"Doc" Harry Vibber is spending the week on the Coast buying Christmas goods for their store. Kit says that their display will outshine anything that has ever been shown in this section of the state. You will be advised thru the advertising columns of this paper as to the extent and the prices of their stock.

Miss West, from Spokane, arrived the latter part of the week for a visit with Rev. W. P. Osgood. She has taught in high schools, and an academy in Washington a good share of her life. She spoke at the Baptist Sunday School Sunday, and in the evening during the Young People's hour, on the subject "Reminiscences of My Early Life in Washington." There was a good attendance, and those who heard her were very much interested in what she said.

M. H. Church, manager of the Twin City Ice & Cold Storage Co., was over from Kennewick yesterday. Mr. Church says Kennewick is not feeling bad over its failure, to get the county seat. As soon as Kennewick completes several new railroads which they have already under way, and get several other enterprises now contemplated, he says they are going to annex Pasco and have a county seat anyway. When it comes to boosting Mr. Church "has 'em all skinned."—Pasco Express.

Being Items of Particular Interest taken from THE COURIER Volume No. 2

C. A. Lundy is building a fence four miles long around his place in Horse Heaven.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clements went to North Yakima Wednesday. They will remain at the county seat for several days.

Kennewick is passing through a coal famine. Coal has been expected for over a week but its arrival has been delayed.

The Kennewick Land Co. has four fine work horses, weighing from 1200 to 1400 pounds each, for sale, well broke, at $50 to $75 each.

The Kennewick Hardware Co. has purchased the hardware stock of the Coffin Bros. store at this place.

C. J. Beach and Harry Beach went to Walla Walla Wednesday to appear as witnesses in the case of Jack Schwindler against the railroad.

Miss Maybelle Haney, assisted by Daniel Boyd, will give a recital at Kiona this evening. Several selections will also be given by local talent.

Fay Dean has returned to town after spending a couple of months out on his place. He seeded ten acres to wheat and alfalfa and prepared the other ten for setting out trees.

Jas. Crowell was over from Ellensburg last week. Mrs. Crowell joins him next week. Mr. Crowell has charge of the Lundy grading outfit at that place, working on the new ditch.

W. F. Martin has resigned from the school board and W. F. Sonderman has been appointed in his place. The board held a meeting Wednesday and decided to hire an additional teacher, owing to the crowded condition of the schools.

Kennewick is in the front rank educationally. The town is only one year old yet has a public school with three teachers besides the academy to be opened on January fifth.

F. Ebner, father-in-law of H. A. Bier, is here from Ritzville and will remain for some time.

Jno. Rudkin has completed the residence he has had under construction and is now painting the same.

C. E. Lum is preparing forty acres of land and seeding it to rye. Next spring he will seed some to alfalfa.

The special train carrying the president of the N. P. stopped at Kennewick and he inspected the new depot. They were highly pleased with it in every way.

Road Supervisor Shivers is brushing the road passing north of D. W. Owens' place, and is also opening the same through Section 5 to the river. This will soon become one of the main traveled roads in the country.

The Kennewick Land Co. has sold to Edward Sheppard, of Spring Valley, Minnesota, Sec. 25 Twp. 8, N. R. 30, and the N. E. ¼ of N. E. ¼ of Sec. 23. Mr. Sheppard will immediately remove to Kennewick to reside here permanently.

Samuel Lewellen has, at odd hours, for the past several months, been experimenting with an invention, by which to separate the flour gold from the sand in the Columbia river. He has recently imparted his knowledge to several of his friends here. He asserts that he can net $50 per day by his process and make the sands of the stately river yield up the yellow metal whose obscurity has baffled the ingenuity of man. Like all great inventors, he may fall short of the exact amount of net profit when he begins actual operations.

Mrs. S. S. Callahan left Tuesday for Spokane, where she will visit friends.

The ladies of the Episcopal church, will serve a business men's lunch Saturday from 11 until 2, at Corder's.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild are said to have secured an extraordinary array of talent for their minstrel show which will be given soon. The affair so far is largely shrouded in mystery and details are difficult to secure, but it is understood that the affair is to surpass anything of the kind ever before attempted here and that the date will be during the first week of December.

