GENERAL NEWS. The Ste Genevieve added nothing here. The Colorado passed up well laden for St. Louis. The Joe Kinney had a good trip for Vicksburg Sunday night. The W. P. Halliday should arrive this morning for New Orleans. Four feet reported on Caseyville bar, which will enable the Crown to come out flying. The Golden Crown will be out to-day. She will get all the freight necessary to fill her out.

Riley's Inlet is now a mail landing and Capt. Bob Riley has been appointed postmaster, and more recently elected to the office of coroner. "B. G." ran ahead of his ticket, which is accounted for by his undoubted ability to successfully "set" down upon any case, which might come within his jurisdiction. He declines to administer, however, over the remains in Indiana.

The excorrigible Frank Gilbert, so well known by river people, as river editor of the Evansville Courier, but lately as editor and reporter of the Evansville Weekly Argus, is to enter the yoke matrimonial in company with Miss Annie Hudspeth, at Evansville, on the evening of the 20th inst. This rascal has at last been caught, and we hope caught good. He has been a wandering Jew sort of a fellow for these many years, and we feel glad that the gentleman has finally encountered an obstruction. We can assure friend Gilbert that, though the sliken chains may be somewhat galling at first, he will be surprised to experience how easy is the transaction from the roaring lion to that of the hibernated wood chuck in January. Walt joins THE BULLETIN in the most hearty congratulation. It is to be hoped that Will Hays will behave himself upon this occasion.

YOUNG SAWBONES. Some young surgeons when accidents happen, in order their great skill to show, cut the leg off close to the thigh. When they only should cut off the toe; like cutting off a dog's tail by the ears, or the skinning alive of the frog. It is all very well as a surgical case, but devilish tough on the dog. 'Tis much better by far when you're wounded, or have either cut, bruise or burn, to find Electric Oil is the very best thing, and it won't take you long to learn. —Electric Oil Paraphraser. Sold by PAUL G. SCHUH, druggist.

The Cairo Prices Current. Office Washington Avenue, (Corner Twelfth Street.) THE CAIRO PRICES CURRENT is published every Tuesday and Friday from the office of THE CAIRO BULLETIN, and is intended to give a true report of the condition of the market on day of publication, and the publisher trusts that full and complete quotations will be given by the business men of the city. TERMS.—One cent per copy. On all orders of 25 or more, of same date, the subscriber's name will be printed without extra charge. Orders for extra copies must be received by 10 o'clock A. M. on day of publication.

The Market. MONDAY EVENING, October 18, 1880. The weather is clear and exceedingly cold for this climate. The first frost of the season fell last Sunday morning, but was not keen enough to produce any visible effect on vegetation. Business averages only so so. Corn, meal and flour are firm and active, but other branches of the market are on the quiet order. FLOUR—The market is steady and firm with a good demand in choice grades and an upward tendency in prices. HAY—The market is steady with fair receipts, but no surplus of choice.

CORN—The demand is limited, but receipts are very light and prices rule firm. OATS—The demand has fallen off, stocks are accumulating and prices are lower. CABBAGE—The demand continues steady and active. MEAL—The supply and demand are about equal and prices are firm. No country meal arrives. BRAN—Scarce and in demand. Stocks are all held by the mills. BUTTER—We note an accumulation of stocks and a consequent weakening in prices. EGGS—The change to cold weather should have a good effect on the market, but it has not yet been felt. Prices are weak and unsteady. POULTRY—Turkeys are in fair demand at quotations. Chickens are overstocked and very dull. APPLES—The demand is very small and only to fill orders. POTATOES AND ONIONS—These esculents are very quiet but unchanged as to prices. The market is well supplied for the demand.
