BUSINESS NOTICE.

As I will be absent a considerable portion of the time during the next two months, Hon. E. E. White will assist in the editorial conduct of the PICAYUNE, beginning with issue of June 4th. His contributions will be marked thus *.

In a vote in Congress the other day to fix the time for the consideration of the Federal Election bill, Featherston voted with the Republicans in favor of the bill, and McRae, Breckinridge, Rogers and Peel, the people's Representatives, voted against it.

To the Dispatch: Speaking for the 165 citizens who voted for Waller and Stainton against the 95 who voted for Jones and Nelson, the PICAYUNE again reminds you of its demand that you prove or retract your charge that they received money from the school book trust for use in that election.

Mr. W. B. Hawkins, member of the U. L. lecture bureau, and delegate-elect to the Republican State Convention, made a physically tremendous Republican speech at the court house last Saturday night. It was a terrible bombardment, and the crowd begged for mercy almost every minute.

When Chairman B. G. Bryant, of the Republican County Convention, commanded "Pap" to "dry up," that distinguished gentleman came to an abrupt silence. It is not necessary to throw a brick house on our sagacious postmaster to enable him to know when the "niggers" are watching him.

Mr. W. V. Tompkins grappled with Governor (?) Norwood in a political discussion near Rosston last Saturday night. After the speaking, the crowd "executed" the Governor (?) and organized themselves into an enthusiastic Democratic club. A discussion between Mr. Tompkins and the Governor (?) always results in a gain of Democratic votes.

CLEARING UP A SERIOUS CHARGE.

The PICAYUNE is informed that certain respectable Republicans in this county are under the impression that the Democratic nominee for the Legislature is in some way responsible for the appointment of the incapable U. L. census enumerators for this county, and for that reason are hesitating to support him in preference to Boss Grayson's nominee. They are right. Unless the Democratic nominee can satisfy them that he had nothing to do with the appointment of these enumerators, they should vote against him. In the interest of efficient, prompt and faithful public service, it would be their duty to do so. But this writer can enter a stout denial of the charge. About the first of February last the Democratic nominee for the Legislature was appointed a special agent of the census, and assigned to certain work. He completed his duties and retired from the service on the 15th of May, perhaps before the enumerators were appointed. He had no authority to make appointments himself, and did not recommend a single one of the appointees. They are all Union Laborites, but they were appointed by the Republican supervisor, John W. Howell, of Hot Springs, and in all probability upon the recommendation of the illustrious boss who sent word to his hangers-on to "watch the niggers."

The Democratic nominee for the Legislature did make some recommendations, but they did no good. Among other capable and trustworthy applicants whom he recommended for appointment was Mr. J. L. Hurst, of Rosston; and that gentleman was appointed. His commission was issued and mailed to him at Prescott. It reached the Prescott postoffice. That information was given out by one of the postmaster's sons. But in the Prescott postoffice the commission struck a snag. About the time it reached the boss' postoffice the boss received positive information that Mr. Hurst had expressed his intention to vote the Democratic ticket at the next election. That was fatal to the appointment. The commission, instead of being forwarded to Mr. Hurst, was returned to Supervisor Howell with instructions to cancel it, and appoint Mr. Alex Brown in Mr. Hurst's stead. A few days later Mr. Hurst's son applied at the Prescott postoffice for the commission, and was informed that it was not there. He telegraphed to Supervisor Howell to know where it was, and was informed in answer by telegraph that Mr. Brown had the commission and the work.

We wish it distinctly understood, however, that nothing in the beginning of this article is intended to apply to Mr. Brown. Mr. Brown belongs to the U. L. party, it is true, but we know him to be a capable and reliable man. He is well qualified for the duties of census enumerator, and we have no doubt that he will make a thorough and correct count of the people of his district.

WHY NOT?

