PRICES BROKE

Through the Support and the Market Closed Weak.

By Associated Press
New York, July 19.—The character of today's stock market was much the same as that of yesterday, but there was a conspicuous absence of the late enormous demand which lifted Union Pacific yesterday in the closing dealings. The volume of trading was rather larger than yesterday and the market was highly professional. Prices broke through the support in the late dealings and the market closed weak and at the lowest of the day. Stocks conspicuous for strength yesterday were conspicuously weak. The stock selected as props for the market today were principally amongst the southern railroads and the Gould southwesterners. Included in the latter were Western Union, Manhattan, Texas and Pacific. There was large buying in Missouri Pacific. U. S. Steel stocks marked up sharply over a point each during the period of strength. The sustaining force of these advances, however, was steadily taken advantage of to realize in the railroad list, Union Pacific, St. Paul and Atchison were the most conspicuous objects of the selling.

The bond market was moderately active and higher. U. S. bonds were unchanged.

DUN'S REVIEW.
By Associated Press.
New York, July 19.—Dun's says. Anxiety regarding unfavorable possibilities in the future rather than any actual present misfortune depressed securities and caused the cancellation of some orders for merchandise. Retail distribution of goods will not be curtailed by the labor controversy. Beyond advancing prices of stelsheets and depressing the market of tin quotations have not been affected by the strike of the Amalgamated Association. In the branches not directly concerned there is no change of conditions, orders frequently running months ahead.

Woolen mills are generally active, orders for heavy weight goods arriving in large numbers. The light weight season will soon open. There is prospect of profitable operation unless raw material should advance. Wool is firmer and stocks at mills and in warehouses are on the decrease.

In cotton goods the situation is unchanged. The decline in cotton was followed by a slight recovery. Foreign consumption is slight.

Stability of prices seems assured in the footwear industry. The firm tone is sustained by the steadiness of leather and buyers are not seeking concessions. Factories are running full time with orders on hand for months ahead. Limited supplies of leather make the market very firm. Hides are fairly active and steady.

In grain markets variations in quotations were less extensive. After a severe break from the best price last Friday wheat suddenly advanced as the feeling became general that foreign requirements would bring a new record for exports, possibly exceeding 250,000,000 bushels.

Failures for the week were 196 in the United States against 231 last year, and 32 in Canada against 27 last year.

WISE WHITE HOUSE EMPLOYEE.

Does Quite a Profitable Business in Disposing of Kittens of the Official Cat.

Evidences of prosperity exhibited by one of the colored employees of the white house, best known as George, have made him the envy of his associates. He recently appeared in a new suit of "store clothes."

When they saw him bring a little kitten into the white house the other day, and subsequently hand the little pet over to a fashionably attired lady who was riding in a trap the secret came out.

Not long since the official white house cat gave birth to 12 kittens—an even dozen and no more. The old cat and her family were in George's keeping. When the event became known in official and social circles there was a great demand for kittens born beneath the roof of the executive mansion.

Learning that George was their keeper, society girls sought him out and each wanted the prettiest one in the lot. Each was promised the "prettiest" one. When a dozen customers had been supplied the demand was as great as ever.

As some of the kittens had brought as high as five dollars each, George could not think of retiring from the cat business. He went among his friends in South Washington and discovered other kittens. They were just as pretty as the white house ones and passed readily for the genuine article. When a customer was to be supplied George would take one of the South Washington born kittens to the white house and from there deliver it to the fair one. It may never be known how many kittens are being tenderly cared for about the city and pointed to as having been born in the white house. Nor will it ever be known just how much revenue the cat industry forced upon the colored employee yielded him.

MUST DO THEIR WORK WELL.

Incompetent Dentists Are Liable to Damages for Their Bungling Work.

The courts are taking cognizance of the competency or incompetency of professional men. A short time ago a New York tribunal held that a physician was liable for unskillful or negligent treatment of a patient and now the court of appeals of that state has rendered a decision holding a corporation liable for unskillful dental work. This corporation, according to the complaint, represented that it carried on the practice of dentistry in connection with its other departments. The plaintiff, a woman, having undergone treatment, sued for alleged resultant injury and received a verdict.

Apparently the defense of the corporation was that the dental business was not, in fact, carried on by it, but was owned by the dentist. But the court held that the company, having held itself out as carrying on a dental department, and the plaintiff having been ignorant of the fact that the company was not the real owner of the dental department, the corporation was estopped from making such a denial. For, under the circumstances, the court said that the plaintiff had a right to rely not only on the presumption that the company would employ a skillful dentist as its servant, but also on the fact that if that servant, the dentist, whether skillful or not, was guilty of any malpractice, she had a responsible party to answer therefor in damages.

GOT TOO FOND OF WINE.

So This Southern Gentleman Destroyed One of the Finest Vineyards in the South.

A gentleman who lives on the north side of the county, at the foot of the Peaks of Otter, recently destroyed what was one of the finest vineyards in the county, says the Bedford (Va.) Democrat. The vineyard was composed of about 1,000 healthy bearing vines of different varieties of fine grapes. For several years past, being unable to market the fruit at a profit, the owner has been turning his grape crop into wine, making sometimes as much as 1,000 gallons of fine wine in a season. Having a great quantity of wine and being endowed with that hospitality characteristic of old Bedford, he dealt it out very freely to his family and neighbors. The habit of imbibing grew on him, on his family, and on his neighbors, until, as he expressed it, "the thing got to be a nuisance," and the only way to get rid of what seemed to him to threaten the vitals of his family and the entire neighborhood was to get rid of his vineyard, so he went to work and destroyed the finest vineyard in the county.

Veritable Lions in a Salon.

At the Comtesse de Greffulhe's reception at Paris, when the music and singing had ended, two young lions entered the "salon" dragging a car decked with lilies and roses. It is a remarkable fact that they frightened nobody, but called forth the guests' unanimous applause. They were brought recently to France by Prince d'Arenburg, who was participating in the Paris-Berlin race and did not witness their triumph.
