Navigating in the Dark.

Bad policy. Lots of people do it, but there's little if any excuse. People who trade here are not in the dark. We don't have trade tricks and discredits. We are always glad to tell people all about our goods. Where we buy them, how they are made, why they cost much or little, etc. The more light the better.

And the nights shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold up their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.

Longfellow knew the soothing power of music; he knew its grand influence for good. A home without a piano or music of some sort doesn't seem quite a home; something seems to be wanting. It's easy enough to have music in the house nowadays. Pocket your doubts, and come to us. We'll soon show you the way.

Clam Bake.

Arthur Mumford, proprietor of the Palm restaurant, has decided to take the Elk Eye Encampment I. O. O. F. over to his farm, back of Williamstown, and give them a clam bake tomorrow. All members of the lodge are expected, and Fowler, the photographer, will go along in order to be able to show things just as they were. The members of the lodge are requested to meet at the lodge rooms at 8 o'clock. The members are awaiting the hour with great impatience.

Catarrh of the Head.

All druggists are authorized by the manufacturers of Bunsen's Cream Catarrhal to refund the money where it fails to cure any case of Catarrh no matter of how long standing. One application gives ease and rest. This is a new discovery and the only Catarrh remedy sold on a positive guarantee—No Cure, No Pay. Price 50 cents. For sale by the Kirby Drug Company. (C)