Secretary Blaine and President Harrison are out in plain and explicit terms in favor of free trade with all American nations. The question will at once occur to every sensible man, if with the American why not with the European, Asiatic and Australian people? If it would be a good thing with our neighbors, would it not be better if extended to all the world beside? And if we can afford it with one why not with all nations?—Memphis Commercial.

Certainly. If it is to the advantage of the people to allow all articles of common necessity to be imported from Mexico and all Central and South American countries free of the tax imposed for the protection of manufacturers, why would it not be a still greater advantage to the people to allow all such articles to be imported from all countries in Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia duty free, or as nearly so as may be compatible with the actual needs of the Government? If the removal of the protective tariff on quinine, and the placing of that article on the free list, resulted in the reduction of the price of it to the consumer from $5—and sometimes $6 and $7—to 75 cents per bottle, would it not be a still greater benefit to the people generally to at least reduce the duty on all articles of common necessity to the actual needs of the Government?

If either of these things would be to the advantage of the people, and it is practicable to do it, why was nothing said about it in the U. L. State platform? It is purely a question of taxation, and we do not recollect that the subject of taxation was ever before ignored in a party platform.

In the second direct vote on the silver bill in Congress last week, twenty-three Eastern Democrats voted with the Republicans against free coinage, and twenty-two Western and Southern Republicans, including Featherston, voted with the Democrats in favor of free coinage. Mr. Featherston refused to vote on the first roll call of the vote, but when, on the call of the absentees, he discovered that enough had voted against free coinage to defeat it, he then answered to his name and caused it to be recorded in favor of free coinage. He is now on record on both sides of the question. To those who are opposed to free coinage, he can prove that he voted against it. To those who are in favor of free coinage, he can prove that he voted for it. In other words, he is the pet of a fat dog, or a lean dog, just as any particular one of his constituents may wish him to be.

Mr. Geo. W. Armistead brings the PICAYUNE the envelope of a letter that was mailed to his wife from her daughter at Fiskville, Texas, on the 29th ult. As shown by the stamps, it was received at Prescott on the 21st, and after being allowed to rest here two days was returned to the writer on the 23rd. The address is as plain as print, and Mr. Armistead says he or some member of his family has called for mail at the Prescott postoffice regularly every week during the past three years. A subsequent letter from Mrs. Armistead's daughter, enclosing this envelope, was promptly delivered. A great many of the patrons of the office say they would be glad if Pap and the boys would watch the postoffice more and the "niggers" less.

Bro. Birmingham, the suspended Methodist minister, and U. L. candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, having completed his pulpits canvass of Nevada county, sailed away on a north bound train last Monday. His last moments with Mr. W. B. Hawkins, member of the U. L. lecture bureau, and delegate-elect to the Republican State Convention, were painfully pathetic. Mr. Hawkins, as member of the U. L. lecture bureau, and delegate to the Republican State Convention, will have one vote in that body in favor of endorsing the U. L. State ticket. When the U. L. politician fails to get there, it is useless for any Republican to make the attempt.

If our affectionate young friend, Mr. Sam Grayson, is not still wearing that old wagon spoke, we would like to let him know, in a fatherly sort of way, that he was overheard the other day earnestly assuring a colored man that Mr. Geunty, the U. L. nominee for sheriff, is a Republican, and that, therefore, all Republicans should vote for him. Sam was pulled entirely too green. Before being allowed to discard his pin feathers, he should have been taught to never tell tales out of school, or blow his trumpet too loud.

As the PICAYUNE remarked a week or two ago, the Union Laborite is the "sugar dumpling" to whom Republican prizes are awarded in Nevada county. On motion of Mr. Sam Gee, made in obedience to a tip from Postmaster Grayson, the Republican County Convention elected Mr. W. B. Hawkins a delegate to the Republican State Convention. Mr. Hawkins is a tower of strength in the Union Labor party, and a religious meeting at Prairie Grove not long since he made such a political demonstration that it was found necessary to rebuke him. Another rebuke is in store for him on the first Monday in September.—[Fayetteville Democrat.]

