ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following are our rates for announcement candidates, and they must be accompanied by this cash in every instance, as de-fected candidates do not often feel like paying:

Congress	15.00
Governor	15.00
Other State Officers	10.00
State Legislature	7.50
Circuit Judge	7.50
Prosecuting Attorney	7.50
County Clerk	7.50
Other County Officers	5.00
Township Officers	3.00
City Mayor and Marshal	3.00
Aldermen, Clerk and Treasurer	2.00

FOR GOVERNOR.

We are authorized to announce John G. Fletcher, of Pulaski county, as a candidate for Governor of Arkansas, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

FOR CONGRESS--THIRD DISTRICT.

We are authorized to announce Thos. C. McRae of this county, as a candidate for Congress in the Third Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

We are authorized to announce J. L. McLaughlin, of Emery, as a candidate for Tax Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention.

Attention Democrats.

By oversight the hours for township and convention meetings were overlooked at the meeting. By request of other members of the committee the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. is hereby designated for township meetings to select delegates to the county conventions, and 10 o'clock a. m. for the county convention. A full turnout of Democrats is earnestly desired in township meetings at times designated.

M. M. SPEARS, Ch'm.

D. B. MADSEN, Sec.

Indiana held her Democratic State Convention and elected a solid Cleveland delegation to the National Convention.

The House is busy discussing the Mills tariff reform bill, having decided to devote twenty days for this purpose. After that, a vote will be taken on it, and it is confidently predicted it will pass.

Hon. T. C. McRae is making a mark in Washington City. He is one of the rising men in the lower branch of the national legislature.— He seems to be a worker, and does his work well.—Arkansas Economist.

The Arkansas Press Association convenes in annual session at Texarkana, today. The Gazette states the boys will exult to Galveston, San Antonio, and back by Austin, Ft.
Worth and Dallas, after the business session is over.

Col. Fletcher's chances for Governor brighten every day. His friends in Northwest Arkansas must not lessen their zeal or cease to work for him. With the proper effort, all of the counties in this section will go up instructed for him, as they did in 1884. His nomination and election as Governor is almost assured.

We learn from private sources that the Union Labor party convention, at Little Rock, Monday, nominated Mr. C. M. Norwood, of this county, as its candidate for Governor.— So it seems Nevada is the hub of the disgruntled set—two years ago Hitt was a candidate for congress, Ansley is to be this year, and Norwood is already, of this same creed.
The Democrats easily snow under such political trash.

Hon. W. E. Atkinson will no doubt be our next Attorney General. All our state exchanges speak in the highest terms of him. He will certainly have no trouble in carrying this portion of the state.—Magnolia Banner.

Mr. Atkinson will fill the place, with ability and credit. His friends all over the State should not cease to work for him, as the time is so short and it will take votes to nominate.

It is said in Washington society circles that Mrs. Folsom, the mother of Mrs. Cleveland, will soon marry Secretary Bayard.

Fort Smith had a triple hanging Friday, of murderers from the Indian territory, tried and convicted in the U. S. court there.

Some of our western exchanges are claiming that Mr. Barker favored Federal aid for education in 1883.— Perhaps so, but he opposes the notorious and odious Blair bill, and which Mr. McRae favors, and thereby "hangs the tale."—Monticello Monticellonian.

Why misrepresent Mr. McRae?— Some three weeks ago he stated his position in regard to the Blair bill, in a letter to Hon. J. L. Killgore, published in the Magnolia Banner, and in it he said he was opposed to the Blair bill, as it came from the Senate. The Sherwin bill, for which Mr. Barker voted in the Legislature in 1883, was as "notorious (ly) odious" as the Blair bill.

If there is a man in the third congressional district with more brains better tact, energy or who is more suited for congress than Hon. Thos.
C. McRae we would like to see the color of his hair. By the way how was it that in 1882 McRae was smarter than C. E. Breckinridge and now Breckinridge is the best man for U.
S. Senator and McRae is too green to hold a seat in the lower house?
Where is consistency anyhow.—Tex-arkana Morning Herald.

Yes, Mr. McRae went into state convention in 1882 as the strongest candidate for Congressman at large, with more votes than Mr. Breckinridge, yet he withdrew in the interest of harmony. Mr. McRae suits the people of this district, whom he has served so faithfully.

