CONVENTION.

Republicans of Ohio Nominate a State Ticket.

Charles A. Kinney, of Scioto, Selected for Secretary of State.

Marshall J. Williams for Supreme Judge—Blackbarn for Food and Dairy Commismissioner—Bushnell, Foraker and Hanna, Delegates at Large.

Columbus, C., March 11.—Chairman J. M. Ickes of the state central committee, made a short speech Tuesday afternoon, in calling the republican state convention to order, mentioned the name of McKinley. This gave the convention a chance to express itself and show that McKinley enthusiasm was pent up at high pressure. It was left for Foraker to uncorb it. The time had come, he said, for redeeming the third promise of the Zanesville convention, which declared for the election of McKinley to the presidency, and the convention in the product of the convention of McKinley to the presidency, and the convention of the presidency, and the convention of the presidency and the convention of the convention of the presidency and the conventio

Ickes of the state central committee, made a short speech Tuesday afternoon, in calling the republican state convention to order, mentioned the name of McKinley. This gave the convention a chance to express itself and show that McKinley enthusiasm was pent up at high pressure. It was left for Foraker to uncorb it. The time had come, he said, for redeeming the third promise of the Zanesville convention, which declared for the election of McKinley to the presidency, and the convention drowned his voice with cheers.

"The republicans of Ohio don't look unkindly at Thos. B. Reed (Applause), nor Gov. Morton, nor Wm. B. Allison, nor M. S. Quay, the other great leaders who have been mentioned in connection with that honor. On the contrary, if the St. Louis convention should disappoint us and give the honor to one of them, we here, now pledge him in advance the electorial vote of Ohio, by the largest majority ever given in the history of the state, It is not that we love Caesar less, but Rome more. McKinley is our own."

nd its repeal, and continued: and its repeal, and continued:

"As a result, in every section, in every state in every community, in every municipality, in every mill and mine and furance and forge and workshop, everywhere throughout all this broad land where capital is invested or labor is employed. Wm. McKinley is the ideal leader and the veritable American idol. No man ever in public life in this country onleader and the veritable American idol. No man ever in public life in this country enjoyed such universal popularity as is his. No man in this country in public life ever commanded as he now commands the affection of the great mass of voters of the country. Other states are declaring for him. Ohio can not lead the column. It is already on the march [Laughter.] All we can do is to join the procession. [Loud Laughter.] We will not hesitate longer to take action in that respect. I want my speech here to-day to be short want my speech here to-day to be short enough for everybody to read it and plain enough for everybody to understand [Long applause, lasting for several minutes.] I have sounded, gentlemen of the convention, the keynote of this occasion."

The committee on resolutions has delegated

The committee on resolutions has delegated the work of preparing the platform to a sub-committee which was at work at midnight. This sub-committee will report to the whole committee Wednesday morning

COLUMBUS, O., March 11 —Although the re-publican state convention was not called to order until 10:15, long before that hour the stage and auditorium of the Grand operahouse was well filled, and at the hour named the house was packed from pit to dome with a per-fect mass of humanity. It was 10:10 when Senator-elect Foraker, the temporary chairman, called for order.

The committee on credentials recommended the seating of the delegates selected by the central committee in Muskingum county, but suggested in the future all the delegates be selected by the people. The report was adopt-ed on motion of S. M. Taylor, the chairman of

The report of the committee on permanent organization, continuing the temporary organization, with Foraker as chairman, was adopted with enthusiasm.

There was a strong fight made against the There was a strong fight made against the report of the committee on order of business. The friends of Dr. F. B. McNeal, candidate for nomination for state food commissioner, won a victory Tuesday night in the committee and had the nomination for food commissioner placed before that of state board of public works. This was unfriendly to John Stillwall, who commissioner friendly to John Stillwall. friendly to John Stillwell, who comes from the same county—Miami, and who is a candidate for the state board of public works. The enemies of McNeal, the Wholesale Grocers' assoclation and Stilliwell's friends, joined in trying to have the report adopted so as to provide for the nomination of the member for state board of public works first Chairman Foraker decided the report adopted, but ex-Master of the National Grange J. H. Brigham, of Fulton county, demanded to be heard, and voices all over the convention hall demanded another vote on the question. With the consent of the convention Chairman Forn-ker put the question on the amendment of-fered by Mr. Brigham, changing the report, but it was rated down.

but it was voted down.

Congressman R. W. Taylor read the report of the committee on resolutions from the stage, and on his motion it was adopted as the party with amendment on discussion. The platform with amendment on discussion. The convention was now duly organized, and pro-ceed with the order of business.

THE PLATFORM.
The republicans of Obio congratulate the people of the country upon the growth of re-publican sentiment as evidenced by the signal victories of the last three years, which assure a glorious national triumph in the coming

We denounce the democtatic administration as the most destructive and disastrous the history of our country has ever known. It has not only disappointed the expectations of the country, but has justly forfeited the confi-dence and support of its own party. We affirm our adherence to the principles of the the republican party as defined by the national convention of 189: We are faithfully wedded to the great principle of protection by every tie of party featty and affection, and it is dearer to us now than ever before. It has more devoted supporters among the great mass of American people ir-respective of party, than at any previous time respective of party, than at any previous time in our national history. It is everywhere recognized and endorsed as the great, masterful, triumphant. American principle: the key to our prosperity in business, the safest prop to the treasury of the United States and the bulwark of our national independence and financial honor.

We denounce the present tariff law as the sublimated product of democratic ignorance and incompetency, bringing, as it has, to a prosperous and happy people, a period of unprosperous and his nomination was made unanimous.

bulwark of our national independence and financial honor.

