SAY NEIGHBOR! DO YOU PAY RENT?

Let us figure with you. Suppose you pay $25.00 rent per month; that is $300 per year. $300.00 per year is worth $36 in interest. In three years you have paid in round numbers $1,080.00. And still the other fellow owns the house and lot, at a probable increased value.

WHY DON'T YOU COME TO US, BUY A LOT AND BUILD A HOUSE?

WE LOAN MONEY

Instead of paying for the other fellow's house, why not pay in the same way for one of your own? See the point? Of course you do. Take your pencil and figure it out; it's easy. Then come and see us.

Mrs. Alexander Borquez is remodeling her residence on Knob hill.

Mrs. Garlwood, the milliner, leaves for New York city Monday morning to purchase her spring stock.

G. Kenyon of Solomonville will bring his wife and family to Globe in the near future. He is to fill a position with the Old Dominion company.

C. A. Kennedy, the assistant cashier of the Gila Bank & Trust company of Solomonville, was in town on business yesterday.

Attorney W. K. Dial of Safford is a visitor in the city for a few days on legal business.

There will be a session of the district court today. One civil suit has been set for trial today.

E. T. Satchell, chief chemist of the Old Dominion smelter, returned from New York city last evening accompanied by his wife and daughter, who will make their home in Globe.

The J. G. C.'s were entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Keegan by Misses Alice Birdsell and Lou Bolton, and it was the first of a series of fortnightly social sessions to be given by the club, the members being called upon to entertain in alphabetical order.

N. S. McEniry, formerly of this city and now of Pasadena, Cal., was the recipient of a handsomely engraved solid gold Knights of Columbus watch chain last evening, the presentation being made by several members of Globe Council No. 1158, of which Mr. McEniry was a charter member and officer. Mr. McEniry will leave Monday for his home on the coast.

The Dime will be ready soon.

LADIES' GUILD MEETING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

The Ladies' Guild of St. John's Episcopal church were entertained by Mrs. M. E. Nowels at the residence of Mrs. S. F. Sullenger yesterday afternoon. There were thirty-five present, including a number who were guests of the guild. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. It was decided that a special meeting be held next Friday afternoon, February 8, at the home of Mrs. Reed, at which time the members will sew and prepare articles which will be for sale at a bazaar that will be held in the near future.

ARRESTED AT BOWIE FOR STEALING WHISKY

A dispatch from Tombstone says: Deputy Sheriff J. D. Prewitt of Bowie came over this morning, bringing two prisoners who have been held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of burglary in the first degree, by Judge Hendrich. The parties were J. C. Clancy and Mrs. Jewell L. Daly. Mrs. Daly has been running a sort of a rooming house and saloon at Bowie and Clancy has been stopping there.

According to the story told by Deputy Sheriff Prewitt, the parties have been in the habit of practicing economy and instead of buying whisky to sell across the bar, they made a habit of getting into the freight cars that were being loaded for Globe and tapping a barrel of whisky and filling a demijohn and carrying it to the saloon. On several occasions barrels of whisky have been found in the cars at Bowie which showed signs of being tapped. The deputy sheriff had seen Clancy around a car that was being loaded with local freight for shipment over the Gila Valley road and decided to watch the man. About dusk he saw Clancy and Mrs. Daly go to the car and both of them enter. Clancy then tapped the barrel and was in the act of filling the demijohn when Deputy Prewitt climbed into the car and placed them both under arrest.

The bond of Clancy was placed at $1,000, while that of Mrs. Daly was placed at $200. Neither party being able to furnish the bond in Bowie, they were brought to Tombstone and placed in the county jail, where they will be held until the meeting of the grand jury.

The Dime. Watch for it.

BALDWIN HELD FOR MURDERS

Verdict of Jury

"In the matter of the inquest on the bodies of Laura Frances Morris and her daughter, Aminta Ann Morris, held at Roosevelt, Gila county, February 1, 1927.

"In the above entitled matter I summoned the following named jurors to appear before me as justice of the peace in Roosevelt, February 1, 1927, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., namely: Jack Pemberton, Frank Cline, Will Pemberton, R. A. Mason, George Pemberton and L. L. Fraser.

"Having been first duly sworn in the presence of the bodies at the home of Harvey Morris, the jury adjourned to meet at Roosevelt, where they proceeded to examine under oath two witnesses, Dr. F. C. Bennell and Ranger J. T. Holmes, whose testimony was reduced to writing by J. F. Gray, a stenographer, having first been duly sworn. After due deliberation, the following verdict was rendered by the jury:

"We, the jurors, on our oath, do say that the names of the deceased were Laura Frances Morris, whose age was 38 years, and Aminta Ann Morris whose age was four and a half years; that they came to their death in Gila county, Arizona, January 31, 1927, at about 10:30 o'clock a. m. at a point on Salt river two and one-half miles easterly of Roosevelt, at the hands of William Baldwin, a negro, who wilfully, maliciously and premeditatedly murdered them by cutting their throats with some sharp instrument.

"Signed: "JACK PEMBERTON, "R. A. MASON, "GEORGE PEMBERTON, "FRANK CLINE, "WILL PEMBERTON, "L. L. FRASER, "Attest: HINSON THOMAS, "Justice of the Peace and Ex-Officio Coroner."

