MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Attorney Jay Belford was at Macksburg Wednesday on legal business.

—A number of the eastern capitalists interested in the proposed oil refinery returned home Wednesday. A proposition will be drawn up immediately and formally submitted to the people of Marietta.

—Choral Society rehearsal tonight. Ladies at 7 o'clock and gentlemen at 7:45. All lady singers of the city invited to assist in the May concert.

—Call at Wehrs & Son's on Friday and Saturday and try a delicious cup of Walter Baker & Co's. Cocoa. Served free.

—There will be a social at Chas. Cochran's, in Dunham township, on Saturday, May 23, afternoon and evening. Proceeds go toward the erection of the new U. B. church. All invited.

—The case of the Village of Macksburg vs. O. S. Gilchrist, who was arrested on the charge of assault and battery for belaboring W. H. Phipps with a blacksnake whip, was tried to a jury Wednesday. A verdict of not guilty was returned, the testimony showing that Phipps while intoxicated had applied vile and insulting epithets to Mr. Gilchrist.

—Miss Bissinger returned home Wednesday from Wheeling, where she attended the wedding of Albert Luchs.

—William A. Day is a purchaser of a brand new Swell Special bicycle from Will Schlaubach, agent.

—W. G. Cunningham, the popular traveling salesman, is in the city.

—Mr. Josephy, of the Buckeye Clothing Company, returned yesterday from Cincinnati.

—Constable J. H. Dye was at Elba Wednesday serving writs of attachment on a number of oil wells belonging to F. R. Rose & Co.

—The Y. P. C. E. society of the U. B. church will give an ice cream social at their church, corner of Sixth and Wooster streets, Thursday evening, April 23d. All are invited.

—The launching Wednesday afternoon of Capt. Steve Davis' new boat, "Catherine Davis," was witnessed by quite a large number of people. Promptly at 2 o'clock the pins were knocked from under the hull and the craft made a quick shoot down into the Muskingum and became an amphibian. The soapy ways smoked like a battle, and it was a royal sight to see the shapely big hull glide into its element and there ride as buoyant as a duck. Into this boat of Capt. Davis' has been put the finest timber ever brought to the city; we refer especially to the fine fir plank stuff seventy feet in length, and brought all the way from the State of Washington. We trust that the "Catherine Davis" may always have as smooth sailing as was her launching.

—B. F. Ranger left Wednesday on a business trip to Nevada, Mo.

—Died, Wednesday, April 22d, at the County Infirmary, Charles McIntosh, aged 26 years. He had been ill for a long time.

—W. E. Caskey returned from the west Wednesday, having been engaged settling up the affairs of his brother, who was killed recently by an explosion of dynamite at Cripple Creek, Col.

—Mrs. E. E. Edgell, of Newport, is visiting her brother, J. C. Beach, of the West Side.

—Before Squire Guyton Wednesday Louis Smith, of Coal Run, was arraigned on the charge of cruelty to animals. The charge was filed by the S. P. C. A. and the offense consisted of killing a dog. The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to ten days in jail. The jail sentence is to be remitted during good behavior upon payment of fine and costs.

—James R. Hall was in Macksburg yesterday, on business.

—The dance given Tuesday evening by the Lobdell base ball club was successful from both a social and financial standpoint.

—In Squire Guyton's court Wednesday attachment suits were brought against F. R. Rose & Co. by a number of workmen. The amount alleged to be due is $272.53.

—Raynald Lodge K. of P. will have work in the Knight's Rank at the meeting to be held this evening.

—The remains of Enos D. Harden were buried Wednesday, the funeral having been held Tuesday afternoon. Interment was delayed on account of the late arrival of a sister of the deceased.

—Colonel Tompkins, a prominent attorney of Fairfield, Ill., who was the guest of friends in the city a few days this week, left for his home on Wednesday.

—The affidavit of Dr. W. W. Warren was filed in Probate Court Wednesday attesting the recurrence of insanity of Dora Rowland, of Newport township, and application will be made for her readmission to the Athens State Hospital. She has twice before been at Athens for treatment, first in 1888 and again in 1891.

—Bessie Newell, the variety girl who was recently burned at the Columbia theatre at Sistersville, died in the hospital at Wheeling from the effects of her injuries.

—At the corner of Front and Montgomery streets Tuesday night a buggy being driven by Chick Wilson was overturned and badly smashed. Wilson was thrown out and one of his ears badly lacerated by coming in contact with the bricks of the street paving. The buggy was the property of Lee Williams.

—Telegraphic despatches relate the arrest of the Mayor and Council at Nelsonville, O., because they did not appoint an old soldier on the police force in pursuance of the law passed March 3rd. We have not seen the law in full yet, but as we remember the extract it provides that preference be given the soldier where fitness and all things else are equal if there be an application. It applies to appointive offices and a violation is claimed in the above case.

—Mrs. James Creelman will return home from New York to-morrow.

