

MIAMI DEPARTMENT

MIAMI, eleven miles from Globe, is now the terminal of the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern railway. It has a postoffice, express office, telegraph office and a three-trip-a-day train service with Globe. Three months ago Miami had one house; it now has two hundred. Miami has a population of 500. The population of Miami district is 2,000. In the Miami district are the Miami, Warrior, Inspiration, Keystone, Live Oak, Cordova, Boston-Miami, Cactus, Gibson, Duquesne, Schulze Group and Cole Development copper mines, with a capitalization of $30,000,000. Miami is the distributing point for these mines. The Miami mine now employs 600 men, with a monthly payroll of $75,000. The first month's freight receipts at Miami were over $40,000. Miami is growing rapidly. All lines of business are represented. It has a weekly newspaper, The Miami Messenger. Many business opportunities are still open. It is predicted that by January 1, 1911, the population will be 3,000.

GLOBE DEFEATED BY BOYS FROM THE HILL

Home Team Outclassed from Beginning to End of Gory Struggle

FOUR ERRORS EACH ARE CHALKED UP

Defeat of Home Team Will Probably Be Beneficial to Game

Outplayed at practically every stage of the game, the Globe baseball team was defeated for the first time this season Sunday afternoon, when the Copper Hill boys annexed a warm game by the score of 6 to 2.

The Globe boys managed to sneak in two runs in the second act, when Bosquet and McGraw circled. The lead of the locals was not held for long, however, for in the first half of the fourth, the visitors came back strong and tallied three times on one hit, Bosquet, Dent and Martz coming in mainly as the result of loose play.

In the sixth inning the visitors repeated their previous performance and scored three more runs, Brewer, Martz and Hudson coming in on three hits and some noise on playing on the part of the Globules.

In the nine innings Weisbecker and Rigby were touched for eleven bingles by the Globe boys, but these hits were scattered to such an extent that they were of little value. Copper Hill smashed the ball safely only six times, but the hits came when they were needed.

In the matter of errors, it was an even break, four each. Some of the misplays made by the locals ought to have been chalked up in the error column, but as the man who wrote the rule book could not make provision for misjudgment on the part of players, the misused column must stand as it is.

It is highly probable that Globe's defeat will be a benefit to the game. It shows that the locals are not invincible and as the result, more spirit both on the diamond and in the benches should show in the coming games. Sunday's crowd was up to the average, and the game was live enough to give all of the leather heads the worth of their money.

Causes Sickness

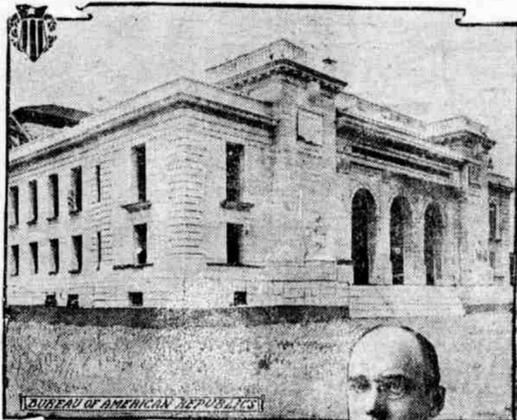

Good Health Impossible with a Disordered Stomach

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge every one suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine they are not satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 a box. John Barrett and New Bureau of American Republics Building

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.—John Barrett is a happy man. After years of work his dream is to be realized when President Taft assists in the dedication of the new bureau of republics building April 26. The work of the bureau of republics has gone ahead with such rapid progress and such good results have been secured that the dedication of the magnificent new building is to be a gala affair in which all the representatives of Central and South American republics will take an active part.

INDIAN BOY KILLED WHILE JUMPING ON TRAINS

Hazardous Pastime Proves Fatal to Little L. E. 9 Yesterday

Crushed beneath the wheels of the outgoing freight train yesterday morning, while amusing himself with the hazardous pastime of jumping on and off the train, L. E. 9, a young Indian boy, was so badly crushed about the right foot near the summit yesterday morning that he died from loss of blood before medical attention could be given him.

According to the train crew, a number of Indian boys played about the freight train yesterday morning, as it slowly climbed the grade toward the summit. L. E. 9 tried the trick once too often and fell beneath the wheels. One set of trucks passed over his right foot, crushing it to a pulp.

The boy was brought to Globe on a helper and taken to the county hospital. Here it was deemed advisable to amputate the member, but before the surgeons could carry out their program the boy died.

He was apparently uninjured, except about the right foot, the shock seeming to hasten the end.

Judge Hinson Thomas has called a coroner's inquest for today, at which time a more complete investigation regarding the cause of the young Indian's death will be made. The body will probably be buried soon after the inquest.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Globe

Around all day with an aching back; Can't rest at night; Enough to make any one "give out." Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.

They will cure the backache; Cure every kidney ill. Here is convincing proof that this is so:

J. A. Rees, Head House, Prescott, Ariz., says: "I still continue to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and on more than one occasion I have personally endorsed the claims made for them. Whenever anyone questions me regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, I say that I have found them to be a remedy that can be depended upon. I was troubled for some time by pains through my back, especially severe when I stooped or brought any strain on my loins. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. My advice to any person afflicted with kidney complaint is to give this splendid remedy a trial."

