Egypt.

TO BE SENT TO THE RELIEF OF BERBER AND KHARTOUM.

CAIRO, April 23.—Nubar Pasha, Prime Minister, and General Sir Evelyn Wood had a long conference this morning, at the conclusion of which it was announced that it was decided to recommend the immediate dispatch to Berber of mixed British and Egyptian forces. Subsequently General Wood stated that a large number of the better class of Egyptians in the army had expressed a desire to go to the relief of the imprisoned garrisons at Berber and Khartoum. In selecting the force, only Egyptians known to be loyal to the Khedive and who have seen active service will be drafted.

England.

LONDON, April 23.—Sir Edward Walkin, M. P., offers £1,000 toward the rescue of General Gordon. He asks the London papers to open a fund for this purpose, "when," he says, "two hundred thousand pounds would be collected in a few hours."

FOUND GUILTY AND SENTENCED.

GLASGOW, April 23.—Peter O'Shea, charged in connection with the nine Glasgow dynamiters sentenced some time since for causing the explosion of the Trateston gasometer and blowing up the shed of the Caledonia Railroad station, was to-day found guilty and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment. The Chief Constable received a letter this morning in which the writer informed him that his life had been forfeited for the activity he had displayed in the conviction of the dynamiters, and stating that the avengers were on his track.

Spain.

ACQUITTED AND RELEASED.

MADRID, April 23.—Generals Farrer and Hidalgo, who were arrested on March 27, charged with being implicated in the alleged military conspiracy against the Government, have been pronounced innocent by the tribunal trying them. A large number of officers were arrested for instituting an inquiry as to whether a conspiracy really existed in the army. The acquittals are generally satisfactory, especially among the Republicans, who, since the alleged discovery of the conspiracy, have claimed that it was an invention of the Government for a pretext for the arrest and disgrace of army officers suspected of having the slightest antipathy towards royalty. Both officers were released.

Ireland.

DUBLIN, April 23.—The police regard the ominous notices purporting to emanate from the Invincibles, which were found in various parts of the city yesterday, as a hoax. The purpose of this, they believe, was to stimulate the contributions of money from America, which of late have seriously fallen off.

Austro-Hungary.

CRACOW, April 23.—The person who threw the bomb at the Court-house yesterday, while the police officials were in consultation, is named Boleslaus Malankiewicz, is a native of Warsaw and only seventeen years of age. A loaded revolver was found upon his person.

Shot Through the Jugular Vein.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 23.—The Journal's Anoka, Minn., special says: "Willie Gray, thirteen years old, son of J. D. Gray, a shoe merchant, was killed last night, while engaged in a charivari, by a shot through the jugular vein from a small revolver held close to his neck by a companion. It was probably accidental, as no trouble had arisen. The revolver was fired to increase the noise being made. The parties implicated have not yet been apprehended."

The Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., April 23.—The election returns are coming in slowly. Up to noon returns had been received from only forty precincts, showing a good majority for the regular State and city tickets.

Horse-Thief Captured.

STEELVILLE, Mo., April 23.—Late Saturday evening a nephew of William Huffman, a small lad, was returning from Osage to his uncle's, when a man overtook him, compelled him to dismount, and taking the animal rode away in the direction of Davisville. Information reaching Huffman's soon after, a brother of the boy started in pursuit with a gun and captured the thief near Davisville, where he had stopped for the night.

Woolen Mill Burned.

WILLIMANTIC, CONN. April 23.—The Washington Mills of South Coventry burned last night. Loss, $200,000. Occupied by Gibbon & Carson for the manufacturing of flannel press goods. The cause was heated bearings. The building was owned by Horace A. Kimball of Providence, and insured for $70,000 in mutual companies. Gibbon & Carson were insured for $65,000. Two hundred hands are out of work.

Followed His Patients.

HANNIBAL, Mo., April 23.—Dr. E. M. Stockton, a well-known dentist, committed suicide here last night by hanging himself in a barn in the rear of his residence. Three weeks ago he made an attempt on his life by taking morphine, but was discovered in time to prevent death. No cause is assigned for his deed. He was a member of the Hannibal Lodge, A. O. U. W.; also of the Knights of Honor. He leaves two grown daughters.

WILL BE ACQUITTED.

Testimony in the Frank James Trial Now Complete.

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., April 23.—The Frank James case was not taken up yesterday on account of the sickness of General Walker, counsel for the defense. J. W. Davis, for the prosecution, testified that on the 11th of March he saw three strange men at Mussel Shoals. Witness described the horses as other witnesses had, but could not say that James was one of the men. Mrs. E. A. Jones testified that three men stayed all night at her house just before the robbery. She didn't see their horses, and don't recognize James as one of the men. Miss Fulton was at Mrs. Jones' house. She saw the strangers. Could not identify any one. W. J. Embry testified about the same as the last two. O. P. Lane knew nothing new. The evidence has closed. The impression is that James will be acquitted.

GATH "SCOOPS" 'EM ALL.

And Creates a Sensation Among the Columbus Correspondents.

Newspaper correspondents in and about Columbus were thrown into a frenzied state of consternation last night by the announcement that "Gath" had surreptitiously entered the city and was rigging up a system of telegraph wires to let loose a great sensation—ten or fifteen columns of solid nonpareil—upon a terrified and apprehensive world.

