Some years ago Mr. Riley was elected Police Justice of Natchez, his administration being eminently satisfactory and reflecting greatest credit on himself for his unflinching courage in the enforcement of law and order. He did not stand for re-election to this office, and which was later abolish, but became a candidate for district attorney, to which he was elected by a handsome man but the success of the policy in Congress may be secure against the man who leaves his job to mend his fences, but Mr. Underwood's pleasant experience in Alabama does not prove that the happy

MR. UNDERWOOD WINS.

Representative Underwood's elecion to Alabama's vacant senatorship, conceded by his opponent early yesterday, will be cordially approved by most outsiders who have watched the contest. First of all, the Democratic floor leader had earned promotion by twenty years able service in the House. His qualifications were undenied. He had to face attack on a collateral issue magnified by his opponent out of all due pro-Waterproof on next Friday, 17th portion. He conceived it to be his duty as Democratic floor leader to night sessions will be held. Promistick to his work in the House, while son Snowden, State Agent, U. S. won by a handsome majority in Department of Agriculture, Farm these circumstances is a tribute not Department of Agriculture, Parish these circumstances is a result alone to his own worth and strength but to the good judgement and com mon sense of Alabama's voters.

As a Senator, Mr. Underwood should give a good account of him self from the beginning of his ner career. He "knows the game" to it The Gazette has noted with pleasure and pride the announcemement of the probable canidacy of Hon-Marian W. Riley, of Natchez, for Governor of Mississippi. Mr. Riley lived for some years in Tensas parish, where he was in the employ of Mr. E. L. Collins, at Goldman, and was a most useful and popular citizen. Leaving Tensas he took up the study of law and graduated with distinction at the University of Missiscipies.

he was elected by a handsome majority over two very formidable opponents. That he has performed the duties of this responsible place to the utmost satisfaction of his entire district and absolutely without fear was in universally acknowledged. district and absolutely without fear or favor is universally acknowledged A campaigner of wonderful energy, and a man of unquestioned ability and great force of character, Mr. Riley would make great and lasting impression on the electorate of his State, and if called to the high office of Chief Executive of the great State of Mississippi his people would never have cause to regret his elevation
