely attended than any conference for a number of years. Our state institution of learning that is so generously patronized throughout the state, will be a distinct attraction. A welcome greeting.

We believe that it has been 25 or 30 years since it convened here last.

Mr. Tom Nimmo, an old confederate veteran, one of Oktibbeha's oldest citizens, residing south of Sturges, was a business visitor here Tuesday. He very seldom comes to our town, but a man who stays close to home.

He has been the owner of trained cats for years that he hunts rabbits, coons, possums, and other wild game. Some may not believe it to be a fact, but it is true.

To the friends and patrons of the College,

Dear Friends:

Any reluctance that I may feel in addressing this appeal to you more than counterbalance by the worthiness of the cause. The Young Men's Christian Association, one of the largest student organizations of its kind in the South, is one of the strongest forces for good at this College. The membership comprises earnest and trustworthy young men, who are working for better social and religious conditions for their fellows. But the work of organization is now, and has been for a number of years, embarrassed by a lack of proper facilities. It has long ago outgrown the small building which in former years was the home of the Associations. It is now with out assembly rooms, Bible study rooms, mission study rooms, or equipment of any kind. All public services are held in the college auditorium, but such services are the smallest part of our religious and moral training. The Bible study classes, the mission study classes, the prayer services, the reading clubs, and the social circles have no permanent meeting place.

An opportunity is now presented by which these facilities may be provided. Forty Thousand Dollars has been offered as a donation toward the erection and equipment of a Y. M. C. A. building on condition that the people of the State will show enough interest in the moral welfare of Mississippi's boys to donate $20,000. The proposed new building will give us ample facilities and will add greatly to the religious, moral, and social welfare of our student body. The realization of this wonderful uplifting agency depends upon the liberality of the patriotic citizens of Mississippi. The money must be in hand in cash within a month's time. THERE IS NO CHANCE TO GET THE TIME EXTENDED.

ED.

The building committee has in cash, or its equivalent, about $14,000. The remaining $16,000 is yet to be secured. It must come as voluntary subscriptions, as the committee has no one to send over the state collecting this fund. There are hundreds of men and women in Mississippi, each of whom could contribute a goodly portion of this amount, and render the greatest possible service to the young men of the state. Contributions may be sent to Dr. W. N. Logan, Chairman of the Building Committee, or to Mr. T. W. Davis, Treasurer, Agriculture College, Mississippi. Bonded banks of Starkville are custodians of this fund.

Every dollar contributed or expended will be reported to the Alumni Association and to the State Legislature. Who will send $5,000? $1,000? $500? $100? or any other amount, and help a worthy cause? Please do not turn a deaf ear to this appeal, which is made for the moral uplift of the young men of Mississippi.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) G. R. Hightower, Pres., Mississippi A. and M. College