We denounce the present tariff law as the sublimated product of democratic ignorance and incompetency, bringing, as it has, to a prosperous and happy people, a period of unprecedented adversity and distress from which nothing but a return to the policy of protection can relieve it.

nothing but a return to the policy of protection can relieve it.

We denounce the free wool provision of the present tariff law as an unjust discrimination against an important industry and against a large part of our people, and demandauch protection for sheep husbandry as will secure fair prices for American wool.

The republican party stands for a reciprocity that reciprocates, and which does not yield up to another country a single day's labor that belongs to the American workingman. It stands for international agreements which get as much as they give, upon terms of mutual advantage.

It stands for a foreign policy dictated by arm was and imbued with a spirit that is genuinely fingers.

American. For a policy that will revive the national traditions and restore the national spirit which carried us proudly through the exciler years of the century. It stands for such a policy with all foreign nations as will insure both to us and to them justice, good faith, dignity and honor. It stands for the Monroe doctrine as Monroe himself prociaimed it.

If that can be obtained, or under such restric-tions and such provisions to be determined by legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parities of values of the two metals, so the parities of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper shall be at all times equal.

We denounce the present administration of the pension bureau for its betrayal of the interests of Union soldiers and we piedge anew to the veterans of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful recolor.

and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

The people have triumphantly elected Gen. Bushnell to the governorship, the general assembly have emphatically indorsed the people's choice for United States senator. Gov. Foraker, and we congratulate the republicans of Ohio that to-day has completed the fulfillment of all piedges made by their last convention.

We honor the eminent sons of other states, whose splendid services and high character have justified their presentation to the American people as candidates for the presidency, and we assure republicans everywhere that whoever may lead the republican hosts, O lo will contribute her share to the swelling the will contribute her share to the swelling the tide of victory in November.

The people of Ohlo take satisfaction in the expressions coming from every section of our common country, of popular approval of their distinguished fellow citizen. William Mcivinley. The great advocate of protection, who has all his life stood for America, its factories, its farms, its firesides, finds his reward in the confidence and affection of the people, whose interests have been his constant care. As their candidate for the presidency, the repub-licans of Ohio pledge, him anew the absolute, loyal and unswerving support of his state at the national convention and instruct the delegates chosen to represent Ohio, to redeem this pledge.

Ex-Congressman W. C. Cooper of Mt. Vernon, made a speech from the stage, closing with offering a resolution that the four delegates-at-large to the national republican convention at St. Louis be Senator-elect Foraker, Gov. Bushnell, Marcus A. Hanna and Congressman C. H. Grosvenor. He moved an adoption, and Allen T. Brinsmade, of Cleveland, in a short speech, seconded the motion. The question was put at once and carried with a shout of ayes. The negative was not put. It was not necessary. At this time a flash light was thrown upon the pleture of McKinley over the stage, and this was a signal for another burst of long and loud applause.

Robert Nevin, of Dayton, in a humorous speech from the stage, presented the name of Dr. Joseph E. Lowes, of Dayton: Senator Fleischmann, of Cincinnati; John P. Green, of Cleveland, and J. W. Taylor, of East Liverpool, for alternate delegates to the St. Louis Ex-Congressman W. C. Cooper of Mt. Ver-

Cleveland, and J. W. Taylor, of East Liverpool, for alternate delegates to the St. Louis convention, and moved that they be declared such delegates. The motion was carried with enthusiastic acclamation, Congressman Grosvenor then presented the names of I. F. Mack, of Sandusky, and Albert Douglass, jr., of Chillicothe, for nomination for presidential electors at large. These nominations were made with unanimous ac-clamation. Mr. Mack is editor of the Sandusky Register, and Douglass is an attorney at Chilli-

MARSHALL J. WILLIAMS.

Senator W. T. Clark, of Cleveland, presented the name of E. W. Doty, of Cuyahoga county, for nomination for secretary of state. Emmit Tompkins, of Columbus, named Gen. Allen T. Wikoff, of Franklin This nomination was supposed to be fixed upon by the Foraker republicans, but the presentation of the name was received with no enthusiasm on the part of the convention. Ex-Representative H. M. Dougherty named Charles Kinney, of Scioto

With these three names balloting was proceeded with.
The first ballot resulted as follows: Kinney,

427: Doty, 100: Wikoff, 217. As 4.6 was a majority, Kinney was declared the nominee for secretary of state, and on motion of Mayor Mc-Kisson, of Cleveland, the nominotion was made

Ex-Congressman W. C. Cooper moved that Judge Marshal J. Williams, the present in-cumbent, be nominated for sumpreme judge by acclamation, and the motion was carried Representative C. J. Howard presented the name of Joseph E. Blackburn, of Belmont, for food commissioner: I. F. Mack. of Sandusky, Samuel C. Whoeler, of Erie: Tod Galloway, of Samuel C Whoeler, of Erie: Tod Galloway, of Columbus. Henry Breeker, of Franklin: exAttorney General Richards, Dr. F. B McNeal, of Miami, the present incumbent: Senator Friend Whittlesey, F. A. Derthick, of Portace. The name of A. B. Berstock, of Wood county, was also presented. With these a ballot was taken.

The first ballot resulted as follows: 53: Beverstock, 52: McNeal, 331: Derthick, 128; Wheeler, 33: Blackbura, 253. No choice. Wheeler, 30: Blackbura, 254. The first ballot resulted as follows: Hecker suited as follows: McNesl, 3214; Blackburn, 5034c; Derthick, 23. Beverstock, 2 Blackburn was declared the nominee and his nom-
