THE DAILY BULLETIN.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE IN CAIRO, ILLINOIS, AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ALEXANDER COUNTY. Only Morning Daily in Southern Illinois.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

Squire Robinson returned home yesterday afternoon.

—Two daughters were born unto Mr. and Mrs. M. Leighton, Sunday morning, which fact is a double cause for congratulations, etc.

—We often hear people say, there is only one good cough medicine and that is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, it is cheap too, only 25 cents per bottle.

—The city fathers congregate again this evening. The allowance of claims against the city will constitute the bulk of the evening's business.

—Mary, daughter of county commissioner Martin V. Brown, died at her home in Thebes, on Friday last, of typhoid malarial fever. We are in possession of no further particulars.

—The iron cradles for the Illinois Central incline having arrived on Saturday, a large force of men was engaged Sunday morning, at the work of putting them in place.

—The C. and V., like the I. C., is sending out a regular train of cotton every day, and extra trains three or four times a week. Both roads have all the business they can conveniently accommodate.

—With the great 7 show; the Alice Oates comic opera company, and the Theater Comique, all here together on Saturday next, there will certainly be no lack of amusement for our people.

—Yesterday evening the employes of THE BULLETIN office were paid off in bright, clinking new gold coins—an occurrence without precedent in the history of THE BULLETIN, or, perhaps, in the history of any other business establishment in the city.

—The regular monthly sociable of the K. M. K. C., called out an unusual attendance, last night, and the dance and rounds of pleasure went on right merrily, until the small hours of the morning. It was an occasion of rare enjoyment throughout.

—The stock yard at the corner of Nineteenth and Washington has been converted into a hog pen. The neighbors complain of noxious emanations, etc., and not without cause, probably. It is certainly not the place to corral any kind of stock.

—There is, at this time, an unusual number of suspicious characters in the city; and some of them are plying their trade. Some time during Sunday night Nat Prouty's house was burglarized, and the villain succeeded in getting away with eighty dollars in cash and a fine gold watch. No clue to the villain has been obtained.

—All babies are diminutive Caesars, since they come they see, they conquer, sometimes by their gentle stillness but oftener by continued uproarious crying induced by Colic, Teething, Flatulency, etc. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup by its gentle yet specific influence quiets the little ones without ever producing the least injurious effect. Price 25 cts. a bottle.

—Squire Comings was full handed with business, yesterday. Patsy Robinson, Mag Williams and Peter Hughes failed to explain away a charge of disorderly conduct, and were fined $5 and costs, each. A BULLETIN neighbor was arrested for an alleged violation of a State law, and was discharged. Subsequently he was arrested for an alleged violation of a city ordinance, and was discharged again. He was then "let alone."

—The Louise Pomeroy Dramatic company, greatly enlarged and improved will arrive in Cairo on Monday next, and will remain two nights only. No dramatic company that makes Cairo a point in its rounds stands higher, in the favor of our people than the Pomeroy troupe, and we feel that we may safely say that it will win fresh laurels at our hands during its short stay next week. It comes to conquer admiration and applause, and both will be yielded, unconditionally.

—Two "kids," as we are wont to call the boys, were before Squire Comings, yesterday, to answer a charge of disorderly conduct. It was charged and proved against them that they had thrown brick bats and other missiles through a neighbor's window, and demeaned themselves in a manner at once ruffianly and criminal. The Squire could not do less than fine them $5 and costs, each. We withhold their names, because we have no desire to add to the shame and mortification they have brought upon their parents. Another time we may prove less considerate.

—A correspondent tells us that "Argos's" statement that the expenditures of the Board of Health during the month of September amounted to $2,200, was erroneous; that the comptroller's report showed that the expenditures of the year, up to Sept. 30th, had been $2,200—the expenditures of September, alone, falling short of $200. "Argos's" statement that he obtained his information from THE BULLETIN. THE BULLETIN obtained its information from the Comptroller's report, which professed to give the expenditures for the month ending September 30th. We supposed at the time, however, that the $2,200 was simply the allowances of the month.

—Mr. Jacob Klein, of this city, has secured the right to manufacture and sell in the three lower counties of Illinois, Richardson's artificial stone, and carbonized stone sewer pipe. While this stone may be adapted to all uses where the real stone can be employed, it promises to become especially useful in Southern Illinois in the manufacture of sewer pipe. Neither heat nor cold, moisture nor drought has any visible effect upon it. It becomes as hard as granite and is simply everlasting. Of course the pipe can be made of any size desired, a 12 inch pipe, with a fall of 4 inches to the 100 feet having a discharging capacity of 800 gallons per minute. It can be used wherever iron or clay pipe may be used, and its superiority suggests itself. Mr. Klein will have a machine or mould for the manufacture of the pipe, in working order in a short time, and will soon be in a condition to supply demands, when he will tell the readers of THE BULLETIN something further and more definite about the carbonized stone sewer pipe.

