THE ARMY GOES FOR LATTLE MAC. -A letter is before us, says the Rochester Union of September 20th from a manwell known here, who is now in the army in Northern Virginia. Writing from Harper's Ferry, September 8th, he

"If Lincoln is re elected, we may look for four years more of war, or total rain in less time; but it Little Mac is elected, 1 think we may close this thing honorably to the whole Union. The soldiers will give WClellan an immense uniority where they have a free vote. I hear that one brigade in the 6th corps took a vote recently, and in 2,100 men, only one could be found who was for Old Abe. He was given time to repent and change his mind, and was likely to fall in and make it a unanimous thing. If you at home will do as well as the soldiers, it will be all right. The election is all the talk now, and hard words are followed by pretty hard blows, at times. Considering that greenbacks are so low in value, an officer's pay does not afford him much. Polatoes are worth three dellars a bushel, ham 35 cents a pound. butter 75 cents per pound, and bread 10 cents per loat."

to a friend of the Genius of Liberty from camp near Petersburg, Sept. 1str of got the Genius C. sent me; feel very thankful for it, and would like to see the next one. I read Cowan's speech, and was much pleased with it. I never Fix such a change in political matters as Thus taken place in our regiment. Uncle Abowill get but few vot s in one squad."

Traitors, Clear the Track.

Democrats! whom Jackson led. Whiga! with Webster at your head, Porward with clastic tread-

Tis a common eause. Come, united heart and hand, To redeem our cherished land, By the noble "Union" Stand, And our sacred Laws.

By the enreed "free soil" fraud, By those specious lies abroad, Shout we now with one accord. Union ! "Little Mae !"

O'er each valles, lake and dell, Where a Patriot soul doth dwell, Shall the thrilling chorus swell : "Traities, clear the track !"

See the engle from his cray Leaps to greet the Union flag; Who would inhermow, or lag At his Country's call? Up! the time is flying last; List M'Chillan's longle blast : Up litestore the glorious past; Forward, one and all!

By your you and horoes' graves. Strewn where'er the "Old Flag" waves, Ne'er shall abolition knaves Rule our land again. Purge the land of every trace Of the sordid, hireling race; Livery mark and line efface Of the loath one stain.

We shall need no "sobrh net" To excite our ranks to day; Peace and glory lead the way, No more spur we lack. On our glorious banner see ! Union! Laws true Liberty! Thirty millions of the free ! "Traitors, clear the track !"

Not the Chieftan from the wars, Red with blood, and rough with sears, Not the ghastly Son of Mara

Do we honor now. But the Patriot, brave and bold, Unsubdued and uncontrolled, With the "Old Flag's" tattered fold Wreathed around his brow.

Dally not, the hour draws near --Tis the time for faith-not fear; Steadily the "Old Ship" steer

Through the stormy track; O'er each valley, lake and dell, Where a Patriot's son doth dwell, Let the thrilling chorus swell: "Traitors, clear the track !"

Peace All Around.

We the Freemen of the North, To all be it known, Will next Election day The Despot dethrone.

O, we shall happy be, When from Despotism free, When inquiety abound, Peace all around.

Lincoln has the power now, His Cabinet the rod, To their tyranny we bow And answer every nod. O, we shall, etc.

Lincoln's time will soon be out, That will end the war; His minions will be put to rout, Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah!

O, we shall, etc.

Democracy will rule again --Rule all in love; Equity and Peace shall reign By the powers above.

O, we shall, etc.

LINCOLN'S PROGRAMME.-The New York Freeman's Journal in an article on the peace negotiations at Niagra Palls, gives the following as Lincoln's programme for the Presidency. It is truth :

1. A disgraceful war rather than an benerable peace!

2. The exarmination of white men under the delusive pre-ext of freeing black tarbarians!

liberty, and war of all who uphold it.

4. The beggaring and humiliation of the people of the Northern States! 5. Finally a shameful peace, based, not on an h-norable agreement as to rights, but on a confessed impotency, to carry on this war! Let the word travel from town to town, from hill top to hill-top-let it penetrate every recess of these States! Lincoln and Seward-have announced their purpose. It is: Destruction, not Preservation! Tearing down, not Building up! Bayonets, not Laws! Despotism Perpetual, not Institutions restored.
