Town topics in Bluffton . . . first and foremost the 64-dollar question: when will the meat markets be open?—good news travels fast and five minutes after the doors are open the counters are crowded . . . and most every day someone recalls the good old times when they killed little pigs because there were too many pork chops in the country—imagine that . . . and that was when Zack Showalter shook his head and said it was wicked and we'd be sorry—maybe he had something there after all . . . but if you can't get meat, chicken is plentiful this week—which illustrates one of the curious quirks of human nature . . . last Saturday when the market went to 45 cents liveweight for top fowls, farmers were holding out for 50—but when it slumped to 31 cents Monday every one wanted to sell . . . and shortage of farm help will see mechanical pickers harvesting a sizable portion of the corn crop . . . and wheat sowing starts Friday, the fly-free date—all of which will make busy days on the farm until frost comes . . . counting out, of course, the Putnam county fair next week which promises to be bigger and better than ever . . . and the build-up is on this week for that high spot of the football season, the Pandora game, Friday afternoon . . . Bluffton's worst enemy, overconfidence, should be pretty well disposed of after having our ears pinned back for the last two years by those Flying Dutchmen—we learned our lesson the hard way . . . and speaking of football the high school band made a good showing on Harmon field last Friday night—too bad the uniforms aren't here . . . and they say there are 40 dwellings going up in Bluffton—that includes garages, woodhouses, chicken houses, moved-in houses—any place to live—besides several real honest to goodness houses . . . Night Police Griffith directing traffic at the Bank corner at noon and in the afternoon when school is dismissed—it's a good idea since traffic lights are temporarily out of operation.

Prize greeting of the week—when a pleasant voice in response to a telephone call chirped up "Basinger's used-to-be meat market."

Mrs. Franklin Rodabaugh, the former Lois Neiswander who with her physician-husband have located in Bluffton the past week comes from a medical family. Besides being a nurse in her own right, her father Dr. H. A. Neiswander is a Pandora physician and two physicians of Doylestown and Dr. L. C. Neiswander of Ada. Another uncle, Dr. E. M. Neiswander is an Ada veterinarian.

Orlo Sprunger of Wadsworth, student in Bluffton college some 10 years ago broke into the news in connection with the housing shortage at Ohio State university. Sprunger in a petition filed in the common pleas court in Columbus contended that the plan of the university trustees to house women in Baker hall, a dormitory on the campus built specifically for men endangered the security of a half-million dollars in bonds held by the state teachers' retirement system. Sprunger says that a group of men students, many of them ex-soldiers, have been protesting the plan.

If you are interested in Indian relics, there is a good exhibit of arrowheads at Carl Mumma's electric shop. They were all found in this vicinity and bear evidence of skilled Indian craftsmanship.

An informal curb market for hucksters is developing at the junction of Harmon road and East College avenue. It is a strategic spot, especially at 5 o'clock in the afternoon when Meter employees quit work. Several truck loads of peaches and quantities of muskmelons and roasting ears have been disposed of recently by enterprising farm marketers.

Donovan Schumacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Schumacher of Findlay, formerly of near Bluffton, has taken a position as cellist with the St. Louis symphony orchestra. Schumacher graduated from the Oberlin conservatory of music last June and spent the summer at Lake Chautauqua, N. Y., where he studied on a scholarship at the Juilliard summer school of music. His father is a Findlay violinist.

A & P To Start Five Day Shopping Week

Effective September 30, the A & P will inaugurate a five-day shopping week here by closing its store on Mondays, it was announced today by R. R. Betz, Toledo, Vice President of the food chain.

Object of the move, Betz said, is to "give better service to our customers and a two-day weekend holiday to our store employees."

Betz pointed out that the operators of all retail food stores in Bluffton have been invited to participate in the move.

We confidently feel that housewives will find this plan working to their advantage," Betz explained. "The complete personnel of our Bluffton store will be on the job the entire store week, resulting in the most efficient customer service of which the store organization is capable."

"For instance, this should result in less waiting, in fresher merchandise, in more completely stocked shelves and better overall store housekeeping. The employee hours now required to staff the store on Monday will be carried over to the busy days when they will be of greatest service to customers."

"Success of the plan depends, however, on the cooperation of our Bluffton customers. Purchase of sufficient supplies to last the family over both Sunday and Monday will be essential if inconvenience is to be avoided. Since Monday purchases in all stores combined amount to only a small percentage of the weekly total, no serious dislocation of shopping habits should result."

Employees of the A & P Store here are strongly back of the plan, according to Betz.

"I believe I am safe in saying that this move is significant to the food industry generally," he said. "Now the employees of our store will be able to enjoy a two-day holiday weekend, a privilege equal to that enjoyed by the employees of many other industries."

