LOCAL ROUNDUPS.

Lock sometimes makes a name, but printers think so black and solemn. Will give a man peculiar fame. When put in this peculiar column.

G. A. R. Monday night.

DR. COGGIN and Amos Eakers, were in town on Saturday.

An extension has this week been made to the Pioneer Saloon.

A. H. WHEATSTONE, of Roswell, spent the Sabbath in White Oaks.

TOMLINSON is taking pictures of the pretty faces of the Roswellites.

We are indebted to Dr. Bearup for a nice lot of ducks sent us from Roswell.

COLE has returned. He says he was not on a hunt for a wife, but after other game.

The old Pioneer Saloon has been re-christened. It's name now is the "Cattle Exchange."

The saloon keepers of White Oaks, now religiously observe the Sabbath, and do not open front or back doors.

H. Huberty has sold out his bar fixtures to Mr. Littell, of White Oaks, who will remove them to that place.—Las Vegas News.

WEED has this week, been in receipt of more goods than were ever before received here in the same length of time. Where he finds room to store them is what perplexes us.

OUR Methodist readers will need no urging to peruse Bro. Monk's letter in this week's LEADER. The Conference removed him from us. We also append the list of appointments.

W. J. SANDERS, the ranchman, long a resident of this county, and who recently sold his possessions to the Carizzo Cattle Co., has located at Chloride, this Territory.

A. H. WHEATSTONE went out from White Oaks on Monday last, to survey, on a government contract, T. S. R 17 E, north of, and extending up on Capitan mountain, east of Cienega del Macho.

BIDS WANTED—Bids for sinking a shaft on "Helen Ray" mine, Nogal, will be received by the undersigned until December 1st, 1887. Specifications furnished upon application.
E. W. PARKER.

Two marriages were solemnized at Nogal since our last paper was printed. D. C. Nowlin, County School Superintendent was married to Miss Laura Leonard, and David N. Tinnon was wedded to Miss Le Lone. Not being provided with particulars, we cannot further particularize.

On Monday of last week, Mrs. Emma Hightower, wife of D. B. Hightower, of Manchester, was delivered of a healthy child, at the residence of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Eakers, Bonito. On Saturday night the mother died, aged but 18 years. The deceased was a lovely and lovable woman, and her death has cast a shadow on hearts which time will never efface. She leaves two infant children who will never grieve as a mother's love.

THERE are many who think the managing stockholders of the White Oaks Academy have been very slow—indeed some think the educational structure should have been ready for occupancy by this time. They little think of the time essential to secure a proper site, and then to be possessed of legal title thereto. The Association have now secured a picturesque site on the eminence in the centre, and on the north side of town, with its eastern corner bordering on Pine Street, but it was not until this week, that all necessary title papers were conveyed. The site is one of two acres, or about 420 feet square. This is a hard year for grumblers, and we trust each succeeding one will be worse still.

ALL kinds of weather were provided our people on Thanksgiving Day. At one time old Sol would show his face with such warmth as to suggest dusters; then he would hide his face and shivering humanity would seek overcoats. At night it rained and hailed, until finally Cynthia assumed authority, and putting on her prettiest front, provided a beauteous heavenly landscape. There were two entertainments in town—one for the benefit of the Congregational Church, the other for that of the K. of P. The Church cleared about $100. One gentleman paid $50 for his supper. We would mention his name, but perhaps it would not be well (s), so refrain. At the K. of P. dance, 57 couple reported and $57 went into the exchequer. A grand supper was given at Brothers' about the hour of "twal," which was partaken of by about 50 couple. All in all, the day and night were made enjoyable.

OUR School Board have officially announced that on next Monday the public school will open, with Miss B. O. Rencher as teacher. We apprehend trouble will grow out of this resolve, inasmuch as the School Board contemplate having the school in the Town Hall, whereas the Academy Board claim to have the Hall rented until the 1st of January. Pity that there should be a clash—but clashing seems to be fashionable hereabouts.

Nov. 16, 1887.

At the first annual meeting of the stockholders of the White Oaks Academy Association, the following stockholders were elected directors for the ensuing term: W. C. McDonald, John Y. Hewitt, E. W. Parker, S. B. Schronz, L. W. Stewart, U. Ozane, T. W. Heman.

OUR local barber has furnished his shop in the Billiard Hall, in gorgeous Eastern style, with large mirrors, marble top washstand, douches, etc. Then he handles his razors and scissors like playthings. He is an expert in his business.

JUST as we go to press, THEAT & SCHELL received from St. Louis, an Irish Bat. From the rarity of the bird in this section, it will doubtless attract many visitors at the meat shop of the firm, where it will be on exhibition this Saturday.

THE legal firm of Barber & Richardson, Lincoln, has dissolved, and each of the old partners will henceforth paddle his own canoe.

THE word Anarchist, means "opposed to kingcraft." It is from two Greek words, "an" meaning "no" and "archon" a "ruler"

IT is not a difficult task to discover rare talent in young ladies whose parents are wealthy.

RICHLY REWARDED are those who read this and then act; they will find honorable employment that will not take them from their homes and families. The profits are large and sure for every industrious person; many have made and are now making several hundred dollars a month. It is easy for anyone to make $5 and upwards per day, who is willing to work. Either sex, young or old; capital not needed; we start you. Everything new. No special ability required; you, reader, can do it as well as any one. Write us at once for full particulars which we mail free. Address GEORGE BRISSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

THE girls here are wild to know how best to employ their evenings the present fall and coming winter. Buring our late trip, we struck one of our old towns where the same craze was epidemic. They (the girls,) had made one experiment, which we cannot refrain from exposing, inasmuch as the dear creatures cannot reach our hair. They introduced a game which they facetiously called "hard times," the principal feature of which is the calling in of the uninitiated one by one and mimicking them in everything they say and do. Of course it makes the victim feel very foolish and it is some time, usually, before the victim tumbles to the fact that the point of the game, which he is looking for don't exist, and that he is simply being made sport of. At the party in question the initiated were mostly girls—some of them prim and prudish and some of them hearty and giggly. After doing up several victims a young fellow who didn't understand the game, but who was anything but green, was called in. He was mystified for a moment, as the girls proceeded to imitate his actions, but he was suddenly seized with an idea and walked across the room to a chair. The girls each walked to a chair, and watching him with arch and eager expectancy, prepared to duplicate his next act. But they didn't. He placed his foot on the chair, and pulling a match quickly from his pocket, ignited it by drawing it skillfully and vigorously across the seat of his pants! Some of the girls were shocked, some of them giggled, and all of them blushed; but they united in telling the young man that they guessed he knew the game and that he could be excused.

We only publish this as a pointer to our girls not so introduce "hard times" as a diversion in White Oaks this winter.