The Arkansas Journal dishonors itself, in its last issue, by stating that Tom McRae was preparing to change sides on the Blair bill. Tom McRae is too honorable, too highly thought, to trim his sails to catch every passing breeze. He wrote, privately, to an inquiring friend that the measure had objectionable features, as it was passed by the senate more than 12 months ago he wrote as much to this scribe when many of those now opposing favored the measure.—Oklahoma Messenger.

Mr. McRae stated the same to us, and has ever thought that the bill possessed some objectionable features, while we believed to the contrary and favored its passage as it passed the senate—just exactly in the shape it was when Senators Garland, Lamar, George, and other distinguished democratic senators voted for it—and even then it is not near as objectionable as the Sherwin bill for which Mr. Barker, by his vote as a representative from Drew, instructed the Arkansas congressional delegations to cast their votes.—Texarkana Independent.

The editor of the PICAYUNE failed to get a copy of the Malvern paper, containing the article misrepresenting Mr. McRae. We copy the above squibs, which is a sufficient answer to it.

Bushwhacking in congressional elections is something rather unusual, and is placing but a small estimate upon the dignity of American congressmen. Yet in this congressional district we find Mr. Barker, instead of making his appointments and addressing the people, traversing from house to house, while his opponent, Mr. McRae is at Washington City faithfully discharging the trusts that were reposed in him by the people. Mr. Barker pretends to desire fairness and expresses himself in favor of a joint discussion.— If he is sincere in these protestations let him go home and look after his crop until congress adjourns, when Mr. McRae can accommodate him with the joint discussion.—Texarkana Independent.

Every generous minded gentleman in the district, can readily see the justice and sense of our contemporary, in the above. We have time and again called attention to Mr. B's bushwhacking propensities. Every paper in the district might well afford to criticize such methods. Of course every man has a legal right to canvass as Mr. B. is doing, but when sifted down, considering that the congressional convention was purposely put off until September, by request of Mr. Barker's home paper and others, so that a joint canvass might be made by him and Mr.
McRae, after congress adjourns, the moral right does not show up so plainly. Mr. Barker is taking an unwarranted advantage of Mr. Mc-Rae's absence, who remains at his post of duty and says he will remain there if he never goes to Congress again.

When the majority of farmers joined the Wheel as an agricultural organization, and were assured their political privileges would not be interfered with, they were honest, and fully believed it, and do not now propose for any political party under the false name of labor—claiming right of authority the members of all truly labor organization—to while them into advocating principles they do not conscientiously endorse. We would not be too rash in departing from well defined and tried principles.
Let us make haste slowly.—Wheel Enterprise.

COL. FISHBACK'S RECORD.

$35,000,000 Saved to The People—Millions More Indirectly.

From Fort Smith Times.

From what we learn of the character of the canvass now going on several candidates are boasting of what they have done, and several others are profuse in promises of what they would do, while Col. Fishback, who is a refined and cultured gentleman, and believes it to be in bad taste to tell what he has done: says nothing of his deeds.

We propose to tell the people of Arkansas something of his record, and why it is that those who know him best always give him their enthusiastic support. He has never been beaten in this part of the state for anything.

1. He was appointed in 1865, treasury agent, by Andrew Johnson. He refused to accept the position until he was told that by doing so he could save the people of South Arkansas at least twenty millions of property.

It was the duty of that officer to seize the property of every man who had not taken the oath of allegiance.
Nobody had taken it because nobody was authorized to administer it. The treasury agent received a large commission for seizing and confiscating, amounting upon the twenty millions.

He accepted, and privately sent word all over the South to friends of the South to have the people take the oath while he was in office and saved their property. They did take it and saved at least twenty millions, while he could have made nearly a million by simply executing the law.
But he was the people's friend, and the records of this county show that he left that office a poor man.

2. During reconstruction no man in Arkansas was more active or more efficient in his war upon the radical regime.

3. When the people got the government back in their hands in 1874, he was elected to the constitutional convention and was the author of the most valuable provision of that instrument, by which the people have been saved millions more, indirectly.

4. During that convention, he introduced a resolution with a master-ly historic preamble, giving the reasons why the constitution should prohibit the payment of the fraudulent bonds of the state. But as we were not "out of the woods," the convention thought we had better let that alone. Afterwards, when we were "out of the woods," as a member of the general assembly, he introduced the "Fishback Amendment," and after ten years' fight against large odds, and after three campaigns of the state, at an expense of more than a thousand dollars to himself, he finally succeeded in getting the amendment adopted, by which he saved fifteen millions more.

