READY FOR THE PICNIC.

THE FORESTERS' AMALGAMATED COMMITTEE MET LAST NIGHT.

Chief Ranger McHale Will Be Floor Manager-The Games to Be Run Off-A Variety of Notes About the Courts

An interesting meeting of the amalgamated committee of the A. O. F. was held in Roche's Hall last night to arrange for the approaching picnic and excusion of the order. Chairman Wagner called the meeting to order, when, the business on hand for the evening being stated, the delegates bethought themselves of a floor manager. Chief Ranger J. D. McHale, of Court Pride of Jersey City, was unanimously elected to the responsible position. Joseph F. Flaherty, of Court Grove, and Edward H. Osborne, of Court Gen. eral Lafayette, were elected assistants to Brother McHale. James Henriette, of Court Emmett, was elected chairman of the Reception Com. mittion, and W. D. Reynolds, of Enterprise Conclave, was made chairman of the Police Committee.

At the next meeting of the courts three assistants to the above committe e will be assistants to the above committee with the elected. The Committee on Games have made their list up as follows, and from all appearances there is a good chance for plenty of sport:—

100-yards run, open to all; 880-yards run, open to all; 440-yards run, for Foresters over forty years of age; 1-mile run, open to all; sack race, open to all; 880-yards run, for Foresters sons over eighteen years of age; 3-legged race, tug-of-war and grand bowling contest.

war and grand bowling contest.

Entries will close Angust 25, with F. N. McCormack, No. 236 Grove street.

On Wednesday night the Games Committee, headed by Chairman Reynolds, will be at Roche's Hall for the purpose of selling the programme for the big pienic. Here is a good chance for some one who has enterprise to help a good cause, and at the same time make some money.

cause, and at the same time make some money.

The meeting adjourned to meet same time and place next Sunday evening.

The meeting of Court Emmett, Friday night, was a rousing one. Five candidates were initiated, and if they keep on coming in, in a short time there will be a lively competition between this court and Court Jersey City to see who will keep ahead in the matter of numbers. The main feature of the meeting was the sale of the bar privilege on the day of the coming excursion. Several brothers wanted it, and they made it extremely lively for Auctioneer James R. Murphy. At last the whole business was knocked down to Brother Hand, who bid $200 for it. Sub-Chief McGuire was bidding in the interest of an unknown friend, and the boys had lots of fun.

A number of visiting Foresters were present, among whom were Chief Ranger Maxon and a large delegation from Court General Lafayette; a delegation from Court Hudson, a delegation from Court Stevens, Chief Ranger George B. Crissy, Brother Dale and others from Court Astley, also delegates from Courts Paulus Hook and Pavouia. Chief Crissy and James R. Murphy made interesting addresses and Delegate Fallehee spoke about the coming session of the High Court. Songs were suug by Brothers Abbott and Trumbull, of Court General Lafayette, and Sub-Chief McGuire, of Court Emmett.

Brothers McGuire and Craig would make a good team. A number of visiting Foresters were Court Pavonia met as usual last Wednesday night in the Germania Bank Building. The report of the Auditing Committee was read and approved. Delegate Winfield S. Weed made a speech upon the color question, and received his instructions as to what course to pursue in the convention. Brother Lavin has not forgotten how to open the beer. Sub-Chief Keoughan has lost his voice. Brother Scanlan is said to be a fine Dutch comedian. Some of the boys ask "where was O'Neill when the beer went out?" Brother Mitchell and Bogan were last seen tramping to Greenville. Where did Bogan lose his sash? When will Gormely's baby become a Forester?

At the last meeting of Sanctuary Ever Faithful W. S. Weed and Joseph Delowere elected delegates to the Subsidiary High Court. Three candidates were initiated.

The officers elect of Court Hoboken

The officers elect of Court Hoboken were installed at the last meeting with were installed at the last meeting with the usual ceremonies. Among the visit-ors were Chief Ranger T. B. Crotty, Court Grove; Chief Ranger G. B. Crissy, Court Astley; Chief Ranger J. D. McHale, Court Pride of Jersey City, and a number of brothers from other courts. Brother Seymour was elected aid to Grand Mar-shall De Larger.

Seymour was elected aid to Grand Marshall De Largy.

The usual attendance of members was noticed at the meeting of Court Grove Thursday night. Three candidates were initiated and three propositions for membership were received. A motion was put and carried that each member of the court take five tickets for the amalgamated picnic on Foresters' Day, the five tickets to cost the sum of $1, and the secretary was instructed to mail them to the tary was instructed to mail them to the residence of each member. On motion it was decided to offer a medal, the cost of which is to be $10, to the member who shall bring in the largest number of members by January 10. Chief Crotty got up and in-formed the meeting that he intends to formed the meeting that he intends to bring in the largest number of members himself and that he will not accept the medal, but he will let the man who brings in the next highest number have the medal. He explained that his object in refusing to accept the medal was that it would be bought with money taken from the treasury of the court, and he is not willing to be the means of reducing the sum in the treasury. Heinformed them that if they considered it worth while to make a present at that time he would be pleased sum in the treasury. Heinformed them that if they considered it worth white to make a present at that time he would be pleased to accept it, so long as the purchase money was not taken from the treasury. At the next meeting the quarterly report will be presented. The report will show that during the past three months nearly $300 has been added to the treasury, which will make a balance on hand of about $700. If the casualties do not increose in a larger proportion than during the first part of the year, there will be about one thousand dollars in the treasury by next January.

Court General Lafayette held a rousing meeting at the Lafayette House last Wednesday night. Chief Ranger W. B. Maxon was installed, the installing officers being P. C. R. Delo, of Court Hudson, and P. C. R. McDonald, the retiring past chief ranger. Brother Delo made an elaborate address on the color question, which he handled well. M. F. Keating also spoke at some length on the same subject. There are now 130 members in the court.

Court Triumph, the new court on the Hill, is progressing, and although but a few meetings have been held, yet the interest is very strong. There is plenty of good material in it, and there is a fine future for it.

good material in it, and there is a fine future for it.

A meeting of the delegates from courts in New York, Brooklyn and this city was held in New York last Tuesday night. A committee was appointed to secure the cheapest transportation for the party to Minneapolis and return. The lowest terms offered are $55 for fare, without necessaries—that is, bed and food, which will cost nearly forty dollars. The committee think that they can get a reduction of $15 on the fare. At that rate each man will spend about eighty dollars for the trip, and he will receive the price of the fare back again. At the next meeting the committee will report.

Delegate W. S. Weed, of Court Pavonia, is one of the best known Foresters in the county, and has been in the court a number of years. He is also a member of Sanctuary Ever Faithful. This year he goes to the High Court as a representative of both court and sanctuary.

No Foresters are more widely known than James F. O'Mealia and Peter Scanlon, the delegates from Court Jersey City. Brother O'Mealia is the P. C. R. of the court.

Delegate John Faherty, of Court Little

Delegate John Faherty, of Court Little John, is well known in the order, he hav-ing been in it a number of years. He is at present chief ranger of the court.
