DETROIT BANK PRESIDENT

Crooke Up His Character and Disappears With Other People's Money, Between Two Days.

High License Detained in Delaware—Bismarck Comes Down Gracefully but Conditionally—Proof that M. Schmebels Was a Spy.

By the Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, April 23.—A special from Detroit, Mich., printed here this morning, says: It has just come to light that William B. Mitchell, president of the Exchange bank, Detroit, has disappeared with all the funds of the concern. Mitchell came here from Mount Clemens three or four years ago and bought out the banking firm of Fisher & Preston, who did a large business. On the 25th of April Harris & Son bought three drafts at the Exchange bank for $700. They were drawn on the bank and the bank was closed. Mitchell made a lame explanation, took up the drafts and gave others on the same New York house. Immediately after issuing the second lot of drafts, Mitchell disappeared, but the fact was not known until these drafts, like the first ones, came back unpaid. The amount of shortage is unknown.

Not So Mitchell All Right.
The reports of alleged defalcation of W. B. Mitchell, president of the Exchange bank, are greatly exaggerated, if not entirely false. Mitchell has sunk a large amount by bad management, but according to his book-keeper, there is no defalcation. His entire unprotected indebtedness is only about $3,000, and it is claimed that this will be made good. The bank was a small unincorporated affair, doing very little business.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

Bismarck Makes an Important Admission.

PARIS, April 23.—The Republique Francaise says that the German government has informed M. Florentin, minister of foreign affairs, that Prince Bismarck admits that if the arrest of the commissary, Schmebels, was made on French territory international law will require his release.

AT BERLIN.

Mr. Schmebels was a Spy.
BERLIN, April 23.—No fears of war with France are entertained here. It is stated that Mr. Schmebels was watched for a month prior to his arrest and that he made secret visits to Metz, for the purpose of stirring up a revolt against the Germans. Of this fact the government has ample evidence. Mr. Schmebels is held a close prisoner.

CONGRESSIONAL SMARTNESS

Crookes Out a Local Industry in New Hampshire.
KEENE, N. H., April 23.—The operation of the interstate commerce law has compelled the abandonment of business at Sprague's hat factory at Swanton. The factory has been turning out over three thousand boxes daily.

Lament on the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.—Col. Lamont, upon being questioned, said: "I am quite sure the president has never said he would not accept re-nomination. That question is not now concerning him, and I know of no occasion calling for its decision at this time."

About M. Schmebels.

PARIS, April 23.—Public feeling here concerning the arrest of M. Schmebels has grown much calmer. It has transpired that a Leipzig court, previous to the arrest, had condemned M. Schmebels for high treason in inciting recruits to desert.

High License Effected in Delaware.

DOVER, Del., April 23.—The legislature adjourned sine die yesterday. Among the closing acts was the defeat by the senate of the loose high license bill.

Regularity.

There will be several addresses, social features and a supper. It is earnestly desired that all members of the encampment, with their families, be present.

Rev. J. G. Frazer, secretary of the American Home Missionary society for Ohio, and a most interesting speaker, is in the city and will preach at the morning service at the congregational church, and at the Lagonda Sunday school at 2:30 and will preach at the Lagonda church at 7:30.

The pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Dr. Fullerton, requests his congregation to make a special effort to be present at the service tomorrow morning, as he designs preaching his first pastoral sermon at that time.

The Cincinnati Post says that Mr. H. L. Rockfield, of the Arcade hotel, was in Cincinnati yesterday, and purchased five hundred sets for use during the approaching G. A. R. encampment.

SOCIAL TOPICS.

Recherche Dance Given Last Night at the Bowman Residence—Other Matters.

