Baton Rouge, La.,
July 19, 1922.

Hon. D. F. Miller, President,
Tensas Parish School Board,
Waterproof, La.

Dear Sir:
I beg to advise that an examination has just been made of the accounts of Superintendent C. L. Barrow for the six months ending June 30, 1922, which proved the correctness of the following totals:

General Fund.
Balance January 1, 1922.....$ 4,342.28
Receipts during six months.....$ 67,522.28
Total.....$ 71,864.56
Disbursements same period.....$ 69,903.57
Balance June 30, 1922.....$ 1,960.99

Please Note The Following:
March 3—$34 Kullman Bros.....$ 10.10
This appears to be a duplicate payment of Check No. 141 January 3rd. If so, the amount should be refunded.

Special School District No. 1, Bond and Interest Account.
Balance January 1, 1922.....$ 1,450.93
Receipts during six months.....$ 2,860.89
Total.....$ 4,311.82
Disbursements same period.....$ 1,339.36
Balance June 30, 1922.....$ 2,972.46

The vouchers pertaining to this account were found satisfactory. Coupons No. 5 from Bonds Nos. 45 and 46 were not submitted with this report.

Special School District No. 1—3 Mill Construction Account.
Balance January 1, 1922.....$ 958.18
Receipts during six months.....$ 9,481.99
Total.....$ 10,440.17
Disbursements same period.....$ 9,959.42
Balance June 30, 1922.....$ 480.75

The disbursements here show the sum of $95.03 paid the Parish Treasurer for Assessor's commission, which is an overpayment of $7.74, the correct amount being $77.29.

The Bond and Interest account paid the Assessor only $35.64, whereas it should have paid $46.38, an underpayment of $7.74. The Bond and Interest Account, therefore, should reimburse the Building Fund with this amount.

This fund is due the Tax Account the sum of $864.73, which has never been paid back. This should be done as soon as sufficient funds are available.

All vouchers are returned to the Superintendent, and for his information, a copy of this letter is sent him.

Yours very truly,
W. N. McFARLAND,
Supervisor of Public Accounts.

The revival meeting being conducted at St. Joseph by Rev. H. W. Cudd is being well attended, despite the very warm and rainy weather. Rev. Cudd is doing all the preaching but is being assisted in the singing by Mr. Otis Sparks, of Mansfield, La. Mr. Sparks has had four years experience in singing for protracted meetings and his addition to the service is proving quite an asset.

and the growing attendance at each service since his arrival has been noticeable. Both Rev. Cudd and Mr. Sparks are earnest workers in the Lord's vineyard and much good can be expected from these services. We do not always agree with all the minister says, neither up nor down, but we agree with all we say, but we repeat we hope to see much good come of this.

CASE-SMITH.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the Union Church, St. Joseph, about 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning, 17th August, the Rev. H. W. Cudd officiating, when Miss Fannie Chew Smith became the bride of Mr. Theodore Vance Case.

Despite the early morning hour the church was filled with friends of the bride and groom, including some from a distance, eager to witness their happy union. Their approach was heralded by the rendition of a beautiful solo "Because" by Mr. A. M. Smith, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. J. C. Macpherson, which was followed by the wedding march, rendered by Miss Marjorie Goodwine, as the bride entered the church on the arm of the groom, preceded by the two ushers, Mr. Fred Smith, brother of the bride, and Mr. L. H. Cook, who took positions on either side of the couple, as they stood at the altar, presenting a most beautiful picture of Youth with all its gilded promises. Here the impressive ritual service of the Methodist-Episcopal Church, south, was read by the pastor, who used the double ring ceremony, uniting these two young lives together, "for better or for worse."

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom retired to the chancel of the church, where they held an informal reception and were made recipients of many good wishes by every one present, and leaving the sacred edifice they departed by automobile for the railroad station to take the 7:30 passenger for points in the Ozark Mountains, where they will spend a delightful honeymoon before returning to Homer, La., where they will make their future home.

The groom, Mr. Case, is a popular and successful young business man of Homer, who has won the confidence and respect of all friends because of his manliness and devotion to duty; the bride is youngest daughter of the late Mr. P. C. Smith and Mrs. Jessie Skinner Smith of this parish. She is a native of Texas and is loved by all who know her for her sweet disposition and true womanly worth.

The Gazette joins many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Case in wishing them all happiness in life.