To Mr. Russell, U. L. nominee for Justice of the Peace, Census Enumerator: The PICAYUNE is requested to notify you that there are perhaps an hundred people living at and near Davis' saw mill, four miles southeast of Prescott, whom you have not yet counted. Go out on the Steele's bridge road and take the right hand at the first branch beyond Moscow church. Big, plain road with sign boards. No danger of getting lost.

Col. Chas. E. Cunningham, of Little Rock, who was the U. L. candidate for Vice-President two years ago, is reiterating his declaration that he will not support the present U. L. State ticket. So it is now in order for the Dispatch to denounce the Colonel as a red coat, a duffer, a plutocrat, a Hazzard Rifle Powder Keg, and the author of Buell's Border Novels.

One of the brightest little visitors to this office as an exchange is the Camden Daily Beacon, published by Maj. J. S. Holmes, and his son, Mr. W. P. Holmes, of the Weekly Beacon, and Mr. B. F. Kellam. It is indeed a creditable paper for a town of the size of Camden, and we wish it the fullest measure of success.

The Anti-Democratic fragments have always been stronger in Nevada than any county in the State—if we except the large majority in White county for Chas. E. Cunningham for Governor a few years ago; and hence it is that these two counties have a "double dose" on the present Union Labor or Anti-Democratic State Ticket—and the Democracy there may find it hard work to carry these counties at the approaching election.

We do not know how the Democracy is organized in White, or what sort of local ticket may be put to the front there, but we chance to know the party is well organized in Nevada county, with a strong and in every way first-class Legislative and county ticket.

For the Legislature, they have Hon. Eugene E. White, formerly a member from that county, and one of the most popular men in the State before the people; because known not only to be an able but a pure man. He can hardly fail to be elected, as such failure would be not only a disgrace to the county but a reproach to the whole State.

And for sheriff and clerk they have the present popular and efficient incumbents—Ed Hood and John Portis—with an entire ticket made up of about equally good material; which will be backed by Hon. C. C. Hamby, of Prescott, for the State Senate from that District, composed of Hempstead and Nevada—Hamby being a tower of strength, alike in personal ability, purity of character, and political fidelity.

So altogether the Straight Democracy there is by no means hopeless of success, notwithstanding Prescott has two popular men on the Union Labor ticket—John M. Hittman and O. S. Jones—with the double-barreled Mugwump Postmaster to back them, in the way of purchasing negro votes under the promise of a mule for each "Block-of-Five."

Of course the Straight Republicans there will have no ticket, which will leave them to the free choice of selecting the best material from among political opponents; and how any decent and fair and square Republican can vote for the Mugwump or Anti-Democratic ticket, which in its formation, both State and County, totally ignored all Republican help, is beyond conjecture, from any honorable standpoint of honorable manhood.

Hence we appeal to all honorable and square and fair Republicans of Nevada county, as elsewhere throughout the State, to vote, under the present combinations, the Straight Democratic Ticket, both State and County, and thus set an example of devotion to organized political principle which may hereafter enable us to build up a Republican party in the State that shall command the respect and support of men of principle, both white and black.—[Little Rock Republican.]

Bro. Birmingham.

Bro. Birmingham, the U. L. nominee for Supt. of Public Instruction, did not announce as Bro. Fizer did, that the moment he received the nomination was the happiest of his life, but it is very probable that he felt quite comfortable over the result of the U. L. convention. Brother B. has had political inclinations for some time, and we are informed that at a religious meeting at Prairie Grove not long since he made such a political demonstration that it was found necessary to rebuke him. Another rebuke is in store for him on the first Monday in September.—[Fayetteville Democrat.]

The Rev. Thomas M. C. Birmingham, Republican candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction on the U. L. ticket, is getting some cheap advertising, and some unenviable notoriety. He has been tried before the courts of his church for insubordination, a very grave charge for a preacher, and we understand he is now under a still more serious charge. It is claimed that he sold a tract of land to which he had no title. He should clear up these things before he goes into an important office.—[Clarksville Herald-Journal.]

