Those Who Come and Go

Business Notice.

As usual at this season of the year we find it necessary to send out statements of subscriptions due. We are following the usual custom and will mail these notices out as soon as practical with a request that they be paid promptly. We want to collect every subscription due us by January 1st, 1912.

Frank Payne, of Bog, spent Wednesday here on business.

Wm. Schumpert, of Richmond, was here on business Monday.

Mrs. C. O. Coggin, of Allenburg, spent the day here Wednesday.

Messrs. M. L. Clifton and Albert Ritter were visitors to Houston the first of the week.

Mr. W. S. Honnoll was here Monday after a thirty days trip in Georgia where he reports business good.

John Young, one of the fifth districts best citizens, was here to attend the boy's corn club meeting Wednesday.

Messrs. Tobe Gore and M. L. Jones, of Egville, two of the county's most substantial citizens, spent Monday here.

Capt. and Mrs. William DuBard, Miss DuBard and Miss Austin, of Grenada, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinds.

Mrs. Geo. T. Mitchell and Miss Virginia Mitchell returned Sunday evening from Okolona, where they were the guests of friends.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. A. Monaghan Thursday at 3 p. m., November 8. We want a full attendance to hear echoes from the convention.

Misses Nancy Cavett and Linda Kincannon have returned from Oxford, where they were the guests of Miss Frankie Kincannon at the University for several days.

Mrs. Parsons and children, of Tampa, Fla., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. High. Mrs. Parson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David High, well known among our citizens.

The Young Woman's Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual One Price Bazaar, and in connection an "Advertising Sale" beginning Dec. 5th and continuing one week. The place will be named later.

Mrs. Geo. T. Mitchell has as her attractive guests, Mrs. M. W. Waller and Mrs. G. W. Cole, on Okolona. Mrs. Mitchell was the hostess at the semi-monthly Fortnightly Club at which a most pleasing program furnished delightful entertainment for the afternoon.

Mr. Jim Jackson, of the fourth district was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Jackson was the victim of an accident which confined him to his home for the past two months and is just now able to be out. He fell from a load of cotton, both wheels of the wagon running over his body. His injuries at the time were such as to create a doubt of his ultimate recovery, but he is now able to be out with the aid of a cane.

Pittsburg Perfect Fence.

"The Weld That Held." If you are going to build a fence, you had better see us before doing so. Just received two carloads of Pittsburg Perfect Fence, both stock and poultry. Will turn anything from an elephant to a chicken, and is cheaper than splitting rail. Asa W. Allen & Company.

For Sale.

Sixteen head Duroc Jersey red pigs—the very best hog for the South. Profitable, quick growers, easily fattened. They are by the way and my price is low. See them. Asa W. Allen.

Winter is coming. We carry a large assortment of Window Glass, all sizes. Pound-Kincannon-Elkin Co.

I have 25 head mule colts one and two years old, and five head saddle-bred colts and fillies for sale or exchange for good work mules. Asa W. Allen.

HOUSE WANTED.—I want to rent a five or six room house. If you have one that will be vacant soon, see Henry J. Loeb, at Loeb's Cash Store, Spring street.

I have three good Jacks and a fine combination Station that I will sell cheap or let to good responsible parties on shares—must dispose of them. See me at once. Asa W. Allen.

As a strength giving tonic nothing excels The Bury Durgists' Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites. Price $1.00 per bottle or six for $5.00.

LOST.—Saturday afternoon, October 14, one black hand grip about seven inches long, eight inches wide, nine inches high containing doctor's instruments. Liberal reward for its return to Dr. J. O. Guray, Topeka.

INVITED BIDS ON WARDROBE

Woman Let Out the Work to Dressmaker Who Submitted the Lowest Figures.

Letting out the making of a summer wardrobe to the lowest bidder is a new wrinkle to one dressmaker who was recently invited to participate in such a contest.

"I have a number of gowns, separate-blouses and shirtwaists which I wish made up by July 1," wrote the woman who had the contract to let. "Will you kindly call at my house for particulars and make an estimate of charges?"

The dressmaker went and named a figure. When she came back she said she never felt so important in her life.

"It was like bidding for a government job," she said, "and when I agreed to make up so many yards of foulard, dimity and linen for a certain sum I felt as if I were signing a contract to drape the columns of the library or post office or some other public building. That illusion was heightened by the size of the customer who is stately enough for statuary and solid enough for masonry. There is only a small chance of my getting the work, for she invited scores of other dressmakers to compete, some of whom are likely to underbid me, but if I do get it it will be the first order I ever obtained on those businesslike terms."

