

GOLDSTEIN & MIGEL

OUR PRESENTS

FOR A LADY.

A Handsome Shawl or Scarf,
A Cloak, a Wrap, Jacket or Jerseys,
An Elegant Dress Pattern,
Fine Handkerchief, Hosiery or Gloves,
Set Table Damask and Napkins to match,
500 other Things at half usual Prices.

For a Gentleman.

Fine Silk Umbrella, God Head, only $1.75,
Very Fine Silk Umbrellas, Gold Handles, $2.50 to $3.00,
Fine Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves and Hosiery,
Cuff Buttons, Scarf Pins and other Jewelry,
Collar and Cuff Boxes, and Fancy Sets,
Fine Embroidered Night Shirt,
Silk Mufflers and Wrist Warmers.

Presents for the People at Popular Prices.

Bisque Figures.
Terra Cottas.
Brick-a-Brac.
Albums.

Artificial Fruit.
Writing Sets.
Vases and Stands.
Smokers' Stands, Etc.

Big Drive in Toboggan Caps.

OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK.

GOLDSTEIN & MIGEL.

The Great Bankruptcy.

The bankruptcy of Eaton, Guinan & Co., has been the biggest commercial event which Waco has enjoyed for some years. It is, considering the number of creditors and their impartial distribution, an event of national importance, and from a legal point of view is a case of charmingly pretty complications. The News which always keeps its readers well posted on current local events has given pretty fully the successive episodes in the great event and now puts up in a brief summary, devoid of technical terms and in language simple and concise, a review of the great failure. The creditors of Eaton, Guinan & Co. were scattered all over the country and the deed of trust given for W. W. Seley and other preferred creditors fell like a thunder-clap. The deed of trust conveyed all the goods of Eaton, Guinan & Co., to Mr. John F. Marshall, trustee, and to Eugene Early, another trustee, to pay preferred claims, and these two took possession of the goods, under the trust. Then other creditors, who had been left out in the cold, tried to push their way to the fire, trying to become in rem instead of in re and levied attachment on trust goods, trusting to luck to make them stick. The trustees replevied the goods, giving bond and hold the goods in trust for the preferred creditors, the other creditors who attached trusting to the trustees to make something over that due the preferred creditors to pay them something, the remaining creditors trusting to luck. Then Kaufman & Runge of Galveston, who were among the unhonored creditors, sued out an injunction to restrain W. W. Seley, Hamilton Bros. and all others from collecting, paying over, negotiating or otherwise doing anything about any assets of Eaton, Guinan & Co., and Judge Williams, dissolving the injunction as to Mr. W. W. Seley, made it perpetual as to the others and appointed a master and receiver.

The trustees are now busily engaged in realizing for the preferred creditors, and master and receiver will soon be collecting the flotsam and jetsam for Kaufman & Runge and others. The total indebtedness of the preferred creditors, it is thought, will be paid in full, and the attaching creditors will come in next, according to priority of attachment. Mr. W. W. Seley is reasonably well secure on the sale of goods, and has in addition as collateral, a deed to a house and lot worth $3,300, while, if enough is realized out of the goods to pay him in full, Kaufman & Runge will get the house and lot. Summarizing this summary in brief, Mr. W. W. Seley will get his money, the trustees, master and receiver will get reasonable pay for their services, lawyers will also turn a penny, the attaching creditors have a show of color in their pans, while the remainder of the creditors will look over the acceptance due with the bitter feelings of a young fellow standing out in the snowy street while another fellow is hugging his best girl in the warm parlor.

We hope the reader catches on to this explanation, but we have grave doubts. We set out with confidence and the best intentions, to follow the labyrinthine maze but confess that we may have turned a wrong corner somewhere. The whole thing sounds hollow; we have got out of our depth in the mighty catacomb where the bones of Eaton, Guinan & Co.'s creditors lie bleaching. There is only one guide to the mysteries and when Geo. Clark dies, may he live forever; no foot will ever tread again the labyrinthine mazes of the tombs of the Pharaohs.

MARRIAGE

And Arrested Under Two Charges Immediately Following.