The colored members declare that the only two supporters Postmaster Grayson had in or at the Republican County Convention here last Saturday, or the only two "niggers" present who would allow him to watch them, were Sam Gee and W. B. Hawkins. Really it did look that way.

If the U. L. bosses had been at the Republican County Convention here last Saturday, they could have seen for themselves that to give our luminous postmaster anything in payment for "nigger" votes—as he calls them—would be a pure waste of resources.

It is our duty to remind the Dispatch that the charge which it made nearly two months ago that the Democrats received money from the school book trust for use in the election for school directors still stands unproved and unretreated.

To the Dispatch: Do you ever intend to prove or retract your charge that the Democrats received money from the school book trust for use in the election for school directors? We demand that you do one or the other.

Camden has organized a fair association and determined to have a county fair this fall. The Camden people always make a success of whatever they undertake, and an excellent fair may be expected.

The PICAYUNE is still demanding that the Dispatch prove the charge that the Democrats received money from the school book trust for use in the election for school directors, or retract it.

Cancer of the Lip Cured.

I suffered from cancer on my lip that defied the skill of the best physicians of the State. I had it burned out, but the operation only made it worse, causing it to spread over more surface and eat deeper in. I finally had it burned off again, and used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) to heal it up and drive the poison out of my blood. The effect of the Specific was magical. It healed up the cancer entirely without leaving a scar as a reminder. This was over four years ago, and since then there has been no sign of a return of the cancer. I will cheerfully answer any inquiries in regard to my case.

A Prominent Druggist Cured.

Eleven years ago I was suffering from an attack of white swelling. A great many prominent physicians attended me but failed to effect a cure. I commenced using Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and after using it for a few months I was entirely cured, and since then have had no symptoms of its returning. I feel that the cure is entirely due to the curative properties contained in S. S. S. I can cheerfully recommend it as a medicine to all suffering humanity.

A Lady's Perfect Companion.

Our new book by Dr. John H. Dye, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that pain is not necessary in childbirth, but results from causes easily understood and overcome. It clearly proves that any woman may become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It tells also how to overcome and prevent morning sickness and the many excruciating pains. It is highly endorsed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion. Cut this out—it will save you great pain, and possibly your life. Emmet Etchings.

Bob Bright came home Saturday. John Moore was over last Sunday to see his girl.

Mr. Gus Logan, of Stephens, visited friends here Sunday.

It is ordained that we will have a new bridge soon. Glad to know it.

Where is the census enumerator? He has not got round this way yet.

Messrs. Ed Hood and Ben Regan were in town Sunday, buggy riding with their best girls.

Rev. D. T. Holmes was here last Saturday on his way to Texas. He has my sympathy in his sad bereavement.

Mrs. Lula Barton and sister, Miss Luana Hulse will leave for Sherman, Texas, this week, on a visit to their father.

Dr. S. R. Carlton and wife are at Bowleg, both of them being sick. Hope to see them well and at home again soon.

Jim Snell is the crop reporter now on the Clark road between this place and J. W. Farland's. He reviews on Sunday.

Laneburg Leaflets.

Faux is prevailing here now.

Mr. E. Matthews has the prettiest field of corn in the county.

A fine rain fell over a limited area here last Friday, doing much good.

Mr. Tom Luck, census enumerator, was in our midst the last of the week. He lacks all of Emmet and a part of Albany township being through.

Messrs. Hugh Moncrief, Mat Dunning, O. R. McDaniel, Sam Dunn and C. L. Jordan, of Prescott, were smiling and shaking hands with their many friends at Bluff Spring Sunday. Glad to see them. Hope their trip was pleasant and they will come again.

Listie Myrie, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Munn, died last Friday eve. She was an intelligent and loving child, and was indeed the light of the household, but her spirit hath flown beyond earthly scenes to that world beyond human sight. Weep not, bereft ones, your loved one is not dead but sleepeth. Many friends feel the deepest sympathy for the bereaved in this dark hour of trial.

