

A Modern Building

The old Riley building on Broadway, which was purchased some months ago by Dr. L. C. Feemster and which has been undergoing a thorough remodeling, is now ready for occupancy, the carpenters and painters putting the finishing touches on this week.

The building has been transformed into a modern, up-to-date office building, with a new front, steam heat and other conveniences, and is now one of the handsomest business buildings in Tupelo.

The ground floor is divided into two handsome store rooms. The one on the north will be occupied by the Ladies Sample Suit Co. and Mrs. M. W. Thurman, millinery, and the one on the south will be occupied by Clifton's Pharmacy. The rooms are large and well lighted and are ideal for the purposes to which they will be put.

The second story is divided into offices, conveniently arranged, and at present the occupants are Dr. L. C. Feemster, Dr. H. M. Anderson, Dr. W. A. Toomer, Dr. E. D. Foster and the Monarch Club.

It has not been decided to what use the third story will be put, and up to the present nothing has been done to it, but it will be arranged and fitted up as occasion requires.

The remodeling of this building has added very materially to the business section of the town, and is another step forward in the building up of the best town on the map of Mississippi.

Birthday Party

Little Margaret Lumpkin celebrated her sixth birthday last Saturday by entertaining a number of her friends at an afternoon party.

A jolly time was had playing games after which the little folks were invited into the dining room where a most attractive table was spread, the center piece being the birthday cake with its six lighted candles. Delicious ices, cakes and candy were served, and the afternoon passed most happily.

The little hostess received a number of gifts and the best wishes from her many friends.

Wilburn-Cooley

Last Sunday at the home of Mr. E. C. Wilburn in Gilvo Rev. S. D. Shelton performed the ceremony uniting in holy wedlock Mr. Wm. Wilburn and Mrs. Nellie Cooley. A large number of friends were present to witness the ceremony which joined together two members of prominent families of the county.

Mr. Wilburn is a prominent planter of Nettleton and his bride comes of one of our most prominent families of Mantachie. A large circle of admiring friends extend congratulations and wish for them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Sells Fine Hog

Wednesday B. F. Ballard sold to Phagan & Gammel, of Waller-ville, a Poland China brood sow for the sum of $150.00. This sow was raised on Mr. Ballard's farm near Verona, where he makes a specialty of this breed of hogs, and every year sells several at a fancy price, which goes to show that there is money in the hog business when conducted on the right principles.

Will Have Fair

A mass meeting of the citizens of the town and county will be held at the court house next Monday afternoon at four o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Fair Association, and making the preliminary arrangements for a fair to be held in Tupelo the coming fall.

There is no reason why as good a fair cannot be held in Tupelo as any town in the state, and the early starting of the movement is in the right direction as it takes time to make the necessary arrangements for the holding of a fair.

With an early start farmers and others can get their exhibits in readiness, and when the time arrives for the fair everything will be in shape for exhibition.

Let everybody interested come out to the meeting Monday, and get a good start and let Tupelo have the best fair to be held in North Mississippi next fall.

Revival Services

Commencing February 20 at the Presbyterian church there will be held a series of revival services. Dr. Joseph Rennie, of Greenwood, will take charge Monday night, doing all the preaching. Dr. Rennie is a strong gospel preacher, and those who avail themselves of this privilege are sure to be helped.

These services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The music will be under the direction of Miss Katie Topp and Mr. R. E. Mell. They are securing the assistance of the best singers in town, so we can expect something good from that part of the service.

The pastor takes this means of extending to everyone a cordial invitation to come and take part in this, our Master's business. George P. Scott.

Help the Little Ones

A letter from the Mississippi Children's Home Society, Jackson, says:

"It was through the loyal co-operation of good Mississippians last year that we were enabled to do for these neglected little ones the largest piece of work we have done since our organization four years ago. Altogether we have placed 429 children in selected family homes. Of this number 186 were placed last year. Our receiving home is now full and we have 425 on the waiting list. For these waiting we have 800 good homes open, but the problem comes in bringing the childless home and the homeless child together."

A representative of this Society is now working in the county and any donations you make to this worthy cause will be appreciated.

Gets First Set

Mrs. R. L. Brown, of Belden route 1, was the first to receive a set of the beautiful Colonial China dishes we are giving away to those getting us twelve new subscribers to the Journal at our special price of $1.00 per year, and came in Monday and turned over the names and carried her dishes home with her.

Who will be the next one? There are no strings tied to this offer. Everyone getting twelve new subscribers to the Journal at our special price of $1 per year gets a 31 piece set of Colonial China dishes.

Fortnightly Matinee Club

On Wednesday, Feb. 9, the Fortnightly Matinee Club met with Mrs. Frank L. Kincannon at her attractive home on North Church street.

Mrs. Kincannon was assisted in welcoming her guests by her sisters, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. V. C. Kincannon.

The president, Mrs. Perkins, called the meeting to order.

After roll call and the reading of minutes the club voted to add their petition to the numerous others sent to the legislature urging the preservation of the historic old state house.

The following program was then given: Subject, "Household Problems."

"Which is the Better Way to Increase Efficiency, by Wise Saving or Wise Spending?"—Mrs. Motlow.

Reading, "The Home"—Mrs. Mahlon Brown.