—For some time, in fact for a long time, it has been unsafe for either citizen or stranger to pass along Commercial near Fifth street, at any hour of the night, after 10 o'clock. More men have been garrotted, knocked down and robbed, or been robbed without being knocked down, in that vicinity, than in all the balance of the city. George Stadler was passing along there, about 11 o'clock, a few nights ago, and seeing a crowd of eight or ten negroes on the sidewalk, had no thought of being molested in the presence of so many persons; but the moment he entered the crowd one negro seized him by the shoulders while another negro rifled his pockets. George had $4.50 in his pockets; but the robber did his work so clumsily that he found only $3.50. Obtaining this booty, the rascals started George out of the crowd with a violent push, admonishing him that if he looked back he'd get his head knocked off. This is certainly quite a "rough deal" for an old citizen to be subjected to, on the open streets of the city—but who can help it and how? As long as that part of the city is made the rendezvous of gamblers, ruffians, bawds and dead-beats, such things are bound to occur, and to occur frequently.

—The name of Miles W. Parker is used elsewhere, in connection with a candidacy for the office of County Treasurer. He is a man who will be warmly supported, for several reasons. He is a man of excellent common sense and ripe judgment. He was born and raised almost in sight of Cairo, and is therefore well acquainted with the property of the city and county, and can form just and intelligent estimates of its value. He is honest and incorruptible, and will prove as true to the line of duty as the needle to the pole. He is a poor man, to whom the emoluments of the office, though small, will prove a most welcome and grateful help; and finally, he is a deserving, generous hearted fellow, in every way worthy of the position he seeks. It is our opinion that, should Parker be elected, no man will ever have occasion to feel any self-reproach because he helped to elect him.

—We have, in Cairo, dozens and scores of boys, both white and black, who indulge in a species of malicious mischief that is more or less exasperating to the public, and especially so to the parties directly concerned. We refer to the destruction and defacement of posters and public notices. It matters nothing to these abandoned boys how costly or attractive the posters may be, or for what purpose they are posted. Their destruction and the opportunity to destroy invariably go hand in hand. Conspicuous evidence of this kind of vandalism may be seen on the circus bulletin board on the west side of Washington avenue, above the court house. The agent of Batcheller & Doris' circus caused the erection of a bulletin board, there, about 200 feet long and 10 feet high. This vast surface he covered with beautiful and costly illustrated circus posters, the whole thing involving an outlay of nearly one hundred dollars. These posters had not been in place twenty-four hours before they were shamefully defaced, and now, six days in advance of the coming of the circus, nearly or quite one-third of the entire bulletin board is naked; and the whole thing is so marred and defaced as to be valueless as an advertisement. It was through no desire to secure the "pictures" that the board was robbed, for the whole mass of paper torn off, lies in fragments under foot, where the vendors hands dropped it. But a like fate seems to await every kind of notice that is put out to arrest public attention. The society or individual that puts out a hundred posters at night, is singularly fortunate if as many as fifty can be found the next morning. No matter how large or how small the posters may be, they are doomed to destruction before they serve their intended uses. Now, in the name of that large and respectable element of our population that uses printer's ink in furtherance of its business or social aims, we demand to know if such defacement is to go on indefinitely, without meeting check or punishment? The law provides adequate penalties, and it should be enforced. The arrest and imprisonment of a single boy, would furnish a better guarantee against future mischief of the kind than a hundred armed watchmen could. Let it once be known, then, that boys who have arrived at an accountable age, are dead sure to go to the calaboose if caught in the act of destroying public notices, and we'll have an end of that species of malicious devilment, right off.

THE GREAT RAILROAD SHOW. Our citizens had the pleasure of seeing the largest and best display of animals and ring performances ever seen in Camden.—(Camden, N. J., Weekly Press.

The large attendance in the evening may be attributed to the very excellent performances given in the afternoon.—(Harrisburg, Pa., Daily Telegraph.

We noticed an entire absence of all that species of petty gabbling and giving of short change that usually accompanies tented exhibitions.—(Troy, N. Y., Evening Press.

In speaking of Batcheller & Doris' Big Show we can but add our words of praise to the very many others from all parts of the country, it certainly performed all that was promised in the most creditable manner.—(Binghamton, N. Y., Daily Democrat.

THE SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

MARRIAGE OF MR. LOUIS ROSENWATER, OF MORRELLTON, ARK., AND MISS SARAH BLACK, OF CAIRO, ILLINOIS—A BRILLIANT OCCASION: PRESENTS AND CONGRATULATIONS.

