TRIAL JURY NOW GRINDING IN VALLEY

Lumber Case Occupies All of First Day's Proceedings at Solomonville

GUILTY PLEA FOR ACCUSED BURGLAR

Numerous Civil Matters Attended to and Indictments Returned

Special to the Silver Belt. SOLOMONVILLE, April 7.—The trial jury was sworn in this morning and with the completion of this work, the trial of civil and criminal matters before the court were taken up. The first jury trial to be taken up was a civil action of W. T. Hayburn and others, vs. the Mount Graham Lumber company, an action to recover on a contract. This case was not completed this afternoon.

Many offenders who have been indicted by the grand jury were in court this morning. Thomas Duran, charged with burglary, pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced tomorrow morning. Simon Sorna, charged with rape, also pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced Saturday morning. King Reese, charged with burglary; Leon Valdez, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and J. R. Graham, charged with arson, entered pleas of not guilty. Their trials are set for Friday, Saturday and Tuesday, respectively. Jesus Amador, charged with forgery, is also scheduled to be tried Saturday.

Within the past two days, numerous civil matters have been disposed of. In the suit of W. B. Fonda vs. John Berberich, judgment was granted the plaintiff in the sum of $600 and costs. E. P. Dallas was granted a similar judgment in an action against W. P. Gale. The complaint in this suit was dismissed against E. W. Taylor, another defendant. The suit of J. D. Lee vs. the Gila Valley railway, an action to recover damages for the killing of a cow, was dismissed, having been settled out of court. The suit of the Stern Price Importing company against J. M. Sparks was continued for the term and that of Casa N. Bray vs. Lee J. Bray, was dismissed without prejudice. Alexander W. Fraser and Seidgwick V. Frazer of Morenci were admitted to citizenship.

Late yesterday afternoon and today the grand jury returned the following indictments: H. J. Clark and Rex Starren, murder; J. A. Hildreth, embezzlement; J. B. Graham, arson; Luz Ochona, assault with intent to kill; Porfirio Estrada, assault with intent to kill; John Doe, assault with intent to kill; and Gregorio Gonzales, Marito Cneros, Rafael Ramos, Ramon Ruelas, Francisco Reyes and Mercedes Rodriguez, robbery. The latter defendants are but sixteen years of age, four indictments being returned against them. They are charged with robbing the store of the Arizona Commercial company at Morenci.

BONDSMEN MAY BE CALLED ON

May Have to Pay $1,000 on Peace Bond of Pete Vuscovich

In addition to placing him behind the bars on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, the action of Pete Vuscovich in stabbing his wife with a candlestick a week ago, may also cost his bondsmen the sum of $1,000. Vuscovich was arrested several months ago on complaint of neighbors who charged him with beating his wife. After an examination in one of the justice of the peace courts he was placed under a peace bond in the sum of $1,000, to prevent him from molesting his spouse in the future.

In the event of his conviction on the charge which he now faces, an action will be instituted by the district attorney to recover on the bond. Vuscovich was to have been given an examination in Judge Hinson Thomas' court yesterday, but at the request of Attorney Eugene Miller, counsel for the defense, the hearing was continued until Monday.

GRAFT SKELETON STALKS IN LEGISLATURE OF OHIO

Bribery Charges Are Made Against Representatives in Telephone Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 7.—Representative Howard Pears of Allen county, testifying before the house of representatives bribery investigation committee today, said that Simon Cronin of Akron, telephone attendant in the house for ten years, offered him $100 to support the Elson Telephone merger, which passed the house a month ago. Pears was averse to giving the name until threatened with a fine for contempt.

Cronin, when informed of Pears' testimony, denied the charge. Representative Frank Woods of Medina testified that Representative Meyer Geleerd of Lucas, during conversation had given him the impression that efforts had been made to bribe him to support the bill. He also testified that Representative Moriez of Cuyahoga had told him he had been offered $50 to vote against reconsideration of the Elson measure. To these men Woods is said to have given advice that if they could not prove the offers had been made, and if no one had overheard them, they had better say nothing.

