Sherman squelched him by replying:
"No, I will not; for I would not put the whole burden of taxation upon those who drink tea and coffee. I am willing to get the revenue from the taxation of foreign goods."

Senator Chandler's amendment to the Naval appropriation bill, against the employment of Naval officers, on the retired list, by Naval contractors after June 30, 1897, was adopted by a vote of 45 to 11. This amendment is one of the results of the recent investigation by the Senate committee on Naval affairs of the making of armor plate for the government.

The House this week passed the Pickler pension bill, and is now debating the bankruptcy bill, which will be voted upon tomorrow afternoon. It is considered probable that the bill will be passed.

Senators Vest and Cockrell, of Missouri, were made to realize that the administration is in dead earnest in the fight it is making on the silver Democrats when Mr. P. B. Lyles, one of their special proteges, was forced to resign the position of chief clerk of the Bureau of Animal Industry, of the Department of Agriculture, into which they had him put in the early days of the administration.

The result of the Illinois Republican state convention was not surprising to anyone in Washington who had been in a position to get an unprejudiced statement of the sentiment of the party in that state, but the declaration of the Republican State Convention of Vermont for McKinley, was so great a surprise that it created a sensation among Republicans in Congress. What caused the surprise was that the Vermont Republicans had never instructed for any candidate before, not even when it was known that the name of Hon. George F. Edmunds, then Senator, was to be presented to a national convention, and that Speaker Reed's friends had not even asked that he be endorsed by the convention.

Ingersoll-Ketter.

About 900 people gathered in Plymouth church last evening to witness the simple wedding services which united the lives of Miss Alice Ketter, daughter of Chris. C. Ketter, and Thomas Stiles Ingersoll. All day the weather had been threatening but the sun came out gloriously late in the afternoon and before 8 o'clock the weather was all that the most fastidious bride could desire. The wedding was one of the prettiest and most interesting that have dotted the thirty days of April and although very simple in all its appointments was extremely sweet and pretty. The ushers announced the arrival of the bridal party by fastening the long satin ribbons along the aisles, and immediately after the notes of the Lohengrin chorus sounded through the church. Then the bridesmaids entered, moving slowly down the right aisle of the church, looking unusually sweet and pretty in their simple gowns of white organdie finished about the neck with marguerites.
Each girl also carried a large bouquet of marguerites tied with long streamers of white satin. The maids met the ushers, who had come down the aisle at the left, at the altar and, crossing them, took their places at the side of the altar rail. After the maids and ushers had taken their places the bridegroom and Wm. James, who acted as best man, entered meeting Rev.
Beach, the new pastor of the church, who was to perform the ceremony, at the altar, where together they awaited the bride. Preceding the bride came two tiny flower girls, Edith and Hazel Guttfless, dressed in fluffy gowns of white mulle and lace, and the maid of honor, Miss Edith Mills, of Marietta, O. Miss Mills wore a very becoming dress of pink organdie over pink silk and carried pink roses. A wide sash of the organdie, edged with accordion pleated ruffles was arranged gracefully about the shoulders, and ending in a ribbon belt. The bride entered with her father. Her gown was exquisitely beautiful in its simplicity. It was made of white satin and was trimmed with a fall of old lace and it fitted the slender figure perfectly. Her full tulle veil fell in graceful folds to the very edge of the train and was caught high on the coiffure with a bunch of lilies of the valley. She carried a large bouquet of the same flowers tied with white ribbons.
Nothing could have made a more effective setting for the bridal group than the simple arrangement of palms and lilies about the altar. The palms were arranged to form a partial canopy above the party and smilax and ferns trimmed the altar rail.
Misses McCollom, Prouse, Rolfe and Carleton were the bridesmaids and Messrs. Robert Ford, Sam Morris, Dr.
Phillips and Geo. Celden were the ushers.
After the ceremony a small reception was held at the bride's home, 1219 Hennepin avenue, to which only the most intimate friends of the young people were bidden. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Ingersoll will be at home in the Kalekerbocker flats, the first at home day being June 1. The bride has lived in Minneapolis only five years, having come here from Marietta, O.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The well recently drilled in on the Junod farm northwest of the Stroude Run well, by the Hocking Oil Co., proved to be a duster. The company will locate another well soon. The well was abandoned at a depth of 1320 feet.