GENERAL ELECTIONS IN FRANCE LACK SENSATION

Majority of Voters Satisfied With the Present Administration

PREMIER BRIAND TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Record Clean and Capacity for Hard Work Is Amply Demonstrated

PARIS, April 25.—Were it not for the multi-colored election posters with which all public buildings and bulletin boards in Paris and everywhere throughout France are plastered over, visiting strangers would scarcely suspect that France is on the very eve of a general election. To be held tomorrow, with second ballots, where necessary to be cast on May 5. So little excitement is displayed by the public that one might be led to believe that politics in France were in a state of profound apathy. That is not so, however.

It is quit true that the election to be held tomorrow promises to be extremely quiet and uneventful, but this should not be interpreted as an indication that the voters take no interest in the issues and the final result of the election contest. The apparent apathy, aside from certain instances in which local issues have caused a mild form of excitement, may be accounted for by the fact that there is no contention between great issues before the country at this time.

The great majority of the voters is perfectly satisfied with the administration in power and does not wish a change. Premier Briand, as the successor of the able Clemenceau, has been at the helm of the government during a most trying period in the history of the republic. With admirable skill and infinite tact he avoided the dangerous rifts during the separation of church and state which accompanied. With unimpeachable firmness, but, at the same time, avoiding all unnecessary friction, he carried out the policy of the government and thus won the respect even of those who opposed the principle of separation.

M. Briand proved himself a man of exceptional ability, a statesman of shrewdness and perspicacity, a politician of tact and, above all, a thoroughly honest and fearless man and staunch republican. His political and administrative record is clean and above reproach and even the extremists of the opposition, the extreme socialists and ultra conservatives have no fault to find with M. Briand as a citizen or official. Therein lies his strength. Even the disclosures of the malodorous Dreyfus scandal, showing an almost incredible corruption in the administration of the church property expropriated by the state, did not weaken M. Briand's strength. Calmly he dismissed his enemies by pointing to the fact that it was he who, as minister of justice, had called attention to the corruption and had instituted a system of investigations, which led to the exposure of the frauds and defalcations. Thus the scandal itself and the severe punishment of the offenders, instead of weakening Briand's position, materially increased his prestige.

Although far from being an extremist, M. Briand originally came from the ranks of the socialists and two of the members of his cabinet, M. M. Millerand and Viviani, are declared socialists. This fact took the wind out of the sails of the extreme wing of the opposition and made effective parliamentary polemics between them and the government practically impossible. At the same time the moderation and conservatism manifested by the essentially bourgeois cabinet under M. Briand's leadership in carrying out its program has disarmed the extreme right, composed of the various Royalist elements. M. Briand is a hard and conscientious worker and has surrounded himself with men equally capable and willing to work indefatigably. His ability and resourcefulness during the critical time of the disastrous floods won him general esteem and his strong endorsement of proportional representation, which may be considered the main issue of tomorrow's election, will result in a victory for the government.

ARTHUR COLE GETS FINE POSITION AT CANANEA

Former Globe Man Is Promoted to Superintendency of Great Smelters

News was received in this city yesterday of the promotion of Arthur C. Cole, formerly of Globe, to the position of superintendent of all the reduction works of the Greene-Cananea Copper company, located at Cananea, Sonora, Mexico. Mr. Cole has a host of friends in Globe who will congratulate him on his rapid rise to prominence in the line of work in which he has specialized.

Arthur C. Cole was formerly employed in the office of the Old Dominion Copper Mining & Smelting company, for which he worked four years, at the time when Dr. L. D. Ricketts was in charge of the property. When Dr. Ricketts went to Cananea, Mr. Cole accepted a position with the Greene-Cananea company, with which he has remained ever since, serving in turn as metallurgical bookkeeper and assistant superintendent of the smelter.

His recent promotion is the natural consequence of his faithful and effective work in the past and of the resignation of Mr. Shelby, the former superintendent of the reduction works, who has just accepted a position in South America, which carries with it a salary of $75,000 a year. As Mr. Cole is only thirty years old, his rapid progress in reduction work is nothing short of phenomenal. He is the son of P. J. Cole of Globe, who is widely known throughout the territory as a mining man of exceptional experience and ability. A younger brother of Mr. Cole is now employed in the offices of the Old Dominion company.

The Greene-Cananea reduction works are probably the largest in the southwest, which fact in itself shows more clearly than could anything else the importance of the position to which Mr. Cole has succeeded as a reward of his inherent capability and his close application to his chosen life work.

The Need of an Expert

In every printing job, be it a letterhead or catalog, there is opportunity for the skill of the professional printer, distinctive from the blind, unthinking jumbling of type, paper and ink by the mechanical printer.

Too many buyers of printing worry themselves and waste their time vainly endeavoring to direct the production of their printing by the mechanical printer, or else with resignation accept what is given them, for better or for worse.

We are professional printers. Our personnel and equipment is equal to any or all the details of printing.

If you are not sure what you want, we can find the way. If you need an idea, we can furnish it. If you are too busy to begin, we can start with your desire and deliver the finished product.

It costs nothing to consult us, and we warrant it will pay.
