VERMONT instructing for McKinley!— this grows monotonous. Is it possible St. Louis will lose the credit of the Ohio man's nomination being made in that city? Is it to be all over before the convention assemblies?

THE death of Hon. John A. Hutchinson which occurred at Parkersburg Wednesday night removes one of the most noted and highly respected of West Virginia's leading citizens and members of the bar. He was born in 1840 and admitted to the bar in 1861.
He was known as a staunch Republican and had served as Prosecuting Attorney and Representative in the West Virginia legislature. He was the author of several valuable law publications and at the time of his death was chief counsel in West Virginia for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company.
He was a member of the American Bar Association and stood high in the profession.

Illinois for McKinley.

A telegram received from Springfield, Ills., at a late hour last evening brought the gratifying news that after a sharp contest the Illinois State Convention instructed for McKinley for President amidst great enthusiasm.
This practically clinches the nomination of the great Protection champion, who has all along had the support of the people of Illinois, but has been opposed by the machine.

An English View.

From Harper's Weekly.

The following extracts are taken from a private letter written by a distinguished Englishman to a friend in this country. The writer represents a large and influential class of Englishmen, who unfortunately do not now, and did not during the war of secession, wield political power. But behind the words of this Englishman, and this is the real importance of the utterance, is a fine spirit, the ascendancy of which on both sides of the water would greatly make for the advancement of the world's civilization.

"I have never been so much upset or so inclined to feel hopeless about the future as lately. I have followed events with great anxiety, and I have done the little that was possible in what I know to be the cause of civilization, progress and liberty. I have never ignored the fact that there was a strong feeling against us on your side of the water, but I confess its sudden exhibition of strength and the cause of that exhibition astonished me. If this feeling cannot be allayed, there must always be danger—danger that is shocking to contemplate. No war would be so disastrous to the world as one between our two nations. I feel that for us victory would be scarcely less deplorable than defeat. For we are all proud of you, and your progress has powerfully reacted upon us, quickening our pace and helping us to throw over our latent conservatism. War between us would stop our progress for a century. Its one result would be to throw the balance of power into the hands of nations whose methods of government are just what the Anglo-Saxon race justly detests. There is no real freedom in the world even now, except where our race holds sway.

"In your war... it was the general hostility of our upper classes which caused resentment on your side, and Americans never to this day have understood that the mass of our people were for the Union. Had it not been so, had we still been in the dark ages of George III., war would certainly have occurred. It was the people of England that probed the crime. I have never admired Lord Salisbury as a statesman. As regards America, he muddled the Bering Sea question, and he at first muddled the Venezuelan question very unwisely. Smart de-patches are no evidence of statesmanship. It is an education to have followed the events of this year; but I sincerely hope they will not recur in my lifetime. What I feel most is a sort of helplessness to overcome your dislike—which must mainly reside among a part of your population which does not and never will honor Englishmen or their history. How can we break down this dislike?"

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, The great and supreme Ruler of the universe did on the 8th day of April, 1896, remove from among us our esteemed brother, William H.
Brill, and

WHEREAS, the long and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties as a member and officer of Bartlett Lodge, No. 293, F. and A. M., makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore,

RESOLVED, That the wisdom and ability which he has exercised in our order by service and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance.

RESOLVED, That the removal of this brother from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of our order and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public.

RESOLVED, That with deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge, a copy printed in the local papers, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

The Turner Reception.

home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Turner, given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Turner in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Butler, of Cooperstown, N. Y., was a most charming social event, and will be long remembered by the many guests assembled.

The house was trimmed in dogwood, smilax, lilies-of-the-valley and lilacs; and it presented a beautiful sight.

The Messrs. Turner and their good wives received their guests with usual gracious hospitality, and presented them to their visitors in whose honor the affair was given. We hope Marietta made as good an impression on the visitors as they made on us.

Doing the honors in various capacities were Miss Sleight, Miss Lund, Miss Dawes, Miss Tinker, Miss Knowles, Misses Hope and Mary Turner, Miss Dora Turner and Miss Bertha Warner, who added much to the ease of the entertainment.

Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.
We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tonic to the bowels, and cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

the roads?