The anticipated revival of gaiety following the conclusion of Lent, did not make its appearance to any marked degree, and there has been little or nothing in a social way, to note for the last fortnight. The one event of the past week, entitled to special mention was the elegant dancing party given last (Friday) evening at the residence of Hon. S. A. Bowman, east High street, by Miss Darlington Bowman, in honor of her friend and schoolmate, Miss Showell, of Baltimore, Md. This was one of the most perfect affairs of the waning social season and was conducted on a scale of marked but quiet elegance. Miss Bowman and Miss Showell, together with Mrs. S. A. Bowman and Mrs. W. L. Elder, of Indianapolis, received in the east drawing room at the entrance to the hall. A fine orchestra, augmented by the addition of several new musicians, was stationed in the alcove of the hall and furnished very beautiful music. Refreshments were served in the dining room, the dining room in the rear of the west parlor. It was entirely in accord with the other features of the entertainment. The programme was made up of eighteen dances, most of them in round dances. The boleros were very elaborate and their beauties were augmented by lovely bouquets of natural flowers. Dancing was kept up until shortly after midnight, when the company dispersed at a commendably reasonable hour. The perfect appointments of the elegant mansion made this dance a memorable one. Among the guests were Misses Anna Steele, Anna Iabbits, Mary Iabbits, Misses Anna and Edith Iabbits, Louise Baldwin, Mammie Winslow, Minnie Keyser, Mary Cassidy, Nellie Johnson, Nellie Thomas, Lottie Burbank, Nora White, Hattie Bushnell, Alice Goodie, May Bowman, Misses Anna and Edith Iabbits, Messrs. Will Donnell, Will Keifer, Will Rabbits, Will Thomas, Rob Foss, Perry Norton, Malcolm Anthony, Randolph Coleman, Ed Phelps, George Dial, Gus Summers, Add Rodgers, and Stewart, H. H. Huntington, Henry Wiseman, Dr. Diamond, Seipio Baker, Will Rodgers, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Metrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Metrow, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Judge White, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eiden Bowman.

Several very prominent weddings are on the tapis for the coming week. On Wednesday evening Dr. W. W. Hall will be wedded to Miss Cora Belle Black at the bride's home in Zanesville, and the event is expected to be one of great brilliance. Quite a number of Springfield people will attend. On Thursday evening Mr. John Schmebels will be wedded to Miss Cora Belle Black at the bride's home in Zanesville, and the event is expected to be one of great brilliance. The invitations to the latter are not numerous.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowe very handsomely entertained a large number of their friends at their residence in South Charleston, Thursday evening, at progressive euchre. Guests were present from Xenia and Springfield, as well as Charleston, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyable. Ten tables of cards were set, and the fare for supper and the contest was only suspended to participate of a veritable banquet—no grovel and superb were the refreshments. The favors were as follows: Ladies—Lace handkerchiefs, H. E. Bateman, perfume vase; Mr. C. H. Harrison, elegant piece of fancy work; 2d, sewing bag, Mrs. G. W. Luckey; 4th, oil painting, by Mrs. W. H. Harrison, of Xenia; gentlemen's prizes—1st, gold thermoset, Mr. W. H. Harrison, of Xenia; 2d, bronze ink-well, Dr. Farr; 3d, paper-weight, Mr. C. H. Wentz; 4th, smoking set, Mr. W. B. Baker, of Xenia.

ACACNE BREAK.

Uncle Len Sprague, the Veteran Secretary of the Agricultural Board, Pleasantly remembered.

Two months ago Mr. L. H. Sprague, of South Charleston, who for fifteen years has been the efficient and untiring secretary of the Board of Agriculture, fell and broke his leg. He is just now able to hobble around a little, and was at the Board committee meeting yesterday, for the first time since the accident. He is a credit to his stick to walk well. This set his associates in the board to thinking.

When the regular meeting of the board this afternoon was called to order, Probate Judge John C. Miller stepped forward and in hearty, earnest language on behalf of the members of the board, presented "Uncle Len" with about the handsomest gold-headed cane the writer has seen for many days. The laudation was so beautiful, wrought and is so elegant.

L. H. SPRAGUE.

From the Director of the C. C. A. E. 1887.

The case is of heavy ebony and is built to support weight. Uncle Len's voice choked as he accepted the gift, but his fine old face showed that he appreciated the splendid gift and the spirit that impelled it.

BUSHNELL GUARD ELECTION.

See Martin Elected Captain and William Sherman, Second Lieutenant.