The testimony of Representative Elson of Tuscarawas, author of the measure, that no one assisted him in its preparation, was contradicted by his seatmate, Representative Smith of Marion, who said Elson told him Cyrus Huling, a Columbus attorney, had given him aid in drawing the bill. Huling was active several years ago for the independent telephone interests. The connection of his name with them threw light on his efforts to get the bill through, for, while it legalizes telephone mergers, the independents asserted they opposed its passage.

Frank Davis of Columbus, head of the principal independent companies of Ohio, recently purchased by J. P. Morgan & Co., said tonight that Huling had no connection with any Ohio independent company.

PRESS MEN HAVE ANNUAL JOUST IN ALBANY

Burlesque Politics Furnish Amusement for Great and Near-Great Guests

SPOTLIGHT SHOWS BWANA TUMBO

Bogus Roosevelt Says "No Return from Elba for Your Teddy"

ALBANY, N. Y., April 7.—Official Albany took a night off to attend the annual dinner of the Legislative Correspondents' association tonight.

Governor Hughes, Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the republican state committee; Chairman Conners of the democratic state committee, and scores of state officers, legislators, and men prominent in public life, enjoyed the shafts of wit that flashed across the banquet board.

While the diners were assembling in the lobby of the Ten Eyck hotel, a member of the association, dressed to represent Deacon "Hill" Moe of Croton, circulated among them. He approached Governor Hughes and other prominent guests, handing to each an envelope labeled "Don't get mixed with anybody else."

The banquet hall was decorated elaborately. One end of the room was reserved as a memorial to the "Old Guard." There was not a touch of red, white or blue on that wall. Instead it was hung with a black flag, having in the center a skull and cross bones.

Under the flag was the inscription, "It's better to nail the black flag to the masthead than to run up the white flag of surrender."

Near this were two other inscriptions, "The Old Guard dies, but never surrenders," and "Don't cheer, boys."

While the guests were trying to pay attention to some of the cantables, the lights went out, and there was a loud blare of horns, crashing of drums and rolls of thunder. Then in the blaze of a spot light appeared "Bwana Tumbo" in African costume, with a gun strapped across his shoulder. He announced emphatically that he would not have a "Return from Elba."

"Return from Elba," "They tell me Root is trying to bury Tim Woodruff," he said. "That is absurd, ridiculous. Woodruff has been dead so long it would be a waste of time."
A person representing himself as Elba Root was called upon to answer a few questions.

"What do you think will be the principal issue of the coming campaign?" he was asked.
"Trying to forget recent events," Mr. Root said after much thought.

Then followed a farewell address by Governor Hughes, impersonated by one of the members, in which he paid his respects to the bosses and politicians and predicted that they would all be turned out to grass as soon as his direct primary bill began working.

TEMPLE IMPROVING RAPIDLY

Victim of Automobile Accident Has Good Chance for Recovery

Harry Temple, who was seriously injured in a collision between his motorcycle and the automobile of M. L. Naquin, Wednesday evening, is improving rapidly at his home and according to reports received late last night, will recover from his injuries.

Although the young man bled internally after the accident, it was stated last night by Harry Temple, his father, that these hemorrhages had almost ceased and that it was believed that no serious internal injuries were caused when two wheels of the automobile passed over the young man's body. Temple was feeling much better last night and was able to give a detailed account of the affair. He holds that Mr. Naquin was not to blame for the accident, but that the collision was the outcome of a misunderstanding for which neither driver was directly to blame.

BROTHERS LOSE ALL AND SUICIDE

Kansas City Men Found on Banks of River After Several Weeks

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 7.—Financial losses incurred in a partnership brokerage firm, are believed to have caused the double suicide of Nels and C. W. Olsen, brothers, whose bodies were found on the banks of the Missouri river, three miles east of here today.

Their deaths, it appears, were deliberately planned. On January 28, following a series of reverses on the board of trade, the brothers left their apartments here and have not been seen alive since. After their departure, relatives said the men announced they "had lost all" and intended to kill themselves.

