A Republican Pike Circular!

D. C. Pinkerton, the most active and ardent of the Republican Pike candidates, has caused a Republican Pike Circular to be printed and circulated, which attempts to delude the Anti-Pike Republicans by arguments that dare not be uttered publicly in time to meet with confutation. We, therefore, give this warning to the Republican Anti-Pikers, and cite as evidence of the Circular being a humbug that Pinkerton, and his associates, was afraid to issue it until within a few days before the election. We have not seen this Circular yet, but have been informed of its tenor!

☞ Preaching at the M. E. Church at 10½ o'clock, A. M., on next Sabbath.

☞ The Assignees of Seth C. Brewster desire all who want to purchase good Goods at low figures to call on them—during the Fair.—Everything is put down to the lowest possible price; and, as those who come first will have the first choice, all will see it to be to their interest to call early. Remember that the Goods must be sold; and, consequently, will be sold low!

☞ The new Grocery, at the old Whiteman stand near Shepard & Dickey's Mill, is doing a good business—better than was expected—and we are glad of it. Matthews is an enterprising, accommodating gentleman, and is deserving of what he is receiving—a good patronage.

☞ McConnell, Emerson & Harris!—All our citizens, who purpose visiting Zanesville with a view to purchasing any kind of Dry Goods, should call on McConnell, Emerson & Harris, No. 94, Main st. This Firm is giving the most complete satisfaction to its Muskingum Valley patrons; and, as a consequence, it is securing to itself nearly the whole of that vast trade which goes to Zanesville. Their Stock of Goods is not only large and well selected, but is, also, composed of entirely new Goods of the latest and most fashionable styles.

FOR HIMSELF ONLY.

The manner in which D. C. Pinkerton, the Republican Pike candidate for Probate Judge of Morgan county, has been, and is carrying on the campaign, demonstrates that he is working solely for his own election, and that he cares not a whit if the other candidates of the Republican Pike Convention are defeated, so that he is not! Pinkerton's system of electioneering is principally of the button-holing style; and, during the present campaign, he has made it a point, whenever he has caught a voter by the lappels of his coat, to humor said voter's antipathy to such men as Stanton, Huestis, White, Kirkbride and Keiser, by assuring them that he (Pinkerton), is not of the same way of thinking on the objectionable question, which the voter raises against one, or more, as the case may be, of the above mentioned individuals, as is the person complained of. He, (Pinkerton), is all right on all questions, let him tell the story, and Stanton, Huestis, White, Kirkbride and Keiser are all wrong and deserve public condemnation. We could cite many instances where Pinkerton has shown his disposition to run himself through successfully at the expense of his brother candidates, but shall only give one: Very recently an Anti-Pike Republican was button-holed by Pinkerton, and questioned as to how he would vote. The Anti-Piker said he would vote the People's Anti-Pike ticket. Thereupon Pinkerton replied, "You should not vote all the Anti-Pike ticket, even if you are an Anti-pike man. The only officers that will have anything to do with the location and construction of Pike Roads will be the Representative and Commissioners." Now, this is a clear admission, by the head of the Court House Ring, that Mr. Stanton, if elected Representative, will vote against the repeal of the Pike Road Law, and that Dr. Huestis, if elected Commissioner, will be in favor of building Pike Roads under that Law. Most certainly, Mr. Stanton and Dr. Huestis, and their friends, should feel very grateful to Pinkerton for thus acknowledging them to be what the Herald has tried so hard to prove them not to be, and what the Conservative has always claimed they were. If Stanton, Huestis, & Co., are not grateful, the Conservative is!

We abstain from making mention of many other instances, of which we have been credibly informed, where Pinkerton has used the above argument to Anti-Pike Republicans, and every time strengthened the voter's antipathy to Stanton and Huestis. We are content with this one instance, because we can prove it by a prominent Republican of this town; and he, too, not an Anti-Pike Republican.

The way Pinkerton has injured White, Kirkbride and Keiser, has been by electioneering for himself upon other questions, which we do desire to bring into this article. Suffice it to say, that we know that he has done it by admitting that they stand so and so on this and that local question.

As to how Pinkerton, himself, stands on all issues, it is impossible to determine, unless he may be said to agree with everybody. He goes to church regularly and fills the position of Steward in the Methodist Episcopal Church with as sanctimonious a face as can be seen in the congregation; and, equally as regularly, he may be seen quaffing his Beer in some saloon with all the apparent satisfaction of the oldest topers. If he meets an Anti-Piker, he is of the opinion that Pike Roads would bankrupt the county; and if he meets a Pike man, he is satisfied Pike Roads are greatly to be desired. There is one question he stands fair and square on, and he tells every one what it is. It is that David C. Pinkerton is ready and willing to be Probate Judge of Morgan county during the course of his natural life!

Back to His Old Stand in Malta.

Isaac Hedges has returned to his Old Stand, the Malta House, and desires all his old patrons and friends to know that he will resume his old business of Hotel keeper.—He will endeavor to render the public every accommodation. Remember that he has the best accommodations for horses.

Our Punster.

Why is "Contributor," in the CONSERVATIVE, like our Saviour?—because he was Cross-cified.

Why is the Editor of the Herald like a timid ship Captain?—because he fears the Cross.

Why is a love smitten youth when stirring apple butter, "solemnkolly?"—because its all apple-but-her.

An easy going thing—the Herald—it takes all things for Granted.

☞ Why is a house wife the hungriest?—because she Kneads the bread.

Why is a Radical like a Cobler?—because he is in favor of hyer-ailleite and steel-ing the lead-y.

"Ulysses" says that, while at Saratoga, he saw a lady, who had taken so much iron, that a crow-bar protruded from behind—her left ear!

NEAR Springfield, Illinois, resides a soldiers' widow and four children. A Grand "sepa-reaker" of an organization, known as the "Grand Army of the Republic," and also for their great philanthropy (?), visited the said widow and her little children. The good woman, full of anticipation, all the while her little daughter humming, "Who will care for Mother Now?" informed the G. A. R. that she was in a destitute condition; not having the necessaries of life! "Well, madam," replied the Gar, "I've just come to inform you that my comrads have been decorating your dead husband's grave!" Nuff!

IT is said that the Ancient Patriarch, David, was a harpist; but our modern Patriotic David is a horn-ist and a horn-ist to boot. Some little difference! However, Ancient David was never a candidate for Probate Judge, or any other office; but was appointed to play before the King, at which time he quaffed too copiously of Beer, for which he received a severe reprimand from His Majesty; hence, a slight demoralization of Ancient David.

THE NEW ORLEANS Times says that some time ago among the susceptible swains of Vicksburg, was a young man named Montgomery, who had a sort of mixed passion for the Muses and a certain miss. As might be expected, he poured forth his soul in song, and sent his verses to the fair one, with a bouquet, after the fashion of Claude Melnotte in his worship of Pauline. But the course of true 'eve did not run smoothly for our hero: his flowers were slighted, and his verses were sent back, with the following curt indorsement:

"Montgomery—Montgomery—
What poetry! What poetry!
Try it again; try it in prose;
How you'll succeed, God only knows!"
