A Lesson in Economy.

Philosophers have noticed that when a man makes up his mind that he has got to practice economy he generally tries to begin with his wife's expenses.

"Now that bonnet of yours, my dear," said Spilkins, "how much did it cost?" "Ten dollars! Suffering Cornelius! Do you see that hat, madam? That's a Nascimento; didn't cost half that and will wear me clear into straw hat time; where did I get it? At The When, of course."

"Other expenses? What other expenses?" said Spilkins, with a snort. "I haven't any other expenses. I don't play pool, or go down town nights to the lodge when there ain't no lodge." "Oh, cigars and things? Well, I suppose they cost me $10 last month."

"Ten dollars!" screamed Mrs. Spilkins, "and yet you want me to economize on a ten-dollar bonnet; and that overcoat you have got on cost $30 at least, and that suit $30 more."

"No, my dear," said Spilkins, triumphantly, "I got those at factory prices, one profit above cost to manufacture, at The When, a saving of one profit. Don't you see that paid for the cigars? So the cigars didn't cost anything?" "Oh, yes," said Mrs. Spilkins, somewhat dazed, "I see. (Recovering.) Why, how nice, Augustus. Why, if you buy your clothes at The When the year round your cigars won't cost you anything."

"Exactly," said Spilkins, swelling with success, "that's just it. I always buy of

General Sheridan Holds His Own Today

After a Fair Night's Rest—Thurman Will Act as Teller to Cleveland's Mate.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Dr. Matthews just left the Sheridan residence. He says the general passed a quiet, comfortable night. There was no recurrence of heart trouble. The cough was not so severe as on previous nights, and on the whole he about held his own.

9:40 a. m.—General Sheridan continues to hold his own. There has been no recurrence of alarming symptoms. He had a fairly good night and sufficient sleep.

Signed, P. M. O'REILLY, W. MATTHEWS, C. B. BYRNE, H. C. YARBROW.

At 3 o'clock General Sheridan was sleeping quietly. No unfavorable symptoms have appeared today.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company tendered the general's family, in case there should be at any time necessary, a special train to bring Dr. Pepper from Philadelphia to Washington.

AT ST. LOUIS.

The Gathering Class Seem to Favor Cleveland and Thurman.

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—Chairman Barnum, of the national democratic committee, arrived early this morning. He could not be seen by the gathering of the convention. Congressman Scott, of Pennsylvania, member of the committee, reached the city this morning. Mr. Scott stated that although he had as yet had no conference with the few members of the national committee who are in St. Louis, yet General Collins, of Mass., would undoubtedly be chosen permanent chairman of the convention. He could not say as to what the committee would determine upon as to the temporary chairmanship of the convention.

Major W. W. Armstrong, of Cleveland, O., and Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, are also in the city.

W. H. English, chairman of the democratic committee of California, expressed himself highly gratified by the announcement that Judge Thurman would accept the nomination for the vice presidency. He says: "We love the old man out there, as England loves Gladstone. He will get 5,000 republican votes for the democratic ticket. That will carry the state. New York has signified her intention of supporting him. I think Pennsylvania will be solid. He is a native of Virginia and will have great strength in the south. In fact, the nomination will be made by acclamation."

Mr. John Arkins, editor of the Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Col., is for Black and will bear of no one else, yet he says: "They are talking of following the nomination of President Cleveland, which will take place with the nation in the presidential election of 1892. The barrier between the two parties is high, and it will go through with a burrah without a vote. I am sorry to see it, for I am for Black, but it looks that way. It is bad politics—very bad politics."

ARE THEY TO SECED? The Reformed Presbyterians Refuse to Identify Themselves with the Nation.

PITTSBURG, June 2.—At today's session of the Reformed Presbyterian church of the United States resolutions were adopted refraining from identification with the nation so long as it refuses to acknowledge Christ as King, enjoining sessions under the care of the synod to see that members of congregations do not identify themselves with the nation by any act that applies to allegiance, refusing ecclesiastical connection with other churches which allow their members to identify themselves with the nation by the recognition of the claims of King as King of Nations; also denouncing secret societies, endorsing prohibition, and characterizing the use of tobacco as filthy and injurious.

HE CONSENTS. Judge Thurman Will Accept the Nomination for Vice President.

COLUMBUS, June 2.—Mr. T. E. Powell called on Judge Thurman last night, and authorized the statement that Thurman has consented to have his name presented to the St. Louis convention for vice president on condition that the Ohio delegation is solid for him, and that he will accept if nominated. Mr. Powell will present the name of Thurman.

Mrs. Rawson Indicted. CHICAGO, June 2.—Mrs. Rawson has been indicted for the attempted murder of Attorney H. C. Whitney yesterday in Judge Jamieson's court room, by the grand jury this morning. Mrs. Rawson passed a restless night in the county jail, and did not arise until late this morning. She looked pale and haggard and it was evident that the intense excitement under which she was laboring yesterday had not passed away. Lawyer Whitney is very comfortable this morning, and in a fair way to get well.