Mr. Geo. P. Diehl was married this morning at 11:30, at the residence of and by the Rev. V. G. Cunningham, and the newly married pair retired to the home of the newly made bride, a widow lady with one child, a boy. At 12 o'clock Mr. Diehl was arrested by Constable Lee Jenkins on two complaints, one preferred by Mr. W. S. Heard, charging swindling, and the other by his step son, charging him with aggravated assault and battery. Diehl was placed in jail. An interview was had with him by a News reporter and his report of both cases would exonerate him in both cases. According to his account he was running a lunch stand on a salary for and in the name of Mr. C. W. Baker, who authorized him, he says, to buy goods for the stand; that he bought goods of Mr. Heard in the name of Mr. Baker and that Mr. Baker when presented with the bill repudiated the transaction. The bill, he says, was presented to him, and he explained the circumstances without avail. In regard to the charge of assault and battery, he says he whipped the boy whom, he says, is incorrigible, at the request of the mother, whom the mother was in vain attempting to correct, when the boy ran away and swore a warrant against him.

Sensational Charges.

A warrant charging a well known newspaper reporter of this city with misappropriation of twenty dollars of money drawn to pay election judges and clerks of the second ward, was issued from a justice court this morning. During the afternoon a telegram was received by Constable Lee Jenkins from San Antonio, saying that the party had been arrested and asking that the warrant be sent on. It is with great pain we write this, but with the hope the entire affair may prove a case of misapprehension.

Sensational Complaint.

Some weeks ago, while County Attorney Blair was busied in the attendance on the district court, Mr. D. H. Hardy Esq. was employed by him to attend to cases in the justice courts, and it is said was instructed to prefer charges against certain persons for professional gambling and to cause their arrest. It is charged that during that time he saw the gamblers, apprised them of his instructions and proposed to them to forego complaint and that he was paid one hundred dollars by them, from a contribution made up for that purpose. To-day a complaint was made against him by the county attorney on the charge of "Compounding crime," and later in the day he was arrested under the complaint. We understand that Mr. Hardy has repeatedly denied the charge and that he still bitterly denies it and charges that it is a bold attempt at blackmail. He is entitled to be held innocent, which we trust he may be able to establish.

A. S. HABER'S

SPLENDID BARGAINS
— IN —
PLAIN AND FANCY
DRESS GOODS.
TRIMMINGS TO MATCH.

CHOICE BARGAINS
— IN —
Ladies' Underwear.
Prices to Astonish You in Cloak Department.

Ladies' 4-ply Linen Collar 5c.

SPECIAL DRIVES
— IN —
FLANNELS
— IN THE —
TALK OF THE CITY.
Gentlemen's Underwear
— IN —
Our Grand Bargains

Our Hosiery and Glove Department cannot be excelled.

A. S. HABER.

IN THE BANKRUPT STOCK
— OF —

Messrs. EATON, GUINAN & CO
THERE ARE 20,000 POUNDS

FANCY CANDIES

AND AN IMMENSE LOT OF

FIREWORKS

All fresh and new. These goods must be sold regardless of cost during the present month. If you have any use for Christmas goods at all, it will pay you to examine them or send an open order.

ALSO THE LARGEST STOCK OF CIGARS, TOBACCO AND GROCERIES,
GENERALLY, EVER THROWN ON THE WACO MARKET AT COST.

Terms Cash.

JOHN F. MARSHALL, TRUSTEE.

Waco, Tex., December 14, 1888.

HOLIDAY GOODS

The Largest of Everything in the Men's Furnishing Goods Line.

FORSYTHE & COREY.
AUSTIN AVENUE.

AFTERNOON NOTES.

Continued fine weather and a merry Christmas.

Some of the stores are doing a rattling business and better is yet to come.

Before selecting your Christmas presents call on E. P. LeDoux, for prices. His stock of jewelry is complete, and prices low, 403 Austin ave.

That music box at the White Elephant is a daisy and those who have not seen it should drop in to-day.

The unfortunate man who came near dying yesterday from nervous prostration induced by intemperance, is better to-day.

Waco has one or two men who would make splendid cabinet officers in case Harrison should find a lack of proper material elsewhere. They are good democrats but none the less statesmen.

Clothing was never so cheap in Waco before as it is now. There is positively no tangible reason for a man going without pants when good jeans can be bought for a dollar a pair or without boots, when they are sold for a dollar apiece.