Sunday was a big day at Bluff Spring—a large crowd, estimated by some at 500 or more. The finest of music (vocal) by Messrs. Hannah, Settle, Nelson and their classes. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. W. R. Barham. Preaching over the good ladies spread dinner, consisting of good things innumerable and of a sufficient quantity for all to stay their appetites. The worst feature that tended to mar the happiness of the occasion was the extreme scarcity and poor quality of water.

Good Luck.

Rosston Rumors.

Cotton looking well.

Let us organize a Democrat club at Rosston. Who will make the first move?

Mr. Asa Waters said the other day that judging from the U. L. ticket all who failed to vote that ticket this time would never get another chance.

Mr. T. J. Martin, from Taylor township, was in our burg last week, and gave us some refreshing news. Tom is a whole soul Democrat, and all wool and a yard wide when it comes to politics.

Several people got excited last week and thought there was another bear in the county, but before they got up Tom Dillard and his dogs they found it was Guy Nelson trying to electioneer with the negroes.

Willisville Warblings.

Health good.

Our part of Taylor will be solidly Democratic.

Thanks to Hon. T. C. McRae for public documents.

Let every man take his State and National papers. Take the PICAYUNE, too, for it is a good county paper, and a true blue Democrat. Now I ask everybody to read with the spirit and understanding and come out on the first Monday in September and vote the straight Democratic ticket, and then it can be said of you, "well done, though good and faithful servant, thou hast done thy work well, the victory is yours."

Die Ooroon.

Pap says watch the negroes, but I say watch Jim Wicker.

Be careful, boys, with your scines. Some day you may be introduced to the grand jury.

We are having very fine weather for killing grass and equally as good for killing candidates.

Mr. W. G. Herring has just returned from the gubernatorial factory where he helped to manufacture the next Governor of Arkansas.

I am sure the Democrats will have a regular walk over in this county this year, as the U. and L. have been punched off and nothing is left but the petersed-outs to oppose them.

Diek Hooten.

Brisbane Bearings.

Health good.

Crops looking better.
Had good rains last week.
Grass getting turned out.
The political pot has begun to boil considerably.

Hurrah for Bunk! Yes, in fact the whole ticket!

Mr. Editor, in passing 'round give us a call and we will cut a melon.

The negroes in Parker township say they are going to watch Pap and the rouders, too.

We had one Birmingham to preach for us at Union church last Saturday morning and Saturday night, on politics, and that without any permission from the church; it will do very well for us to practice religion at the ballot box, but let us keep politics out of our churches.

SAND SCRATCHER.

Artesian Artes.

Farmers are about up with their work.

Mr. Bob Darnell, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is visiting his brother Harry, but will return in a few days.

Little Ira, the three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sanders, died last week. The bereaved parents have our sympathies.

Miss Minnie Ware returned home from Hope last Saturday, where she has been attending school for some time. Mrs. Van Ware accompanied her and will spend a few days here.

The Hood and Portis club met Saturday night at the usual hour, and had a large crowd present. Expected some one from town to speak for us, but no one came. Will meet again next Friday night. Come out everybody.

ANDY.

Rocky Mount Rumblings.

Politics is about all you can hear. I make my politest bow to the editor.

Mr. J. M. Daniel will commence his school at Forest Grove the 14th of July.

The protracted meeting at Rocky Mount will embrace the third Saturday and Sunday in July.

Several bridges in the county are almost impassable, but they won't be fixed until Mr. Sutton takes charge of the office, which he is sure to do.

UNCLE JOE.

Don't use bitter and nauseous mixtures when you can get "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure." Pleasant to take, and guaranteed to cure chills and fever. Sold by H. Moncrief.

I have moved my barber shop to better quarters—up next to the new brick of the Foster & Logan Bldg. Co. Will be glad to serve the public.