I never knew grass and vegetation to come on more rapidly than it has in the last week. A fair bloom of apples on Ben Davis, Pound Royal, Early Harvest and some other varieties. Quinces, cherries and small fruits will have a full bloom. Some corn planted, and a good deal will be sprouting before the close of the week.

tion for his new house nearly finished.

mouth, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.

Just finished washing one hundred sheep, April 28. A good, warm rain last night and this morning; they were in fine shape for washing, a brisk stream flowing and not muddy. With a few panels of portable fence, a yard is soon made and the sheep penned near the pond. Four hands are best to handle while washing, one to catch and hand to first washer, he to pass to second, he to third, he to fourth and best washer, when it is finished. Then lead out on clean gravel or grass, drain a minute, and let loose ready for next. The catcher should be armed with a shepherd's hook, catch left hind leg above gambrel joint. Nine out of ten sheep will run back to where you want them when hooked. Grab left hind leg with left hand, drop hook, take leg with right hand, pass left hand under brisket, hold fast, push leg under, pull sheep back onto ramp, when you have it in shape to hand to first washer. Don't forget to have a shepherd's hook with light handle eight feet long. A few sandwiches with hot coffee are the best stimulants.
I am not in favor of washing wool on the sheep's back, but as it is customary to make only two grades of wool, washed and unwashed, by our wool buyers, we cannot stand their price of differences which is one-third. R. W.

We have the wheel, a beaut it is;

Better Things Than Oil.

The Bellaire Bottle Company will make a fine souvenir bottle to be presented to members of the West Virginia Editorial Association at the meeting to be held at Sistersville next month. The bottles will be filled with the best quality of crude oil taken from the Sistersville wells. Plain bottles filled with "Belle of Nelson," Old Crow, Choice Old Rye, or other favorite brands of Kentucky distillation, might please some of the members quite as well.—(Bellaire Independent).

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillette, Druggist, Beavers-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again.
It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep store or house without it."

The Quadriennial Conference Meets at Cleveland—Women Delegates.

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—More than 200 delegates to the quadriennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal church have arrived in the city.
Wherever the delegates assembled the question of women delegates to the conference was the chief topic of conversation. The consensus of opinion is that the most exciting battles of the conference will be fought between the champions and opponents of the women. The first meeting in connection with the conference was the biennial session of the board of control of the Epworth league.
At Wednesday's session Bishop Fitzgerald, of New Orleans, presided and delivered an address on the work of the league. He said that much closer relations between the Epworth league and the Christian Endeavor society would be arranged for in the near future, but there would be no union.

The Germans are leading the opposition against women delegates in the conference and are confident of success. They have issued a strong protest against the innovation, and their opposition threatens the unity of the church.

Leading delegates say that the opposition amounts almost to secession.
Bishop Fowler, of Minneapolis, said that in his opinion the opposition of the Germans would defeat the admission of women to the general conference.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—For Ohio—Friday fair; fresh to brisk southeasterly winds.
For West Virginia—Southerly winds.
For Kentucky—Southerly winds.
For Indiana—Generally fair Friday, fresh southerly winds.

OFFICE OF GENERAL SECRETARY, 28 LAFAYETTE PLACE.

NEW YORK, April 22d, 1896.

MR. S. R. VAN METRE,
Marietta, Ohio.

"DEAR SIR:—

I have been informed by the firm of Sweet Orr & Co., that you have been called upon by a so-called representative of the garment workers of the Knights of Labor and informed that Sweet Orr & Co.'s goods are boycotted. This is the very first time I have heard of any such thing, and cannot understand why an attack should be made on such a reputable firm, and a firm that operates a union shop in every respect, and above all, has the stamp of our organization upon his garments, as being under fair and union conditions.
What more could be desired by any one, whether a Knight of Labor or not? All the employees of the firm, numbering about one thousand, have been members of this National Union (Local Union 18 and 84) for the past five years, so how could the firm be discriminating against anyone? Does Mr. Seegers want the members to join his so-called Organization, which only has a paper existence, and has the support of no one? Mr. Seegers himself is not a garment worker, and does not earn his living at the trade. If he has imposed upon any of the unions of your locality I will write immediately so as to inform them of the facts."

I send you a copy of our official journal which fully gives the standing of Sweet Orr & Co. I am however much obliged to you for the consideration shown towards organized labor.

Trusting this explanation will suffice, I am

Yours respectfully,
