THE DAILY BULLETIN.

WAS PATTI DRUNK?

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., January 6.--Depositions in the libel suit of Carlotta A. Patti against the Post-Dispatch of St. Louis have been taken here for the defense and have disclosed a great deal of evidence against the sobriety of Patti on the occasion of her concert here a short time ago. McCall, a hackman, testified that he took Patti from East Leavenworth to her hotel in Leavenworth, and from the hotel to the theater and back to the hotel after the concert; that it took three or four men to get her into her hack at the theater after the concert, and as many to take her out of it on arrival at the hotel. He could not swear positively that Patti was drunk, but was decidedly of the opinion that she was intoxicated. Joseph F. Bruna, owner of the Mansion House, testified that he sent two brandy toddies, at different times, to Patti during the concert. They were as hot and as strong as he could make them. They were ordered by an old Italian attached to the troupe, who said they were for Patti, and who took them to the theatre himself. Bruna further swore that every one in the concert audience that visited his saloon that night spoke of Patti as being drunk.

Brooks, janitor of the theatre testified to seeing four glasses of liquor brought into the theatre during the evening. Two of them, he knew, were hot Scotch whisky. He brought one himself, by order of Demunk, Patti's husband, who told him to have it made stronger than that which had been previously ordered. Witness considered this particular drink a bouzou on account of its strength. These four drinks were placed on a table at which Patti sat when not singing. He saw her drink them, and thought she was very drunk; believed the amount of liquor she drank that evening would make any ordinary man drunk.

Prof. Carl Hoffman, one of the leading musicians of the city, and the state agent of Chickering's pianos, testified that he heard Patti attempt to sing on the night in question; thought she acted very strangely; considered her singing a farce; was disgusted with the whole performance, and telegraphed Chickering & Co. to cancel their contract with the Patti troupe, on the ground that he thought it would injure them to have a piano with such a company.

WANTED.--Sherman & Co., Marshall, Mich., want an agent in this county at once at a salary of $100 per month and expenses paid. For full particulars address as above.

LIVELY FOR THE CAZAR.

Extracts from the Emperor's Diary. Got up at 2 a. m. and ordered my bath. Found four gallons of vitriol in it and did not take it. Went to breakfast. The Nilshits had placed two torpedoes on the stairs, but I did not step on them. The coffee smelt so strongly of prussic acid that I was afraid to drink it. Found a scorpion in my left slipper, but luckily shook it out before putting it on. Just before stepping into my carriage to go for my morning drive it was blown into the air, killing the coachman and the horses instantly. I did not drive. Took a light lunch of hermetically sealed American canned goods. They can't fool me there. Found a poisoned dagger in my favorite chair, with the point sticking out. Did not sit down on it. Had dinner at 6 p. m., and made Baron Laischounowsk taste every dish. He died before the soup was cleared away. Consumed some Baltimore oysters and London stout that I have had locked up for five years. Went to the theater and was shot at three times in the first act. Had the entire audience hanged. Went home to bed and slept all night on the roof of the palace.

PILES! PILES! PILES!--Do you know what it is to suffer with Piles? If you do, you know what is one of the worst torments of the human frame. The most perfect cure ever known is Kidney-Wort. It cures constipation, and then its tonic action restores health to the diseased bowels, and prevents recurrence of disease. Try it without delay.

An interesting incident occurred to Gen. Grant while he was enjoying the hospitalities of Louisville, where, quite naturally, he was thrown into the society of many ex-federate officers. As he stood before a Tennessee delegation his eyes chanced to fall upon a man who stood apart from the others. For a moment Grant's head went down, as though he were in deep thought. Then he stepped forward, grasped the stranger's hand, and said, "I have seen you before, sir, but where I can not call to mind." "Yes, general," said the stranger, "you saw me at Fort Donelson, I then commanded a Tennessee regiment, and with the best portion of my men captured my way out of the fort, availing myself of your kindness." "Oh, yes," responded the ex-president, "I recollect you perfectly now; you are Col. Wilson."

GUILTY OF WRONG!--Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of--Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.--Tribune.

OUR AUSTRALIAN TRADE.--Since the establishment of the Pacific line of steamers, the trade between the U. S. and Australia has increased wonderfully, and Hall's Balsam, for coughs, colds and all lung diseases, is now a regular article of export to that country, and one of their staple medicines.

It can almost be asserted that St. Jacobs Oil works wonders. Shortly before the New Year, when I visited my family in Mitchell, I found my son Edward, a lad little more than ten years old, very sick. He suffered with Rheumatism, and so terribly that he was perfectly stiff in his limbs, could not possibly walk, and had to be carried from place to place. At once I sent for some St. Jacobs Oil, used it according to directions, and in a few days could see evidence of considerable improvement. On the tenth of this month I again visited my family and was astonished to find him well and hearty. He once more has fresh color in his face and can go to school again. Whenever the old trouble threatens to return, relief is immediately secured by the use of the celebrated St. Jacobs Oil. From sheer joy over this result I cannot withhold recommending St. Jacobs Oil to suffering humanity as a true benefactor.