Betz said that details of the plan being worked out include "remaining open for five days a week—that is, our store will remain open on Monday whenever it is to be closed by a legal holiday occurring on any other week day." Regular store hours will remain unchanged for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, he said.

"BLESSING ON THE DAY I FOUND RHU-AID"—HER RHEUMATIC PAINS END!

One lady recently took RHU-AID three days and said afterward that she never would have believed such a "wonder medicine" existed. She says she couldn't raise her left arm more than a few inches. Rheumatic pains afflicted the muscles of her shoulder and arm. She could hardly move the fingers on her left hand. Now this lady's rheumatic pains are gone since she got RHU-AID and says she can use her left arm as well as her right, in fact, she says she simply blesses the day she got this medicine and she feels like an altogether different woman.

RHU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medicinal ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! NOTICE TO BIDDERS
Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs of the Village of Bluffton, Ohio, until 8:00 O'Clock P. M. Eastern Standard Time on the 1st day of October, 1946, at the office of said Board in the Village of Bluffton, Ohio, and at that time will be opened and read, for the following described equipment for the chlorinating of the Municipal water supply.

1—Chlorinator of the automatic start and stop control solution feed, visible vacuum type, in which the chlorine is metered under a partial vacuum. It shall be capable of automatically interrupting the application of chlorine when the pump stops and to resume chlorination upon starting the pump.

The chlorinator shall be pedestal mounted and the working parts of the apparatus such as Chlorine Pressure Reducing Valve, Chlorine Meter and Vacuum Relief shall be mounted in a hard rubber tank under a glass bell jar provided with a water seal and shall be plainly visible while in operation. All parts shall be readily accessible without the necessity of removing any bolts or screws.

The Chlorine Pressure Reducing and Constant Flow Valve shall be float operated, utilizing water as the diaphragm. The calibrated glass Chlorine Orifice Flow Meter shall be accurate to within 4% of the true delivery of chlorine on all flows within its working range.

The Bidder must warrant for a period of one year after shipment that the apparatus shipped is free from defects in workmanship and materials.

By the direction of the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, Village of Bluffton, Ohio, Charles H. Emans, Clerk.

It shall be capable of automatically diverting the flow of chlorine to waste when the pump stops and to resume the application of chlorine to the water system when the pump starts. The Chlorinator shall have a capacity of 10 pounds of chlorine per 24 hours.

The Chlorinator shall be pedestal mounted and equipped with a compensator of the needle and diaphragm type, which shall reduce the pressure of the chlorine gas and maintain the flow constant regardless of changes in pressure within the chlorine cylinder. The Chlorinator shall be equipped with a vacuum relief seal connected into the meter block and with an injector suction chamber provided with a pressure relief which shall relieve the gas directly to the outside atmosphere in the event of failure of the water supply to the apparatus. The chlorine injector shall be provided with a suction check valve to prevent back flow into the apparatus.

The volumetric chlorine flow meter shall be visible within the glass bell jar and shall be accurate to within 4% of the true delivery of chlorine on all flows within its working range.

The Bidder must warrant for a period of one year after shipment that the apparatus shipped is free from defects in workmanship and materials.

By the direction of the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, Village of Bluffton, Ohio, Charles H. Emans, Clerk.

Here Is the Latest News about Chevrolet Deliveries

Everybody from factory to dealer is doing everything that can be done to speed deliveries to you

We have been informed by the Chevrolet Motor Division that the past month has witnessed only a slight improvement in the rate of production of new Chevrolet passenger cars. As a result, shipments of new cars to dealers for delivery are still far below the level we and the factory had hoped to attain by this time. In fact, through August, Chevrolet's output of cars in 1946 was only 22.6% of the number turned out during the corresponding period of 1941.

We know that Chevrolet is doing everything possible to step up its production totals—to ship more and more cars to us and to its thousands of other dealers throughout America . . . and we know, too, that we are assured of getting our full proportionate share of the current output and of future production gains.

Disappointing as the total figures have been—and despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of the year—it is nevertheless true that Chevrolet led all other manufacturers in production of passenger cars during June 1946, and has continued to maintain its lead in total production from that day to this.

We shall continue to make deliveries of new Chevrolets to our customers just as fast as we receive them; we regret delays as deeply as you do; we thank you for your friendly patience and understanding; and we promise you a new high motoring experience when you take delivery of your new Chevrolet, giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Keep Your Present Car Alive

Meanwhile, may we suggest that you safeguard your transportation by bringing your car to us for service now and at regular intervals. Let us help you to keep it in good running condition—to maintain its performance, appearance and resale value—until the day when your new Chevrolet comes along.
