I must not close this rambling letter without expressing my thanks to the many old friends for kind greetings and for favors shown me while in your city, and for the desire expressed by many that I would return to Cairo and embark in business again, numerous merchants and others promising patronage and assistance.

Among the many friends to whom I am indebted for courtesies extended, let me mention Harry Walker and his splendid Comique band, to whom I am indebted the compliment of a serenade. I am thankful to Thomas W. Halliday, Winter, John McNulty and Chris. for favors; and I am especially grateful to Jimmy Johnson and Dock Dunno, fusing, with tears in their eyes, when I invited them.

I shall be in your city again in four months. Very truly,
JAY GOFFER ADVEE