"Mothers Should Know the Chemistry of Food."—Mrs. Weaver.

Selection—Mrs. B. A. Rogers. Housekeeping Experiences—The Club.

Director, Mrs. McGaughy.

At the conclusion of the program an attractive plate luncheon was served, suggestive of the approach of St. Valentine. Mrs. Kincannon's sweet, dainty little daughters, Misses Mary Louise and Florrie, helped her in serving.

A large number of guests enjoyed with the club the charming hospitality of this occasion.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. S. J. High Feb. 23 at 3 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

By the Secretary

Every man that likes to sing will enjoy the Sunday afternoon gatherings of men and boys in the Y. M. C. A. lobby. About fifty were present at the initial "sing" last Sunday at 3:30. Come out and enjoy the services.

The Valentine Party held by the Intermediate Boys last Friday night was greatly enjoyed by all. We are always glad when the boys can invite the girls to have a good time with them in the building.

The Sherman basket ball team "mopped up" with the "Y" fellows Saturday night. Lack of team work because we had no regular team was the cause of our defeat. We expect to get Sherman a closer game in the future.

The Checker tournament for the Intermediate boys is now well under way. Twenty-two boys have entered this even and the champion will certainly have to be a shark to win out.

The "Turkey League" continues to hold the interest the boys at high pitch. With only one more week to run it looks as though Bates Hinds and Robert Clark will be the winners. But you never can tell.

A Card of Thanks

We, the committee on collecting funds to pay for the painting of Auburn church, take this method of expressing our thanks to our friends and neighbors, and especially to our friends in Tupelo, for their liberal contributions. We secured the full amount due for painting the church.

10 pcs. 2x4 inches by 16 feet.

2 pcs 2x4 inches by 14 feet.

Dripping Pen Chute and Vat Cover.

The lumber for the forms can be used on the roof, in the dripping pen and as splash boards.

23 posts 10 feet long.

2 1/2 squares prepared roofing.

14 pcs. 1x6 inches by 16 feet.

4 pcs. 1x12 inches by 16 feet.

8 pcs. 1x12 inches by 14 feet.

5 pcs 1x12 inches by 12 feet.

6-6 inch Tee Hinges, Nails.

Specifications for Making Cattle Vat.

Pit—Dig the pit 6 feet deep, 3 feet 9 inches wide on top and 30 inches wide at the bottom. The bottom level is 12 feet long. There is a 2-foot incline or slope where the cattle go in and a 12-foot slope where they go out. The top of the vat is 26 feet long and 1 foot above the ground.

Inside Dimensions When Finished—The sides and bottom have 6-inch concrete walls so that when finished the vat is 6 feet deep, the top is 3 feet wide and the bottom 18 inches wide. The bottom is 11 1/2 feet long, and the top 15 feet.

Dripping Pen—The 4-inch concrete chute is made so it will drain back into the vat. It is 15 feet long by 12 feet wide.

Cattle chute is 20 feet long by 12 feet wide. The first 6 feet of the chute has a 4-inch concrete floor. The fence is 7 feet and 9 inches high.

Pen—Have one pen for the cattle to be dipped, and one for the cattle as they come out of the vat. The pens may join and be on one side of the vat.

Splash Boards—Board up 3 feet above the top of the vat walls on each side of the vat to prevent waste of solution by splashing.

Concrete—The concrete for the vat, the dripping pen and the chute is a 2 1/4 mixture, that is 1 part cement, 2 parts sand, and four parts stone or gravel. Apply a cement wash to the vat walls as soon as the forms are removed.

Capacity—When filled to a depth of 5 feet and 3 inches, the vat holds 1,500 gallons.

Frame and Concrete Walls—Make the frame the proper size for the inside of vat. This leaves a space of 6 inches between the frames, and dirt or clay walls of pit which is of the proper thickness for the concrete wall.

Roof—The vat and dripping pen should be covered so as to protect the solution from being diluted from rain.

Club Entertained

Mrs. J. R. Jones was the hostess of the Bridge club Tuesday afternoon. The rooms used for entertaining were made attractive with growing plants and flowers. Besides the club members Mrs. Jones had an extra table for invited guests. The tally cards suggested the Valentine idea.

The club prize was captured by Mrs. Ernest Joyner, while the guest prize was won by Mrs. C. W. Troy.

Charlotte and cake were served.

Don't take a day off—take Lemolac and keep working.

Trustee's Sale Notice

By virtue of the provisions of a certain deed of trust given by Mattie Marks and her husband, W. G. Marks, on the 21st day of January, 1915, to me as trustee, to secure a certain indebtedness therein mentioned, to C. P. Long, which said deed of trust is of record in book 115, page 329, of the cross index records of Lee County, Mississippi, default having been made in the payment of said indebtedness, I will as such trustee at the request of C. P. Long, the holder and owner of said debt, on the 11TH DAY OF MARCH, A. D., 1916, within legal hours, in front of the Court House door, in the City of Tupelo, Mississippi, offer for sale, for cash, to the highest bidder, at public outcry, the land described as follows: Forty (40) acres, being the south west quarter of the north east quarter of Section 19, Township 9, Range 6, in Lee County, Mississippi. I will convey such title as is vested in me as trustee.

This February, 15th, 1916.
