

Trustee's Sale.

The State of Mississippi,
Oktibbeha County.

Under the provisions and by the authority of a certain trust deed executed on the 15th day of February, 1913, by Tom Wynn and his wife Linnie Wynn to Wirt Carpenter as trustee, to secure certain indebtedness named therein, to the Security State Bank, of Starkville, Mississippi, said trust deed being recorded in deed book 125, page 442 of the Land Records of said county and state, I will on the 27th day of February 1915, offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash to the best and highest bidder at the front door of the Court House in said city of Starkville, said county and state, within legal hours, the following described property, conveyed by said trust deed, to wit:

All of the interest of said Tom and Linnie Wynn on the date of said trust deed, in the East 1/4 of South West 1/4 of the North West 1/4, and the South East 1/4 of the North West 1/4 of section 23, and the South East 1/4 of the South East 1/4 of section 9, all in township 19, range 14 East, and also one black horse mule, about 4 years old, named Prince, one Jersey colored cow, about five years old named Rose, and one white cow about four years old named Flower, and all of the increase of said cows since the date of said trust deed.

The title to the above property is believed to be good, but I will convey only such title as is vested in me under the terms and conditions of said trust deed:

Witness my signature this the 2nd day of February, A. D. 1915.

WIRT CARPENTER,
Trustee.

"THE ROAD OF COMFORT."

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Meeting of The Y's.

A meeting of the Young Peoples Branch of the W.C.T.U. which was recently organized under the leadership of Mrs. G. G. Snow, was held at the home of Miss Annie Barr Maxwell, at 8 p. m., Thursday, February 18th 1915.

After the meeting was called to order by the president, Joseph S. Rice, an interesting editorial of Miss Elizabeth Crane, our State organizer of the Y's, from the Mississippi White Ribbon, was read by Mr. Vaughn which editorial is a forceful and urgent call for enlistment of young people in the White Ribbon Brigade. Miss Helen Hawkins, then read an extract from one of W. J. Bryans editorials in which he requests all young men to pledge themselves to be total abstainers. There were other interesting features of the meeting, at least all present were interested and enthusiastic over our present work and prospects for the future in this organization! but as it was a business meeting and primarily interested those present, it suffices to say further, only, that the business was dispensed pleasantly, orderly, and efficiently under the administration of its president with much enthusiasm shown throughout by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn who resided in one of the R. L. Howell's houses have moved in the house occupied by J. T. Dawkins having rented apartments with the latter