In accordance with an order issued from the headquarters of the Ninth battalion, O. N. G., the Bushnell guards, company A, of the Ninth, held an election last night to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain Dan Ridd. Three candidates were named for the position—Second Lieutenant Scott Martin, Captain Ridd and John Stewart. Captain Ridd refused to serve even if elected, and when the vote was counted it was found that Lieutenant Martin had received the number necessary to a choice and he was declared elected. His election made a vacancy in the second lieutenantcy and an election to fill that was at once held. William Sherman and William Smith were the candidates and Sherman was elected practically unanimously.

Petroleum as a Fuel.

The following appeared as an editorial in today's Commercial Gazette: It is a very important statement that crude petroleum for fuel is likely to take the place of coal in Springfield, Ohio. The new Ohio fuel can be transported to time and at a cheaper rate than to Springfield, as we have in good condition the canal, which runs through the heart of the petroleum country. Any quantity of crude petroleum can be pulled down the canal cheaper than coal floats on the Ohio river, and that is saying much. The only question is as to its fuel capacity.

Money Stolen.

Officers McKay and McClure were called to the residence of Mr. Louis Stern last evening to investigate the loss of some money. Mrs. Stern and her domestic had lost several dollars from the house and they supposed that a fellow who had been loitering about the place had stolen the money. The officers questioned the fellow, but he knew nothing of the matter. The mystery has not yet been solved.

DEMOCRATIC REFORM.

A Veterans Re-Soldier Over Three Years and Ten Fined From the Lawless Position to Give Place to a Young Young Fellow.

Democratic reform is a great thing under whatever guise it comes. Lawrenceville, German township, this county, had a sweet-scented breeze of it yesterday, which is creating intense excitement and indignation in that locality.

For years past Mr. A. G. Litterer, a decorated old soldier, upon whose head seventy-five winters have drifted their snows, and who carries the evidence of his service for his country in a crippled leg, has been deputy postmaster and active postmaster at Lawrenceville. The village has only one hundred inhabitants, and the postoffice pays out about $2 per month. This postoffice, together with a small pension of $6 a month and the small revenue derived from the sale of a few cigars and tobacco, was Mr. Litterer's sole income for himself and family. Alexander Michael, a school teacher, had been the active postmaster, but Mr. Litterer, did the master work, the position being tendered to him because he really needed it. He is said to have made the best postmaster, by long odds, Lawrenceville ever had. He is a brother of the late Judge John H. Litterer, of this city.

Yesterday Alexander Michael withdrew Mr. Litterer's commission and appointed a strapping big young fellow named Smith, a school teacher in his stead. Donovan is a 200 pounder, is comfortably fixed and doesn't need the money at all. The peculiar heartlessness of the act led to the resignation of Mr. Litterer. Donovan is already postmaster of Pithon, this county, and has put a younger brother there as deputy. It is suspected that he wants the earth. There is just indignation over the ousting of Mr. Litterer.

AGRICULTURAL BOARD.

Meeting of the Special Committee Yesterday Changes in the Premiums.

The special committee of the agricultural board, appointed to revise the premium list, met Friday afternoon in the east county building. Present—Messrs. Crabill, Downey, Smith, Sprague and Rockfield—all but the chairman, Abe Bohrer. The veteran secretary of the board, Mr. L. H. Sprague, who has been continued to his room with a broken leg for two months past, made his first appearance and was warmly greeted.

The Clark county fair for this year came under consideration and some important matters were decided upon, subject to the approval of the main body. It was decided to increase the speed-ring purses from $1,000 to $1,500 and make the following order of the contests and the purses:

WEDNESDAY.

225-Trot, 2000 ft. $200
Three-year-old run, 125
250-Trot, 150

Prize, open to all, $100
Three-year-old trot, 150
Free to all trot, 250

FRIDAY.

240-Trot, 1500 ft. $100
Free for all run, 150
250-Trot, 125

It is likely that the fair will commence Monday, August 22, and that one day will be "children's day," with a grand exhibition of the kind. The fair will be held on the premises will amount to about $5,000 this year. In the speed ring no entry fee will be charged, except to the winners, who will pay 12 1/2 per cent. All entries in the live stock races will be in charge of 5 per cent of the premium, and sweepstakes 10 per cent. All articles must be in place by 10 o'clock on Wednesday.