—Miss Nettie Eichmiller left the home of her mother in Watertown township Tuesday night and walked to this city, a distance of 10 miles. Early Wednesday morning she purchased a ticket to Cincinnati and left on the 6 o'clock B. & O. S. W. train. Miss Eichmiller is mentally unbalanced, which explains her actions. She was committed to Longview Hospital in 1893 and again on January of this year. Her mother went to Carthage last month and brought her home. Wednesday morning as soon as her disappearance was discovered her brother came to Marietta and wired the authorities at Chillicothe, who took her in charge. She will be brought back here to await process by which she may be admitted to the Hospital at Athens.

—Mrs. H. H. Lauck, of Newells Run, has been very ill for the past few days.

—S. B. Kirby, the well-known egg dealer and commission merchant of Marietta, was in the city yesterday. [Zanesville Times Recorder.]

—Master Roy Miller celebrated his fifth birthday by giving a party to a number of his little friends. Those present were little Miss Corine Bohl, Mary Hutchan, Cora Ledy, Mable Boyle, Mildred Putnam, Florence Storek, Winifred Jackson, Lucy Patterson, Mammie McCune, Hazel Crooks, Zella Parlin, Mable and Margaret Moore, May Bosworth, Persie Rowe, Clifford Grass, Royal Remley, Marie Haddock, Raymond Moore, Roy Hennis, and Mable Kelley. Master Roy received a number of handsome presents. Miss Dollie Cooper acted as governess for the little ones.

—The County Convention of the W. C. T. U. will convene this afternoon at 1:30 p. m. in the First M. E. church. An interesting program has been prepared. Mrs. Law will deliver an address on Thursday and Friday evenings. The public are cordially invited to all the meetings.

—The young men of the German M. E. Church, corner Third and Wooster streets, will give a social this Thursday evening, at the church. Everybody cordially invited.

—Frank Rowland, of Bell's Run, says that he don't care if you do "Hello, Pap!" at him now, for it is a bouncing big girl and weighs ten pounds.

—Wallace Ritchie, who lives west of the city about a mile and a half back of the residence of Col. T. W. Moore, was arrested by Marshal Parlin Wednesday afternoon on the charge of stealing chickens. He was brought to this city and lodged in jail to await a hearing which will probably occur Saturday. During the last few weeks a large number of fowls have mysteriously disappeared from that neighborhood and Ritchie's arrest results from suspicion fastening upon him. When the arrest was made the officer discovered a barrel and a large basket full of freshly picked feathers at Ritchie's house. The suspected man was released only last December from the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va., where he was serving time for robbing a store at Lebanon.

—Hon. M. D. Follett left Wednesday night for Washington city to meet with the Committee of International Law of the American Bar Association, of which he is a member, to formulate a report upon the question of the establishment of an international court.

—James M. Hughes returned from Butler, Pa., Wednesday evening. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and their son, who will make their home here permanently in future.

—Charles Fulkerson was arrested by Marshal Parlin Wednesday for drunkenness. The Mayor listened to his plea for an attorney and allowed him to go out to hunt one. It is presumed that he is having some difficulty in securing counsel, as he hasn't showed up since.

—H. F. Bole, a well known manufacturer of oil well tools and supplies, of Butler, Pa., is in the city and will remain here two or three days. It is within the range of possibility that his plant may be removed to Marietta.

—The Y. P. C. E. society of the U. B. church will give an ice cream social at their church, corner of Sixth and Wooster streets, Thursday evening, April 23d. All are invited.

THE STAR OF HOPE.

"I had lost all hope and gone to my father's tomb," said Mrs. MOLIE EVANS, of Mound, Coryell Co., Texas. "I gave birth to a baby a year ago, the 5th of June last," she adds, "and seemed to do very well for 8 or 9 days, and then I began to feel very bad. My feet began to swell, my stomach was all wrong and I seemed to suffer with everything that could be borne. I was in bed 5 months and there was not a day that it seemed I could live. We had the best doctors that our country afforded. I was a skeleton. Every one that saw me thought that I would never get well. I had palpitation and pain in the heart, terrible pain in my right side just under the ribs, terrible headaches all the time; a bearing down sensation; a distressed feeling in my stomach all the time; could hardly eat anything and it looked as if I would starve. All the time I would take such weak trembling spells, and it seemed as if I could not stand it. There were six doctors treating me when I commenced taking your medicine. I had lost all hope and gone to my father's tomb. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his 'Favorite Prescription' together, and I took them regularly until I felt as if life was worth living again."

"I weigh more than I have weighed for years. My friends say that I look better than they ever saw me. The first two bottles did me more good than all the medicine I had taken. My stomach has never hurt me since. I can eat anything I want and as much as I want. If you want to use this in favor of your medicine, I am a living witness to testify to it, and will, to anybody who wants to know further of my case."

Molie Evans
