Earnings of Married Women Are Property of Lord and Master

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 7.—That a married woman's earnings are community property and at the disposal of the husband, was the decision of the superior court today, adjudicating a peculiar domestic tangle.

The court added that whether the decision was just or not, it was the law of California. Mrs. Frances Hienke had sued her divorced husband for foreclosure of a mortgage. It developed that she lent him money on his property while still married to him, and he failed to settle.

CLEANING and DYEING

The lady or gentleman who has any kind of a garment that is "mussed" or soiled, will derive much satisfaction by letting us send for it and "making it look like new again." This sounds like an empty boast, but you'll find it is not if you give us a single trial. We are experts at this business and if the garment be too soiled to clean, we dye it any shade at a reasonable price. If it's in the fabric we'll restore it.