A wedding took place this morning at 11:30, and a few hours later the bridegroom was arrested by Constable Lee Jenkins, on the charge of swindling and assault and battery. The charge of assault and battery was made for alleged mistreatment of a step child.

One Lizzie Bennet was tried this morning, for loud cursing in a public place, found guilty and fined $5.00 in Justice Harrison's court. Swearing is not the worst of crimes, but it has its rules of etiquette. It is one of those things which are best done in quiet and privacy, and in a low tone, being offensive to many people.

Bronze Turkeys were once a rare bird. To-day from a wagon, Mr. Joe Thompson bought among a large lot two magnificent large turkey gobblers, one was sold to Mr. Ed Toby, who shipped it to his father in New Orleans and the other was purchased by Mr. J. H. Stargis, who will use it for Christmas culinary purposes.

Messrs. Council & Franklin, we learn, will soon open a large job printing establishment in Waco. Their card states that they will print brilliant color and illuminated advertising cards, ledgers, renewal cards, memorandum books, and other fine lines of printing.

Happy is the man on whose groaning table on Christmas day shall repose the unctuous turkey with legs turned skyward, his body filled with savory oyster dressing, and his brawny breast tempting the knife, while the bloated traditional plum pudding side by side with its aromatic brandy sauce patiently wait their turn, but let us not forget the turkeyless tables and the empty plates—which no plum pudding blesses.

Special attention is called to No. 403 Austin ave. Mr. LeDoux's complete stock of fine jewelry, consisting of diamonds, watches, bronzes, imported and brass clocks, fine silverware &c. He tells us that he is overstocked and in order to reduce it, he will sell at a great reduction during December. He will not be undersold.

Sweethearts and wives, get a box of cigars for your lovers and husbands at DeWells.

Mitchell, 402 Austin avenue.

JONES & GOODLOE,

407 AUSTIN AVENUE.

MEN'S AND BOYS' FINE CLOTHIERS

HATTERS AND FURNISHERS,

Sole Agents for the Dunlap Hats.

Leather Valises a Specialty.

JONES & GOODLOE.

PERSONALS.

Mr. W. H. Cameron, goes to Cameron, Tex., to-day on business.

Mr. H. P. Hughes, general agent of the M. K. & T. for Texas, is in the city.

Mr. St. John of Austin is in the city on a visit to his sister Mr. Geo. Clark.

Mr. T. H. Kingsley, Texas passenger agent for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, is in the city.

Miss Linda White, of Dallas, visiting the family of Dr. J. C. J. King, will remain till after the holidays.

Officer Wadel, who has been confined to the house for a week, by afflicted eyes is out on the street again to-day.

Col. J. U. Vincent, editor and proprietor of the Bosque Citizen is in the city on a short visit. He leaves for Meriden to-night.

Mr. W. H. Neil of the Dublin Telephone, is in the city and in company with Col. Vincent, paid the News a pleasant call this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Kennedy of South Eighth street are the happy parents of a fine boy baby. May it grow up to be an honor to its estimable parents.

Mr. J. G. Grant, of the Queen and Crescent, is in the city. He thinks that very soon the Q. & C. will at an early day extend its line through to the far west, running through Shreveport, Palestine and Waco.

Mr. M. E. Sullivan Esq., who has been in the city for a year past in the interest of Boston heirs and assignees in the great, Hanrick vs. Hanrick, land case, leaves for Boston this afternoon for a holiday trip.

Dr. W. A. Osborne, of Axtell, well known in Waco, was in the city to-day. The Doctor did not come in to subscribe for the News, but being in he did subscribe. The Doctor's brains weigh at least twenty ounces.

A Letter.

House-keepers, bear in mind "money saved is money made." Why stay in old ruts when you can live on the fat of the land? For instance, we sell Cutting and Lusk's three-pound goods (assorted) for $2.00 per dozen. Did you ever hear of such a thing? We have everything you can call for. Our morning tourist, Mr. Adams, mounted upon a fleet mustang, will take your order. If you phone us our Mr. Brown will, while wrapping up goods, hook his ear over the wire and register your order. And we will deliver with dispatch, care and neatness.

