

The following circular letter to farmers of the country has been issued by Dr. S. A. Knapp, special agent in charge of the Farmers' Cooperative Demonstration Work...

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Plant Industry, Farmers' Demonstration Work, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1909.

To Agents in Boll Weevil Territory: Dear Sir—Reports have reached our office covering the effect of the recent heavy rains on cotton in boll weevil districts.

Of course the heavy rains have been favorable to the weevil, and nothing else could have been expected in weevil territory than that the weevil should appear and be rather plentiful on the young cotton. But our experience in this boll weevil fight is that it is far better to have a wet period at this time than later, when the plant is much larger and the squares more numerous.

We are not afraid of these early rains; it is the late rain, because if the planter now follows our plan and picks up the squares for a month, the weevils will be pretty nearly exterminated. In fact, if everybody would do it the weevil would do very little damage.

The greatest problem with which we have to deal in boll weevil territory is the hopeless view of the farmer. He wants to plow up his cotton and put in something else, or he refuses to give his cotton the attention which it requires.

We are sending you 25 copies of Circular No. 'A' 51, as per sample attached. If you wish more please order.

Very truly, S. A. KNAPP, Special Agent in Charge.

The License Law.

The collection of privilege license for the pursuit of any of several certain vocations and professions has not been enforced in Tensas parish before as the Tax Collector had not been required to make collection from this source.

Hon. John Hughes, Sheriff and Tax Collector, St. Joseph, La.

Dear Sir—The records of the Auditor's office show that in many parishes of the State Act No. 171 of 1898, known as the License law, is not rigidly enforced.

I have in mind, in particular, Section No. 14 which empowers physicians, attorneys-at-law, dentists, oculists, editors, photographers, jewelers, and so on. This section also affects certified public accountants, midwives, veterinarians, in fact, any one practicing a profession of any kind.

The law requires that a graduated license shall be issued and provides for the manner in which the same shall be granted.

As all unpaid licenses become delinquent on the 1st day of March, immediate steps should be taken to enforce this law wherever it is necessary.

It is hardly necessary for me to remind you that the Governor has appointed a special attorney in each parish whose duty it is to collect delinquent licenses.

Where no special attorney has been appointed it is the duty of the District Attorney to take the necessary action.

Please advise as to any difficulties in the way of your enforcing this law.

Yours very truly, A. M. SMITH, Traveling State Auditor.

Infalible Remedy for Ailments Common to Hogs.

To all engaged in raising hogs the following prescription furnished Mr. Albert Bondurant by the Agricultural Experiment Station of this State will be of interest.

THE REMEDY. 6 bushels of corn cob charcoal or 3 bushels common charcoal.

8 pounds of common salt, 2 quarts air slacked lime, 1 bushel of wood ashes.

Break the charcoal down with shovel or other instrument and thoroughly mix, then 1 1/4 pounds copperas (sulphate of iron), dissolve in hot water and with an ordinary watering pot sprinkle the contents over the whole mass, and again mix thoroughly.

Mr. Bondurant has tried the above mixture and as a result has cured all hogs that were sick and has since had no recurrence of disease.

The above may be used as a preventive as well as a cure. Where any sickness appears it is safe to use the above remedy.

St. Joseph was thrown into excitement last night when the fire bell was rung and the news spread that Mr. Davidson's automobile house was on fire.

This incident proves conclusively the abject need of a fire bell on the Court House square. In this section there is no way by which the fire alarm can be sounded, and its neglect may some time—some dark, dreary night—be dearly paid for.

Miss Marian Curry entertained on Wednesday evening last at Six-handed Euchre in honor of Miss Steen's guests. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the evening were Misses Albia Cooper, Hazel Willis, Amalia Steen, Eliza Whitney, Inez Losey, Marjorie Davidson, Messrs. J. S. Rodriguez, E. S. Newton, J. E. Byram, Ernest L. Watson, Jos. M. Davidson, and Dr. Jas. M. Adams.

The attention of the interested is called to the advertisement of Mrs. Larcade, 849 Camp Street, New Orleans, who offers her established boarding house for sale.

The Cumberland Telephone Co. has announced its determination to rebuild the entire line on the M., H. & L. with heavy copper wire to Arkansas line.

Rev. P. H. Fontaine of the M. E. Church will preach at Newellton regularly on the morning of the fifth Sunday and the night of the first Thursday.