The McDougal well seven miles east of town was completed Tuesday. No oil was found but plenty of salt water.
The well on the John Walsh farm two miles south of Athens is not yet completed. The drillers report they are at a depth of about 850 feet.

The Alexander township well on the farm of Paul Henry has at this time been drilled to the depth of about 750 feet and the drillers still at work.

On Wednesday a local company organized by J. C. Brennan commenced a well on the Higgins farm two miles southwest of Athens.

Marietta parties have erected a derrick on the Jesse Finsterwald farm about two miles east of Athens. Drilling will probably commence about the first of the week.—Athens Journal.

On the Broad Run side of the St.
Marys pike Bonnell & Work have drilled in a nice well on the C. C. Schauwecker lease. It is good for from 50 to 100 barrels per day.

Haskell & Company have their No. 1 on the Cornell lease down some 300 feet, and will put in the casing Thursday evening. They ought to be in the sand by Tuesday of next week. They have also made a location on the Jos. Pethle lease, a few hundred feet to the southeast of Bonnell & Work's well on the Schauwecker lease.

On the Long Run side of the ridge the Great Kanawha Co. & Frink have a rig under way for their No. 2 on Schauwecker, and have locations for four other wells. No. 2 will be some 600 feet to the northeast of No. 1.

Franchot Bros. No. 1 on the T. H. C.
Reynolds lease was drilled in the first of the week, and is a fine well, with plenty of gas to flow the oil. It has been shot and is now being tubed. It is said to be good for from 75 to 100 barrels per day. They have made locations for some four or five other wells, and a rig is going up for No. 2.

Capt. McLaughlin has a rig under way for No. 2 on the Rodney Reynolds lease, and expects to be drilling by the middle of the coming week. He has several other locations made.

It looks now as though there would be quite a field opened up on the waters of Long Run, as there is a large lot of untested territory there which looks to be "glit edged" in the light of late developments.
This territory is about one and one-half miles to the southeast of St. Marys.—St. Marys Oracle.

The Shay well No. 2, on the Weekly farm, out on Indian creek, which had stopped drilling the earlier part of the week on account of the strong gas pressure, was resumed for a little while today, but the gas being so strong they had to abandon it. They will endeavor to drill it in as soon as the pressure decreases.

Sistersville, W. Va., May 1.—The Victor Oil Company's well No. 1, on the Julia Groves farm, out on Indian creek, was drilled in at five o'clock.
The terrific flow of the oil threw it up and over the derrick, making a beautiful sight. The amount of oil that was lost cannot be estimated, but up to eight o'clock they had no arrangements made to save it. It is good for 125 barrels per hour.

This is the largest strike recently made, and the Devonian Oil Company, who are drilling Kyle No. 3, on the adjoining farm, claim they will strike the same vein and get a well as good as the Victor's. It is expected in at any hour.

On Friday of last week John Landon and George Hammett sold to the American Oil Co., of Buffalo, a half interest in a tract of undeveloped territory in the Waverly oil field for the sum of $28,000. The tract has in it 100 acres, and it bears much promise of large possibilities for its owners.

Pensions.

EDITOR LEADER—I wish to correct an erroneous impression which has grown out of some recent legislation of Congress. No change has been made in the date of payment of pensions. For this date June 1, Sept. 1, Dec. 1 and March 1 will remain the days for payment. The law referred to relates to pensioners at agencies in cities like Columbus only, where the money is disbursed. Instead of crowding up and standing in line all day waiting their turns, they are now required to go before a Notary same as pensioners in other cities, execute their vouchers and transmit them same as the others.