Baldwin a Young Negro

William Baldwin, the man charged by the coroner's jury with the commission of the most horrible crime which has ever shocked this part of the southwest, is about 25 years of age. He came to Roosevelt six months ago with a party of seventy-eight negroes who were imported from Galveston, Texas, by J. J. O'Rourke & Co., the contractors of the government dam. He has a wife and child who left Globe a week ago yesterday on their way to Galveston.

Negroes Must Move

As a result of the excitement which followed the double tragedy, L. C. Hill, chief engineer of the reclamation service in charge of the Salt river project, yesterday issued an order that all negroes employed at Roosevelt, should remove at once to the other side of the town—what is termed the Italian quarter—and to remain there.

Mexicans Prove Alibi

The two Mexicans who were arrested near Fish creek by Deputy Sheriff Medler, stationed at Roosevelt, were brought to Roosevelt late yesterday afternoon, but they succeeded in convincing the authorities of their innocence of any knowledge of the crime. They had left Roosevelt the morning of the tragedy, after a visit to the Webb store, where they made several purchases, on their way to Mesa, and they proved a thorough alibi. They were immediately discharged from custody and allowed to resume their journey.

Second Night of Tournament

Frank A. Lacey carried off the honors of the second race in the roller skating tournament, now being held nightly at Dreamland. Blevins was second, Mosher third and Keegan fourth. As it was provided that the competitors should not touch each other during the whirl, A. M. Stone and F. Baumgartner were ruled out on fouls. There was a good deal of clamor about what the decision would be and excited groups gathered about on the course. After almost an hour of heated discussion the floor was cleared for Mr. Jones, the manager, who announced the judges' unanimous decision. There were more tickets sold last night than on the previous evening. Tonight will be the third night of the series.

ROOT DENIES HE MADE WAR TALK

Was Alleged to Have Given Interview on Imminence of a War with Japan.

REFUSES TO TELL OF RECENT CONFERENCE

Naval Officials Say the Government Is Not Making Preparations to Strengthen Its Defenses on Either Side of Sea.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, February 1.—Secretary Root positively refused to make any statement touching the Japanese situation in relation to the conference which took place at the White House Wednesday evening between the president, some members of the cabinet and the California congressional delegation. He does, however, deny the authenticity of published interviews attributed to him as to the imminence of war, the state of treaty negotiations of any phase of this question, which he regarded as one eminently unsuited for public discussion at this time. The Japanese ambassador declined to be seen this afternoon, but members of the embassy staff declared he had not authorized any newspaper statement upon this subject.

Root Makes Denial

The fact appears to be that the statement in dispatches ascribed to Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs to the effect that, in the event the courts upheld the San Francisco school officials, then the matter of discrimination against Japan would require a diplomatic treaty, was in some quarters erroneously attributed to Secretary Root, who has been put in the position that he had received an ultimatum from the Japanese minister for foreign affairs.

Root denies that he has received any such communication and careful inquiry fails to show that the alleged remark of Baron Hayashi has ever been communicated officially to this government. It was said at the navy department today, as evidence of the slight importance attached by naval officers to the present discussion of Japanese relations, that there was not the slightest intention on the part of the department of strengthening the naval force on either side of the Pacific.

The Tournament

There was considerable argument among the contestants in the tournament last night relative to a decision of the judges. The Dreamland management took no part, but read the decision of the judges. It is rumored that one of the contestants will pull out in consequence, but the rumor is probably not well founded, as all of the starters still have an opportunity to win the money, the first races being only preliminary.

DREAMLAND AMUSEMENT CO.

MERELY A MASTERPIECE.

Not a "Message" in Lovely Diction For the Junior Manager.

A man who wanted to lecture called at a bureau presided over by two managers.

He aroused their interest with a lecturer's art, says the Lyceumite, but unfortunately the senior member was just starting on a trip and would not return for at least a month.

The senior partner called the young man to one side and exacted a solemn promise that he would not visit another bureau or read his lecture to anybody until after he had given this particular manager a reading and a chance to make him an offer a month hence.

The interest of the junior member, however, was at white heat, and he kept sending for the young lecturer, insisting that he come down to the office and read his lecture. The young man refused with as much tact as possible, but this only increased the anxiety of the junior.

At last the young man told of the promise made the senior partner. Instead of quieting the junior manager, the announcement made him the more anxious, and finally the young man consented.

The reading ended, the junior partner said: "Now, your reading this has saved us all much valuable time. I'll tell you frankly, my boy, it won't do. There's no message in it; it is loosely constructed; the diction is poor. It won't do. Burn it and try again."

When the senior partner returned he called up the young lecturer and soundly berated him for breaking faith.

"How do I know you have not been to every bureau in town? You promised me on your honor you would read the lecture to nobody—not even to my partner."

The young man protested that he had not done so. "Why," exclaimed the senior manager, "of course you have! He tells me that you came down here to the office two weeks ago and read him the entire lecture and that he told you it was no good."

"Yes," replied the young man; "after much persuasion I did read him a lecture which he told me was no good, but it was not my lecture—it was Wendell Phillips' 'Lost Arts'!"