PROTECTS THE DAD'S RIGHTS

Ellis Parker Butler Organizes the Fond Father's Oop-de-Baby Association of America.

At the first sign of an attempt to standardize and sterilize the babies, says Ellis Parker Butler, writing in Success Magazine, I organized the "Fond Fathers' Oop-de-baby Association of America." For thousands of years fathers have been permitted to oop-de-baby unrestrained, and this right was one of the first rights attacked by the advocates of the automatic baby. I considered it a double blow, at the baby and at the father, and resented it as such. If a father may not oop his own baby, what is the world coming to?

Ooping the baby is a father's greatest pleasure. It is the act of grasping the baby under the arms, tossing the baby into the air and catching it on its down-trip, while the words "oop-de-baby!" are repeated at each toss. This is repeated until the baby is hysterical, or drops on the floor by accident. It is then handed to its mother.

MACREADY AND THE BARON.

A scapegrace baron pawned the coronet he had worn at the coronation of Queen Victoria. Having a slight acquaintance with Macready, he wrote to the actor offering to sell the pawn ticket, and suggested that the redeemed item of headgear would be an interesting theatrical "property." Macready replied with characteristic sarcasm that if the thing had been owned by a nobleman of mark who had got into straitened circumstances he would have favorably considered the application. But he did not think his stock of "properties" would be improved by the addition of a gilded coronet that had been worn by a numskull and pawned by a profligate.

OLD CORONATION CUSTOMS.

The practice of running the fountains and conduits with wine on coronation day was abandoned after the reign of Queen Elizabeth, but another old custom was observed up to the coronation of George IV. After the king and the company had departed from the banquet in Westminster hall the doors were thrown open and the people rushed in and cleared the tables of everything—victuals, cloths, plates, dishes, etc., all vanished in a few minutes. And, as Sir Walter Scott tells us, the nobility were not above taking away the saltcellars and spoons. And at the recent coronation they received the chairs on which they sit in the abbey.

STAGE COACH OF THE TWENTIES.

Mr. Brooks Bowman commenced running an hourly stage coach between Boston and Roxbury on March 1, 1826. He left the "town house" on "Roxbury hill" every day in the week, except the Sabbath, at 8, 10, 12, 2, 4 and 6 o'clock, and returning started from the "Old South church" at 9, 11, 3, 5 and 7 o'clock. The fare was 12½ cents each way.

PUBLIC SALE

Two Car Loads Mules, Mares and Shetland Ponies.

NEW ALBANY, MISS., SATURDAY, NOV. 11TH, 1911.

Consisting of 17 head coming two year old choice Mules, weight 760 pounds. This age mule is being worked in Tennessee and Missouri to a good advantage and if not abused, make stronger and better animals.

Ten three year old mules, average weight about 940 pounds.

Some good young geldings and brood mares to make up the cars, all in excellent condition.

Fifteen head thoroughbred Shetland ponies, a choice lot and a splendid opportunity to purchase a pony for your children. These are all colts and thus giving you an opportunity for them to grow up with your boys and girls. It is conceded by good authority that ponies with children make manly boys and womanly women.

Note—All of the above were bred and raised on my Stock Farm near Kansas City, Mo., but on account of the drouth and the extreme shortage and high price of feed, I am compelled to dispose of these two cars.

TERMS—Twelve months time will be allowed on notes with approved security, drawing ten per cent interest. Two per cent off for cash.

All of this stock is guaranteed by me as represented.

W. J. SWAIN.

Sale commences New Albany, Miss., 10 a. m. Saturday, November 11th.

Try Depositing Your Money And Give Checks

The successful farmer of today who does not carry a bank account is an exception. To no one is a checking account more of a luxury. It solves the problem of always having his money at hand, and of making exact change and receiving a receipt in return for the money paid.

Some men even to this day persist in carrying a roll of currency on their person—they are the ones we usually read of in the papers as having been held up, or if they store it away at home the rats are likely to cut it.

A bank account is the best burglary insurance you can have. This bank wants your business—we will appreciate it—and the fact that others are pleased with our service is a good guarantee that you will be. Your neighbor does business with us, let us have yours.