The Knights of Labor. CHICAGO, June 2.—The Times says: The disintegration of the Knights of Labor of this vicinity, is going on at a rapid rate. Ever since the great rebellion started after the annual convention, last October, demonstrations have been many. District 57, Chicago, is going to pieces, most of the members having joined the new trades district packing house employees. District 24 has fallen from 24,000 in 1886 to about 6,000, who remain members nominally.

Congress. WASHINGTON, June 2.—House—Senate amendments to the experimental agricultural station bill were concurred in. Similar action was taken on bills authorizing the construction of bridges across the Tennessee river at Chattanooga, Tenn., and at Gunterville, Alabama.

Fatal Altercation. HILLSBORO, O., June 2.—Dr. John Osborn and J. Hancock, prominent citizens of Nokomis, had an altercation yesterday. Osborn attacked Hancock with a knife, inflicting injuries which it is believed will be fatal. Hancock struck Osborn on the head, crushing his skull. He will die.

Low prices at Parsons & Co. are what surprises their customers. The fine goods delight the buyer.

A NEW COMPANY.

The Springfield Coal and Ice Company—Capital $50,000.

The Springfield Coal and Ice Co. has just been incorporated, with a capital stock of $50,000, the following gentlemen appearing as the incorporators: Oliver S. Kelly, Amos Whiteley, Charles A. Bauer, T. W. Ludlow, John Foss and M. M. Hedger.

The company is organized for the purpose of furnishing coal to the manufacturers of the city and to private consumers, and to operate their mines so as to avoid strikes and all labor troubles if possible.

The company has absorbed the Champion Coal and Ice Co., and the business will be transacted from the office of that company. The new concern numbers among its stockholders most of the manufacturing concerns of the city who are to be benefited by the cheap fuel which the company proposes to furnish.

The company has one mine in the Hocking Valley with an output of thirty-five cars per day, and another in the Jackson county district with an output marking a total of about 1,000 tons, or 25,000 bushels, per day, for this city every day in the year.

The company has not yet organized, but will meet in a few days to complete all matters of the organization, election of officers, etc. This is one step toward the solution of the cheap fuel problem.

LATELY. Byrd, or Beard, as his name now seems to be, was under sentence to the penitentiary for twenty-two months for highway robbery. He was released from the penitentiary at Washington C. H., in company with 3 other prisoners. He was never recaptured.

A few days ago Sheriff Rankins, of Washington C. H., received information that Byrd was in Springfield. He accordingly telephoned down to Chief Ambrose, erecting his home near the crossing at Washington C. H., to the penitentiary to serve out his sentence.

Byrd, or Beard, as his name now seems to be, was under sentence to the penitentiary for twenty-two months for highway robbery. He was released from the penitentiary at Washington C. H., in company with 3 other prisoners. He was never recaptured.

A BIRD'S STRANGE HOME. A Thrush Builds Its Nest at the Grave of Allen Powell.

A thrush has built its nest and is preparing to rear its young at the foot of the grave of the late Allen Powell, at Fernhill cemetery. The nest already contains a number of pretty speckled eggs.

The attention of Superintendent Dick was called to the matter the other day, and he stated that never before in his experience had he known a thrush, or, in fact, any other bird, to build its nest at the foot of a grave. The bird will not be disturbed.

What makes the more remarkable is the fact that in life the thrush was Mr. Powell's favorite bird, and he was passionately fond of them. It is a pretty and tender thought that the bird is repaying by its nest the love and care which he, in life, showed to a friend to its species the affection lavished upon thrushes by Mr. Powell in life.

HIS FORTY-SIXTH BIRTHDAY. Mr. George Ellis Surprised at His Reception by a Party of Friends.

Last night Mr. George Ellis, night watchman at the west end malleable shop, was reminded that it was his forty-sixth birthday by a large number of his friends. He was serenaded by the Little Six with some fine music, which was highly appreciated. His wife presented him with a fine gold watch chain. At a seasonable hour an electric lantern was carried over to the shop, and the evening was spent in a social manner, and will long be remembered by all present. After wishing the host a long life of happy years, the friends departed for their homes.

Four Weeks a Widow. The people of Osborn are nothing if not enterprising. They are of the opinion that a thing worth doing at all should be done at once. Oscar Newman and Mrs. Emma Talman of that village, were married in Xenia May 30. The bride was the widow Merritt Talman, a well-known citizen of Osborn, who was buried about four weeks ago. A telephone message from Osborn says that the couple were tendered a big fair last night, and that their first marriage was rather a quiet one. Ten years ago, when a girl of eighteen years of age, she was won and wed by Merritt Talman, an exceedingly wealthy farmer and a big fair last night. Her husband died in Xenia May 30.