5. He was the author of the bill in 1883 by which the taxes were reduced from 7 to 4 mills.

6. He was the author of the resolution and open letter by which the Iron Mountain railroad was forced to pay $250,000 back taxes to the state and counties and cities, to which they were due.

Let those other candidates show one-tenth of this good to the state.

Is it any wonder that Senator Berry should say in a public speech that "no man has done more for Arkansas and received less" than Col.
Fishback?

If the people of Arkansas wish to encourage their public servants, in good work, they now have the opportunity.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVEN- TION.

At a meeting of the congressional committee at Camden, on the 12th inst., the following resolutions were passed:

Be it Resolved, That a convention of the democracy of the Third congressional district be, and is hereby called to meet at Arkadelphia, on Wednesday the 12th day of September 1888, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress from said district, and transacting other necessary business.

Resolved further, That the basis of representation to said convention be the same as that fixed by the state central committee, to-wit: One delegate to every two hundred voters, and each fractional part of two hundred voters in excess of one hundred voters, as cast for Gov. S. P.
Hughes at the last general election, giving the counties in the district representation as follows, to-wit, respectively:

Counties.	Delegates.
Ashley	4
Bradley	6
Calhoun	3
Clark	3
Columbia	9
Dallas	3
Drew	9
Hempstead	7
Hot Spring	5
Howard	3
Lafayette	1
Little River	3
Miller	5
Nevada	5
Onachita	7
Pike	3
Polk	3
Sevier	4
Union	7

On motion the chairman was directed to have the usual publication made of the foregoing proceedings.

Blood Poisoning.

Alonzo W. Buell, of Powers' Hot-tel, Rochester, N. Y., writes: "S.
S. S. is the best blood remedy on earth. I cured myself with it. I recommended it to a friend of mine, a well known business man, and it made him well."

Please send me some more S. S. S. for the enclosed amount," writes Mr.
Robert Brooker, of Nevada, Mo. "I want it for my wife, who is very sick, but we feel sure that, by taking your medicine, she will be well in two or three months. I wish to tell you, and everybody else, that I am cured through your medicine, and I have gained considerable flesh during the past two months."

Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Strobridge Lithographic Co., Cincinnati, O., writes: "I suffered for two years with a terrible itching and painful sores on my neck, arms, hands and fingers. No physician could help me. S. S. S. relieved me perfectly, and I feel like a new man."

Says the New Orleans Picayune:
"The Swift Specific is renowned for its wonderful cures of blood poisoning. If this medicine could only cure a local sore, it would not be worthy to mankind."

The City Marshal of Inka, Miss., writes: "My son had suffered for the past six years with an eruption on his legs, caused from poison oak, and cracking of the feet. Nothing seemed to eradicate the poison from the blood until I gave him one bottle of Swift's Specific. This entirely cured him, and I heartily recommend it to the public as a sure cure for poison oak." And here are two more well-attested cases: Mr. Arthur W. White, who lives corner of Carroll and University Streets, Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Three years ago I was poisoned with oak vine.— The poison broke out on my body and face. One large bottle of S. S.
S. completely cured me. My case was a perfect test of the power of S.
S. S. as a blood purifier. A friend of mine had been cured of a similar poison by S. S. S. and it was through his commendation that I took it. So here are two certain cures of poison oak by Swift's Specific."

Mr. J. M. Dorsey, of the Exposition Cotton Mills, Atlanta, Ga., was a year ago, an employee of the Electric Light Works. While employed in the Electric works his blood became poisoned by the metallic elements he was obliged to handle. He says: "An eruption broke out all over my skin, attended with terrible itching and a distressing, sickening sensation and a general nervousness, which made me so irritable that often I had to be held down on the bed, and I could not sleep or eat, totally incapacitating me from working. He put himself under the treatment of various doctors, without benefit, and finally took S. S. S.
As to the result, let him speak for himself: "I have taken four bottles, and to-day feel relieved of all my suffering. The eruption of the skin and boils have, for the six weeks passed, disappeared, and the surface of the skin is in a healthy condition.
I am well in every way and feel like a new man. I know that S. S. S. alone has cured me of this terrible metallic poisoning."

The New Orleans Picayune says editorially: "Those whose blood is poisoned will find a very interesting article on another page from C. E.
Mitchell, West Twenty third street, New York, who had been suffering from this complaint ten years and was completely cured by the use of the S. S. S. There is nothing on the top of the earth better than this remarkable remedy for blood poison."

All the expenses will amount to less than ten per cent. per annum.