Mr. Jno. T. Brent and bride, of Mississippi, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brent, at Locust Land. Mr. Brent is a graduate of the A. & M. College at Starkville, Miss., and has been engaged in trucking on more or less large scale in South Mississippi, where this business has been most profitable, and he believes could be made a success in this parish. If sufficient encouragement were offered him he would locate here and give our people the benefit of his expert information along this line, including fruit growing, which also has assumed respectable proportions in the section where he has lived. He cited a number of cases where five hundred dollars and more was made from one acre of ground grown in tomatoes and other vegetables with intensified cultivation. At Crystal Springs, Miss., the past season, the section for some fifteen or twenty miles contiguous realized so handsomely on truck and fruit that the banks of that little city showed deposits in excess of two million dollars, sales from daily shipments sometimes crowding one hundred thousand dollars. He believes this parish offers great possibilities to the truck grower, from the fact that less fertilizer is necessary to this soil than used on the Mississippi soil, where possibly as much as fifty dollars per acre is sometimes spent to secure best results. With us that expense will be negligible, as our soil requires very little stimulant. If any of our people are interested in the scheme Mr. Brent will be glad to discuss the matter.

Mr. Ernest Weinfield of New Orleans, the talented pianist, who has visited here before, is again the guest of Mr. Alex Blackman. Mr. Weinfield is truly one of the most skilled musicians we have ever heard play and it is indeed a treat to hear him. We are sure he will enjoy his stay with us.

Mr. J. U. Musick of St. Louis is a week-end visitor to St. Joseph and Tensas parish. Mr. Musick is engaged in real estate and is looking over some Tensas lands with view of interesting some prospects, who evince great faith in Louisiana and are looking this way for investment. Mr. Musick will be represented here by Mr. Edgar W. Whittemore.

On Friday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Joe Whitaker entertained the young people at a delightful five hundred party. Despite the rainy afternoon all were present, and a number of very exciting games were played. The first prize was won by Miss Dorothy Hendon and the consolation by Miss Evelyn Payne of Natchez. Delicious refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I wish to announce, at this early date, that I expect to conduct a coal yard at St. Joseph this winter and will be prepared to fill all orders for coal. Would be glad to have orders placed with me as early in advance of the season as possible, that I may form an idea of number of cars I will have to order.

It is my purpose to sell coal at closest figures practical on cash basis. Trusting to be favored with your order, I am,

Yours truly,
C. R. DARDEN.

St. Joseph, La., August 18, 1922.

A CARD.

Having been asked the question several times if I expect to handle coal this winter, as usual, I wish to make the announcement that it is my intention to handle coal again this winter just as I have been doing for years. At present, due to the coal strike, it is difficult to say just when I can expect a shipment for the probable price obtaining. I will say, however, that I have assurance from my people that my orders will be filled as soon as the situation clarifies somewhat, and my local customers can depend on my filling their orders without fail.

Respeaking continued patronage, and thanking my friends for past favors, I am,

Very truly yours,
HOLMAN L. SMITH.

St. Joseph, La., August 18, 1922.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF.

Victoria, B. C., July 22.—"Twin" suns fifty-two quadrillion miles from earth, have been discovered by Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the Dominion of Canada's astrophysical observatory here, through the observatory's big 72-inch reflector telescope, it was announced today.—News Dispatch.

In the light of past history, this great discovery of Dr. Plaskett is really not so remarkable. Not many years back equally as strange discoveries were made in the United States. One astronomer gave to the world the results of his investigations in the following convincing manner: "One eve, as I walked the streets, far after the setting of the sun I beheld—strangely enough—two moons where there should have been but one."

It was in the days before the war, ere the 18th's work began; But it seems strange even now why there were two moons instead of one."

We are told that the home-made brand does not produce such astronomical effects, hence it is not strange that far better observations of this character may be made in Canada than in the United States. In our country the effect produced is of a much less romantic nature; the drinker imagines he is tasting dead snakes, frogs, bugs, and the like, and he is far more justified in his conclusions than the less practical drinker of Canada.—Port Gibson Revue.

WEBS ON TREES NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

In certain parts of Louisiana the appearance of silken webs on various trees is attracting attention. This web resembles that spun by certain spiders and in some cases is so thick as to cover trunks and branches of the trees with a silken film, though the foliage is green and healthy.

This silk is spun by a small insect known as a webber. It is a close relative of the so-called "book louse," a tiny pale insect often found among the pages of old books. While the book louse is to be considered a pest, because it feeds on paper, the webber feeds on lichens and its presence on trees should not cause apprehension, according to Theo. H. Jones, entomologist of the Experiment Stations, Louisiana State University.

The webber feeds under the silken webs which they spin though they may not be found on parts of the tree where the silk is most noticeable. This is usually due to the fact that by the time the insects have spun a large amount of silk on any portion of the tree their food at this particular point has been exhausted and they move to better feeding grounds.