THE AGRICULTURAL BOARD IS IN SESSION THIS AFTERNOON AT THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE WILL BE APPROVED OR CHANGED.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

George Slaughter Arrested For a Crime Committed Two Years Ago.

Officer Temp Wilson made an arrest yesterday afternoon that is of considerable interest. In May, 1884, a colored man named George Slaughter came to Springfield and immediately secured work at Deffenbach's livery stable as a hostler. He worked at that stable until the 21st of the following September, when he disappeared, taking with him a suit of clothes, some neckties and a piece of money belonging to an associate named Smith. The police looked for him, but Smith immediately filed an affidavit against him, but the officers heard nothing of him for some time. Finally, word was received from Hamilton, O., from the police authorities of that city that they had arrested Smith on the suspicion that he had taken a set of harness which he had in his possession and was trying to sell. The officers here endeavored to find the owner of the harness, but their efforts were fruitless. Smith would not pay the expense of bringing Slaughter back to Springfield, and he was finally released by the Hamilton authorities. Nothing was heard of him until a few days ago, when he returned to Springfield and again took a position at Deffenbach's livery stable. Officer Wilson soon learned of his return, and yesterday afternoon arrested Slaughter and lodged him in jail on the charge of petit larceny. Slaughter was sailing under the name of George Johnston. He will probably have an opportunity to see some of the old crime committed almost two years ago.

A MORNING MARRIAGE.

Mr. W. A. Coats and Miss Lizzie Coats, Quaintly Married Today.

A quiet wedding was solemnized this morning at 8 o'clock at the residence of the Rev. Samuel P. Dunlap, No. 255 North Market street, the contracting parties being Mr. W. A. Coats, of Topeka, Kansas, and Miss Lizzie Coats, a sister of Mr. Dunlap, and a daughter of Rev. Morris Oliver, formerly pastor of the First Lutheran church in this city. Mr. Coats arrived here yesterday and the marriage was performed early this morning in order that the couple might leave on the 10 o'clock live line train for the east. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel P. Dunlap, in a beautiful and impressive manner. The marriage was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present. The bride is a charming lady—a handsome brunette—well known in Springfield. The groom, Mr. Coats, is connected with the land department of the Atchinson, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad. He and his bride left at 10 o'clock for Buffalo, N. Y., and after a brief visit with friends in that city, they will proceed at once to their western home. The best wishes of a large number of friends go with them.

Department Commander Conger and Staff.

A special meeting of Mitchell post, No. 45, G. A. R., will be held next Monday evening to take in five or six recruits, who are anxious to be mustered in before the department convenes next week. The department commander Conger and staff will be in the city and attend the meeting.

You Had One.

In Judge Young's court yesterday afternoon, Tom Curtis, one of the toughest citizens of Springfield, was fined $30 for committing an indecent act. Tom Gerald, on a plea of guilty, was fined $10 for stealing coal from the cars in the L. B. & W. yard.

Eighty cents will buy an excellent pair of workmen's shoes at House & Parsons's.

IT'S A GO.

Springfield is Assured of a Magnificent Public Library and Reading Room.

The Second Presbyterian Church People Accept Mr. Warder's Offer, Action of the Congregation Postponed to a Later Date.

For several years it has been known that Mr. B. H. Warder desired to erect and present to the city of Springfield a building to be used as a public library and reading room. His proposition was that if the city or some public-spirited citizen would place at his disposal a site suitable for a public library he would erect thereon a magnificent structure that would cost at least $50,000.

Mr. Warder's proposition has been known for some time, but it was not until last week that the city council took any action thereon. The council on Thursday afternoon it was the pleasure of the council to announce that Mr. Warder would not only erect a public library building, according to the provisions of the proposition originally made by him, but that he would in addition to that furnish the site for the building, provided that he could secure the price he named for the lot which he had chosen. The lot which he had in mind is owned by the Second Presbyterian church and is on the southwest corner of High and Spring streets, diagonally opposite to the site which the government building is to be erected.