The marriage of Mr. Louis Rosenwatter and Miss Sarah Black has been celebrated, and is now a thing of pleasant memory.

Not less than three hundred invited guests, many of them from abroad, assembled in Odd Fellows' hall, Sunday evening, and as early as 7 o'clock were in constant expectation of the entrance of the expectant bride and groom and attendants. At 7:15 the party arrived: Mr. A. Black, with his daughter, the bride; Mr. Louis Rosenwatter, the bridegroom with Mrs. A. Black, Mr. Harmon H. Black with Miss Hattie Seigalman, and Mr. and Mrs. David Black, supports, constituted the bridal party.

The bride wore the regulation veil and orange-flowers. The dress was an elegantly fitting and exceedingly handsome lilac gros-grained silk, tastefully trimmed with brocade silk.

The party was at once assigned position, Mr. Charles W. Frank, meanwhile, presiding at the organ.

The marriage ceremony was then performed by the Rev. Mr. Tauberhouse, Rabbi, from Paducah, Ky., after the forms of the Jewish church. The ceremonies were conducted in Hebrew, with explanations in English that gave everybody present a full understanding of their import. It was alike impressive and beautiful.

While appropriate music was discoursed, the newly married couple with their attendants now retired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Black, where, until 9 o'clock they received their friends. The congratulations showered upon them were alike numerous and hearty. During the evening the following congratulatory, telegrams were received from friends abroad who were denied the privilege of attending in person: LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 12, 8 o'clock p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenwatter:

May your future path be as bright as this on this eve of your union, and may you ever remain strangers to all sorrows. May the blessings of health and prosperity ever attend you, and the most of your troubles be "little ones." These are the sincere wishes of your friend, HERMANN LEVY.

MORLEY, Mo., Oct. 12. Mr. L. Rosenwatter: Impossible for me to attend; but accept my hearty congratulations and good wishes. CHARLES HARRIS.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 12. 7:45 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. L. Rosenwatter: Accept the sincere congratulations and best wishes of your friend, S. SAMPLER.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 12, 8 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenwatter: May your life be one of perpetual sunshine, and your young hearts never know a moment's sorrow; and if you have any troubles may they be "little ones." LEO POLLOCK.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 12, 8 o'clock, p. m. L. and S. Rosenwatter: I am happy to congratulate you. May your union be a long and happy one. M. A. DALY.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 12. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenwatter: Hearty congratulations. May your future be one long dream of bliss and unalloyed happiness. LEW FRANK.

As many as fifty or sixty specially invited friends attended the reception, and partook of the elegant repast. Four tables were spread, and from the center of each arose a magnificent pyramid of flowers that reached to the chandeliers, suspended above. There was a wealth of luxuries, including tropical fruits, fine wines, etc., besides the more substantial, but scarcely less toothsome edibles of more northern production. At half-past 9, the guests were bidden to the feast; and the toasts and speeches that followed added not a little to zest and good feeling of the occasion.

Among other friends present from abroad were, Mrs. Joseph Blum, of Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. S. Bach, Mound City; Oscar Be Jack, Benton, Ark.; A. W. Grosz, Morrellton, Ark.; and Bernard Harris, Little Rock. Letters, apologetic and congratulatory, were received in great number.

And something more substantial than congratulations was bestowed upon the happy pair, as the following list of bridal presents will sufficiently attest. The presents consisted of:

- 1 Solid silver and Gold Soup ladle, in case, from Messrs. Saller, Dewlin & Co., Philadelphia.
1 Set solid silver Napkin Rings, in case, from Emanuel Lorman, New York.

1 Silver Water Pitches, from Max Hyman and P. S. Haas.
1 Pair Silver Napkin Rings, from Louis Burger.
1 Set Bed Room Furniture and Carpet, from Mr. and Mrs. S. Rosenwatter.
1 Set Lace Curtains, from Mr. and Mrs. A. Black.
1 Silver Syrup Pitcher with stand, from Louis Black.
1 Set Solid Silver Tea Spoons, Sugar spoon and Butter Knife, in case, and 1 set solid silver knives and forks in case, from Max and Willie Black.
1 Set Silverware—Coffee Urn, Water Set, Butter Dish, Cream Pitcher, and Sugar Bowl, from David and Harmon H. Black.
1 Set Gold and Coral jewelry, from groom.

To this large list may be added the many handsome and valuable presents received from Arkansas friends, which being sent direct to the future home of the newly married, a descriptive list was not obtainable.

To-day Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwatter will leave for their home in Morrellton, Arkansas. To the hearty good wishes that follow them, and that may attend them in the hereafter, we desire, now and here, to add the good wishes of THE BULLETIN.