Rumors had it that their losses amounted to $100,000.

Two fishermen came upon the bodies today. They had been dead several weeks. Clutched tightly in the hand of one man was a revolver containing empty shells. The authorities say he may have shot his brother and then killed himself.

Could Not Prove Alibi

A lawyer whose practice seldom gets beyond the justice courts has caused many a laugh by his rather innocent way of asking leading questions intended to forewarn the witness how to answer. Of course these questions invariably are objected to by the state, but doubts they have won many cases for the lawyer. Upon one occasion a client became convinced that this lawyer was endangering his liberty and quickly took the case into his own hands, lost it and was sentenced to a term in jail. The story reminded a judge a few days ago, of how Mike Murphy defended himself against the charge of brutally assaulting a Chinaman. Mike had decided to defend himself when no lawyer in town would attempt it.

"You have no case," an attorney told him, "but if you have a friend to prove an alibi you might try it."
"I have Tim Maginnis," Mike replied.

"Very well. After the Chinaman has presented his case you call Maginnis and be sure to ask him 'Mr. Maginnis, where was I when the Chinaman was struck in front of the hotel?'"

When the hearing came on Mike waited his opportunity. At the proper moment he called Maginnis.
"Mr. Maginnis," he began, "do you understand the nature of an oath?"
"I think I do."

"Well, sir, this please tell the court where I was when I struck the Chinaman in front of the hotel?"
"Ye were home in bed," was the astonishing reply, but Mike's alibi failed.

"Bridget," began Mrs. Youngbride, timidly, "I don't suppose you would ever object to my getting an alarm clock—?"
"Not at all, ma'am," replied the lazy cook. "Them things never disturbs me at all."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Mademoiselle Dazie, a Well Known Dancer

This well known danseuse has brought suit for divorce from her husband M. A. Leuschner. The knowledge of this fact has caused considerable surprise, as they have been considered very happy in their marital relations. Mlle. Dazie and Mark Leuschner made one of the most interesting and most popular of all American theatrical married pairs. It was Mr. Leuschner who brought the talented dancer prominently before the public. According to current report, M. Leuschner has not entered a defense to his wife's complaint.

WINDOW GLASS MEN INDICTED

Charged That Price of Commodity Has Increased 60 Per Cent

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 7.—The Imperial Window Glass company, incorporated in West Virginia, and sixteen officials and directors, were indicted by a special federal grand jury here today on three counts, charging conspiracy in restraint of the hand-blown window glass trade; engagement in illegal competition and attempt to monopolize interstate trade. The officials are: President Myron L. Case of Maumee, Ohio; Vice President Healy of Bradford, Pa.; and Treasurer Sayre of Morgantown, W. Va.

The secretary of the company, B. R. Johnston of Pittsburg, was not named in the indictments.

He appeared as the principal witness for the government and may, it is said, be granted immunity.

The presentment, however, was based in part on the testimony of other witnesses. District Attorney Jordan said tonight that the price of window glass had increased about 60 per cent since the incorporation of the Imperial Window Glass company.

Westminster Abbey

The finances of Westminster abbey are in a very precarious condition. On the advent of Dean Bradley in 1882 the outer fabric was discovered to be in a fearfully dilapidated state, while the revenues of the abbey, mainly derived from landed property, were sinking lower and lower. It was a crisis, but fortunately it was met by so competent a minister as the late dean. While the revenues were placed on a secure foundation, they remained wholly inadequate, and an immense grant was made by the ecclesiastical commissioners to save the building. Today the abbey is staggering under a tremendous debt, while one of its canopies is suspended for an indefinite period.—Exchange.

tons, was tried out yesterday when the drivers of one of the biggest engines on the local line were placed in the machine to be tried up. The lathe worked almost automatically, turning out work which in the past could not be done in the local shops.
While the new machine can be used on wheels and axles alike, a separate axle lathe is also being installed. This machine is designed to dress down axles upon which the wheels have not been set and will also fill a long felt want.
Both machines were put in place only with difficulty, owing to their weight, several weeks being required in the work.
