Henry Watterson and August Belmon and listened to the prayer, the address and the particularly sweet voice in some. Then the lassies passed the tambourines for the collection. Mr. Whitney's contribution was two $2 bills. When the tambourines were returned and the leader caught sight of the two twenties, he exclaimed "Glory to God! Let us pray." The lit tle band knelt and there was special supplication for the one who had been so touched by the Spirit as to give not twenty, but forty-fold. No one could tell by Mr. Whitney's face what his emotions were, but at the close of the prayer to which he listened intently, he grose and went to his cottage, When the Salvatiouists learned the identity of their benefactor, there were more prayers, this time for the "Hon, Mr. Whitney."

BRYAN TURNED DOWN.

A dispatch from Omaha says: W. J. Bryan's advice has been rejected by the Democratic organization he originated in Douglas county in the beginning of his political career, and the body that has stood by him through all his battles. The Jacksonian club of Omaha has refused to listen to the wishes of the former Democratic leader in the matter of extending an invitation to David Benblow-out to be given by the club on

The club exerted all possible pressure on Bryan, but he refused to recede. Then it was decided to have Hill anyway. It has been understood that he will come.

ROYAL ROW

Raised Over the Nomination of Chris McKee.

Special to the Leader.

Caldwell, O., Aug. 21.-The Demoso badly torn up as they are tonight over the proceedings and the result of the county and joint representative convention yesterday.

The interest centered in the representative convention, as the county convention is a mere matter of form. the nominees being doomed to defeat. It was felt, however, that if harmony prevailed at their epresentative convention and a strong candidate was named who was satisfactory to every one, he would stand a fair chance of election owing to the Republican controversy between Morgan and Noble. Some of the shrewdest of the Noble county leaders like C. W. Young and Joe Ryan believed it to be good politics to select the nominee from Morgan and thus make a play for the votes of the disratisfied Morgan county Republicans. They were backed by the half dozen Morgan county people present.

This game was spoiled, however, by J. W. Bigley and John Schuler, who placed themselves behind the candidacy of J. A. Okey. In the Noble county cancus Okey won out easily over the Hon. Chris McKee, the present Noble county representative, by a vote of 13 to 9.

When the joint convention met in temporary session with Dr. Williams chairman, and J. W. Bigley, secretary, the Noble county delegates being in a large majority, put forward a resolution that only the delegates present should be allowed to vote. The Young-Ryan people and the Morgan county half dozen threatened to bolt at this, and it was evident that the convention would be left without a quorum in case of its adoption. Finally the committees were appointed and the convention took a recess. Upon reassembling J. A. Okey made a speech announcing his withdrawal after characterizing those who were gressmer, this winter in Washington, opposing him as "slimy vipers," and But why this trouble? It was good charging that had bolted the ticket in big swindle in other states with bank 1896 and 1908. He favored the nomination of Chris McKee.

This left the Kennedy forces in a minority and no candidates were presented. Somebody moved that Mcforces run wagons through the coun- Kee be nominated by acclamation and try and bring all who will come free the thing was done by two or three voting "aye" and delegate Elias Starr works like a charm. Last Saturday vociferously shouting his objection. evening five hundred people took He got up and stated that he was in favor of Okey, the caucus nominee, and that McKee was no good. It was a funny affair from the standpoint of an outsider. There was no permanent organization, no committee reports received or accepted, no names of candidates presented. In fact the convention had none of the convention ear-Mr. Whitney was sitting on the piazzi marks except the usual Democratic wrangling.

"DEM 600 600 EYES." Odd Blunder Makes a Peck of Trouble.

The man, woman or child who makes or evn mentions "goo goo" eyes in or around the Tacoma News office is in danger of great bodily harm. A few days ago the political writer had occasion to discuss that never ending subject, the senatorial aspirations of Banker Ankeny, and in a fine burst of feeling announced that the railroad lobbyists had made "goo goo" eyes at the Walla Walla banker. The political reporter, having finished his story, wrote a scare head and sent the copy into the "head" alley. Here are the words of the copy for the top line of the head:

made goo-goo eyes

wouldn't know a pair of "goo goo" eyes, if, with light divine, they looked at him from the sweetest face of the fairest in all the land. The "head" alley man came from New York-Long Island, we've since learned-so he folcrats of this county were never before lowed the copy as it looked to him and set up this line:

MADE 900,900 EYES.

Then copy and head went to The News proof reader, also from New York-Brooklyn, to be exact-and he read the proof, remarking to the copy holder, "Well, if they're making that many eys at Ankeny he'll be the next Senator sure."

And the copy holder being from Puyallup and never having "worked with Dana on the New York Sun," simply said "Yes."

So the head went in and was printed in two editions before it attracted the attention of the "old man." And maybe he didn't raise the roof! After the press had been stopped and the error corrected the argus eyed editor bounced the goo goo eyed printer, laid off the four eyed proofreader, roasted the blear eyed political writer and then went out and filled up on

Million Dollars in Bank-Notes Sold for Junk.

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The government secret service officer tonight visited New Brunswick, N. J., and obtained possession of the plates and nearly $200,000 (face value) of notes of the old state bank of New Brunswick. The notes are not reprinted from the old plates but were genuinely printed thirty years ago by the bank itself, but were never signed by the President and Cashier.

Lax methods in winding up the affairs of the bank twenty-eight years notes as a basis.

The bank went into liquidation some years ago. Colonel John A. Newell, at that time appointed receiver, wound up the affairs of the institution. He since died. In the course of his operations he sold old note plates to Adam Ludwig, a junk dealer of New Brunswick. The sale was as old metal.

The junk dealer also bought waste paper and all junk out of the old bank. In the waste paper he found about a half million dollar's worth of notes. These original sheets were uncut and unsigned. These notes he gave or sold to Jacob Weigel, who collected coins and old notes. Weigel kept them some years and then began to dispose of them to coin dealers. He received nominal sums for his sales. Among others he sold a large amount to Greenburg and Smith. The San Francisco plates remained in the possession of the junk dealer. Tonight secret service agents saw Weigel. They were satisfied with his explantion. He gave them what he had remaining of the notes except those with frame, $3 and up. All work guaranteed. Picture Framing to order. gel.