A gentleman came in from Richwood and said that a long-haired man with a green gingham umbrella, who had been hanging around that village for a week, terrifying the women and children, had packed his gripsack and come to Columbus with a fierce look of determination in his eye.

Who could this be but the veritable and voracious "Gath?"

A meeting of the correspondents was immediately called to take action upon the remarkable visitation. Jim Boyle, of the Commercial-Gazette, presided, and stated the object of the meeting.

"I have got onto the mission of this insatiate monster 'Gath,'" said Mr. Boyle, "and he has a big 'scoop' on us. So far as I am able to see we might as well resign at once, for our various old men will hardly ever forgive us for letting it get away."

"What can it be?" mused Haley, of the Cleveland Penny Post. "Has he got any fresh facts about Columbus discovering America?"

"Oh, no; it's a good deal fresher than that," said Charley Bonebrake, of the Springfield Globe and Cincinnati Volksfreund." "It must be the bottom facts about the crusades, including an interview with Richard C. De Leon—old Dick was a great talker, you know."

"I know what it is," put in Joe Smith, of the State-Journal; it is an account of Strongbow capturing Ireland. 'Gath' always had a faculty of getting hold of things of that kind—fresh, and crisp, and newsy."

"My opinion is," remarked Jack Winship, of the Columbus Times, "that it is about the Norman conquest and Horso, and those old roosters who used to drink a barrel of ale and eat a whole hog in the way of celebrating the original and unreconstructed Fourth of July."

"I would like to satisfy myself that either of these explanations is the correct one," said Mr. Meeker, of the Toledo Bee, "but he always gets into a fresh subject. He is going to give the life and labors of St. Patrick in Ireland."

"'Gath' and I are on pretty good terms," put in Jack Connelly, of the Cleveland Leader, "and I have reason to believe that he has got hold of the particulars of Cæsar's invasion of Gaul."

"He has gall enough to tackle any sensation," interposed Mr. Doane, of the Cleveland Herald, "and he intends to head us off by giving a full account of the racket between Romulus and Remus, and a bald-headed description of the wolf that brought up these celebrated Roman wh—ps."

"Don't be misled by your fears and hopes," suggested Fred Snell, of the New York Times, "he's got the official report of the battle of the Valley of Ajalon, and the secret of the sun and moon standing still under Gen. Joshua's special order No. 1."

"I can tell you what it is," piped Fisher, of the Enquirer; "it's a conflagration—the burning of Troy, Helen, Hector, Ulysses, Ajax, Troilus, Cressida, and no end of things."

"I'll bet anything its about Joseph and Mrs. Potiphar," said Doc Sheffler, of the C. G., at a venture.

"It seems strange"—this from Sam Flickinger, of the Enquirer—"that none of you can get onto the real thing. It's about the flood—Capt. Noah's flood—not the little one-horse flood that they had down at Cincinnati. The regular first original flood has never yet been written up as fully as 'Gath' can do it if he sets to work at it."

"I regret," said Charlie Boyle in conclusion, "that you are all so wide of the mark. The fact is, our distinguished enemy, 'Gath,' has got entirely to the rear, and, as paradoxical as it may sound, has headed us off entirely. By some means or other he has got hold of the particulars of the early residence of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. You can all see what a 'scoop' he has in his exclusive possession. No man is better fitted to write it up. No man has more of the old Adam in his nature—he is a man that doesn't care Adam about the feelings of his readers when he has a prolific subject in hand. We might as well surrender. The most of us can get back to the Tower of Babel, but the line is drawn this side of the Garden of Eden."

I can only say in addition that "Gath" can work the matter up here as thoroughly as he could in Asia, and I have no doubt but that he has a personal knowledge of the most of the facts. I have his own statement to the effect that he has been the schoolmate of all the Presidents, Senators, Congressmen, Governors, and Supreme Judges for the last twenty-five years, and, as he is a relative of Adam, he has no doubt in his possession a great many interesting scraps of family history for which the public are pining.—Cincinnati News-Journal.

A Suitable Nickname.

"Isn't 'Collar Button" rather an odd nickname to give your boy?" asked a gentleman of a friend, who had just addressed his son by that title.

"Well, I don't know," replied the father, laughingly. "It may sound a little curious, but it suits the boy first rate."

"Why do you think the nickname 'Collar Button' suits the boy?"

"Because," was the reply, "when he he slips out in the evening I am never able to find him."

The plow in general use in Mexico nowadays is the same as the Egyptians used 5,000 years ago. It consists of a crooked stick with an iron point nailed to it or tied to it with a piece of rawhide, a small handle for the plowman to steer with, and a pole to hitch a yoke of oxen to. This so called plow will scratch a furrow in the soil three inches deep.

From Death's Door.

M. M. Devereaux, of Ionia, Mich., was a sight to behold. He says: "I had no action of the Kidneys and suffered terribly. My legs were as big as my body and my body as big as a barrell. The doctors gave me up. Finally I tried Kidney-Wort. In four or five days a change came, in eight or ten days I was on my feet, and now I am completely cured. It was certainly a miracle." All druggists keep Kidney-Wort which is put up both in liquid and dry form.