Respectfully,

JAMES R. ROBINSON.

Waco, Dec. 10, '88.

At four o'clock this afternoon a team of massive horses attached to a farm wagon and driven by a little boy with a lady in the wagon, took fright at the corner of Fifth street and ran up Franklin street at a rate which threatened a serious accident. Fortunately the wagon collided with nothing and was checked up by men in the street at the corner of Eighth street and run on the sidewalk without damage. The boy fell out as the team turned, but landed safely after a few acrobatic tumbles, in which his heels and head were mixed in the air and dust. The boy in the wagon set off some fire-crackers while riding along, which caused the team to take fright.

Died.

Last evening at 8:20, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. N. B. Sligh, Mrs. Susan D. Swinton, of pneumonia, aged 68. The funeral services took place at 2 p. m. to-day from the family residence, corner Third and Mary streets, Rev. M. A. Bourland, officiating. The remains will be shipped to Montgomery, Texas, for burial.

Jim, the Penman again to-night. It is one of the finest plays on the stage.

All who are in the notion of dying call on Dod Leetle Franchman.

Telephone De Well for fine candies.

Important.

If you want the best and only reliable weather strip that's made for protection against cold, dust and rain buy Browne's patent metallic, at Horefull & Cameron's. Exclusive agents for Waco.

Best turn-outs in town at Molder & Hearne's.

Go to the Silver Moon for well served meals.

Buy your candies at Joe Lehman's south 4th street.

Consign all goods to I. C. Meek & Co., 318 Austin street.

Best meals served to order at Joe Lehman's restaurant.

Jewelry of the finest and latest designs, at LeDoux's, 403, Austin ave.

First-class carriages for calls, visits, etc., at Molder & Hearne's.

We are selling side boards as cheap as $14.00. Waco Furniture Company

Fresh crop cranberries at Joe Thompson's 4th and Franklin street.

The Waco Furniture company's window display is simply immense.

C. Hyman for cigars and tobacco. Fruits of all kinds, Louis Lippman, manager.

A demand for household goods at Meek & Co.'s commission house, 318 Austin street.

Nothing but bargains offered at Meek & Co.'s, commission house, 318 Austin st.

Leave orders for roses, plants, fruit and ornamental trees at Perry's Pacific hotel block.

The quail is transformed from his natural beauty to a delicious dish at the Silver Moon.

If you want a fine livery turnout patronize Molder & Hearne's, north side of the public square.

Watches and Jewelry repairing, Diamond mounting and Engraving at E. P. LeDoux, 403 Austin avenue.

My store will be open every night 10 o'clock until after the holidays. Mrs. B. J. Doss

For good meals, oysters, fish, game, etc., the Silver Moon is the place, on Third street, near the square.

Dr. P. R. Heugst, physician and surgeon. Headquarters at Williamson's drug store.

Oysters, fish and all kinds of meat, including dressed fowls when ordered at Mason, Morgan & Co's.

The last bargains ever to be offered in Waco by the Waco Supply Store, is now going.

Every article must be sold by January 1st, and The Great Waco Supply Store, forever discontinued.

Three calls at Meek & Co.'s, commission house for two-horse wagon to-day. Bring along your wagons to 318 Austin st.

John Cooper is closing out at a rapid rate the big stock of the Waco Supply Store—call and get bargains; Quick if you want them.

Curios.

The ladies will all go to Morrison, Risher & Co's, this week to attend the grand holiday opening.

We have just received 60 handsome Rockers, finished in Oak, Mahogany and Walnut, trimmed in plush and leather—Waco Furniture Company.

Curios.

The most attractive feature of Morrison, Risher & Co's, holiday stock is the wonderful line of imported Curios.

For fruit or ornamental trees, call on J. H. Hurwood, at Evening News office, Franklin between Fourth and Fifth streets. ASPARAGUS roots by the hundred or thousands.

Curios.

Everybody, invited to go to Morrison, Risher & Co's, to see the biggest line of holiday goods ever brought to Waco.

Christmas brings joy to every household, so does the name of DeWells. Call on him early for your candies, cakes, nuts and cigars. To please the children, ladies and men, we aim to do it all, as our past career will stand for it. Come one, come all, and gather by the fireside of sweetness at DeWells.