Since J. A. Bellows has acquired another store he has become an extremely busy man. But he's a resourceful sort of a fellow and he hit upon a labor-saving device the other day that helps a whole lot. He was taking an inventory of his new stock of groceries and hit upon the plan of using his cash register to tot up the totals. It works like a charm and saves him the price of an adding machine.

S. M. Lockerby received word from the U. S. Land Department, Tuesday, that his clients had won in the contest on the Highlands. The order gives title to the contested land to Miss Bienhart, M. N. Hudnall, Ed. Mann and Ed. Robinson, for whom Mr. Lockerby was appearing. The contestant, Otto Hansen, had appealed the case to the Secretary of the Interior, who sustained the ruling of the lower office.

Mrs. Chas. Bamberg entertained the Ladies' Needle Work Club last Friday afternoon. An Italian contest was indulged in, as a pleasing diversion. Mrs. Perry proved the most agile and carried off first honors. Mrs. Staley won the consolation prize. Monday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. E. R. Carnahan, the Club surprised their genial vice president by going in a body to her home. Games were the evening's amusements followed by refreshments.

On Tuesday evening, a meeting conducted by the Women's Missionary Union was held in the M. E. church. Mrs. J. B. Rose, president of the Union, presided. Mrs. A. F. Woodward read the scripture lesson, and Mrs. W. P. Osgood offered prayer, after which papers and talks were given by representatives of different churches. Mrs. H. M. Bartlett, of the Episcopal church, spoke on "Mission Work in New York City." Mrs. Wm. Saltgaver, of the M. E. church, gave an outline of what the women of that denomination are doing for home missions. Mrs. A. C. Hart, of the Congregational church, told of the work among the American Highlanders, the mountaineers of Tennessee and Kentucky. Mrs. S. D. Lynch, of the Baptist church read a paper on the topic "Our Vision, Christ in Every Home."

After a solo by Eunice Orr, "O Lamb of God Keep Me" Mrs. Geo. Egbert, of the Christian church read a paper telling of the work of the Christian Women's Board of Missions. Mrs. E. A. Orr gave a reading "The Creed of the Bells." In absence of the representative of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. J. B. Rose spoke briefly of some of the work of that church.

The Lavender Twelve Club met with Miss Naomi Smith Saturday evening. The book "Bettina" was finished, and enjoyed by all. It will be decided at the next meeting, which will be held with Dorothy Mann, what line of study will be taken up. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

ORDINANCE NO. 154

An Ordinance creating Local Improvement District No. 10 and providing for the improvement of property therein by the construction of cement curbs and for the manner of making payments for such improvements.

The city council of the city of Kennewick do ordain as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby ordered that the south one-half of blocks 1, 2, and 3; all of blocks 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10; and the south one-half of tracts 1, 2 and 3 and all of tracts 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, Amon's Addition, be improved by the construction of cement curbs, to be of the size, material and specifications shown by the plans prepared by the city engineer of said city, now on file in the office of the city clerk, which said plans and specifications are in all things approved and adopted.

Section 2. That the cost and expense of said improvement including all necessary and incidental expenses, shall be borne by and assessed against the property included in the assessment district hereinafter created in accordance with law. The city of Kennewick shall not be liable in any manner for any portion of the cost and expense of said improvement.

Section 3. That there is hereby established a Local Improvement District No. 10, which said district is described as follows:

"All the property between the termini of said improvement abutting upon, adjacent, vicinal or proximate to such portion of said streets and avenues to a distance back from the marginal line thereof, as provided by law."

Section 4. Bonds bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum payable on or before five (5) years from the date of issuance shall be issued in payment of the cost and expense of this improvement which bonds shall be redeemed by the collection of special assessments levied and assessed upon the property within said district, payable in five (5) equal annual installments with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, under the mode of "Payment by Bonds" as defined by law and the ordinances of the city of Kennewick. These bonds shall be delivered to the contractor in redemption of warrants on the local improvement district fund, issued on estimates of the city engineer, or the city of Kennewick, may at its election sell said bonds and make such redemption in cash.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force five (5) days from and after its passage and approval, if approved by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect at the time it shall become a law under the provisions of the laws of Washington.

Passed by the city council this 19th day of November, 1912, signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 21st day of November, 1912.

[Signed] S. M. LOCKERBY, Mayor.
[Attest] T. J. WRIGHT, City Clerk.