His new proposition came in the form of a letter addressed by his partner, General A. S. Bushnell, to the board of trustees of the Second Presbyterian church in which he made a definite offer for the property and stated the object for which he desired to purchase it. The letter was published in Thursday's Republic, but is here reproduced, as it states:

MR. WARDER'S PROPOSITION VERY CONCISELY. IT IS AS FOLLOWS: SPRINGFIELD, April 20, 1887.

A. P. L. Cochran, President Board of Trustees, Second Presbyterian Church.

MY DEAR SIR:—I am authorized by my partner, Mr. B. H. Warder, now in Washington, D. C., to offer the Second Presbyterian church $12,000 for their lot, corner of High and Spring streets, the lot to be used in connection with the one adjoining on the west as a site for a public library and reading room building, said building to cost $28,000, and when completed, to cost $40,000, and when it will stand, to the city.

Mr. Warder further authorizes me to say that should the church accept his offer, he will give any assurance that is needed that the lot will be used for the purpose set forth, and for that only.

Will you kindly present this matter to your board and the members of the church at the earliest convenient opportunity, and let me know of their action, that I may report to Mr. Warder.

It is my understanding, that if the offer of Mr. Warder is accepted, work on the new building will begin at once on an early day. Very truly yours,

A. S. BUSHNELL.

AS soon as this letter reached Mr. Cochran, steps were taken to secure an immediate action.

On Mr. Warder's proposition the trustees of the church, not desiring to take upon themselves the responsibility of accepting or rejecting Mr. Warder's offer, called a congregational meeting, which was held last Friday night at the Sunday school room of the church.

While all the members of the church were not, of course, present, most of those prominent in the church work were there and took part in the proceedings. The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. P. L. Cochran, president of the board of trustees, Hon. W. L. Weaver, clerk of the board, acting as secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting, and, at his request, the secretary read General Bushnell's letter.

To get the sense of the meeting, Mr. James T. Tuttle offered a resolution that Mr. Warder's proposition be accepted, and the resolution was discussed at considerable length by those present, the sentiment being practically unanimous in favor of the acceptance of Mr. Warder's offer. Messrs. W. M. Blair, Richard L. Rodgers, Dr. Casper, Oscar T. Martin, Frank C. Goode, C. A. Phelps, L. H. Olds, Rev. Dr. Fullerton, and others, made remarks on the proposition, and without an exception, they spoke favorably of the offer.

The reporters present were enjoined not to reproduce the remarks made by those who participated in the discussion, as the meeting was conducted by the light of a "friendly talk," but the representative of the Republic will take the liberty of stating one or two of the remarks made by Mr. C. A. Phelps. He said that about two years ago Mr. Warder told him that he would give the church $10,000 for the lot on the corner of High and Spring streets, as he desired it for the purpose of erecting thereon a public building. The result of that conversation with General Bushnell was the letter which Mr. Warder had written to General Bushnell, and it was a letter that one true and honest friend might write to another. It indicated to a large degree Mr. Warder's sincerity of character and

SINCERITY OF PURPOSE. No disposition was manifested by him to do or ask anything that was not fair or reasonable, and he (Mr. Phelps) hoped that the congregation would consider the proposition in the spirit in which it had been made. There was one sentence in Mr. Warder's letter which he thought the congregation, in the consideration of this question, ought to hear. Mr. Warder referred to his health, which had not been of the best, and in concluding wrote: "Warder I do in this matter must be done humbly." "Six months from this time," said Mr. Phelps, "we may not have Mr. Warder with us and this church should not place any obstacle in the way of the carrying out of his noble purpose."

The people of this community will learn with profound sorrow of Mr. Warder's ill health and the hope will be unanimous and heart-felt that he may be spared to us for many years to come. One thing was brought out by Mr. Phelps's remarks that has not been generally known, i. e., that Mr. Warder had not been only to erect the building, but also to purchase the site, which has been formed for two years or more, and it has been prevented from proceeding actively with the work only by the difficulty of securing a suitable location.

After hearing all the remarks on the subject Mr. Cochran put Mr. Tuttle's resolution to vote and it was UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.
