“TO ‘CONQUER AND DESTROY STATE,’
U. S. COMMUNISTS CALL FOR LABOR REVOLT

Extracts from "National and Proletarian-Soviet," a Pamphlet, Issued to the International Communist Federation, for Use in Propagating the Cause of International Socialism.

The pamphlet, "National and Proletarian-Soviet," contains a message to the American people from the International Communist Federation. It is intended to serve as a basis for organizing the American proletariat in the struggle for revolution. The pamphlet stresses the need for a united front of the workers against the capitalist class and for the establishment of a workers' government. It calls for the overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a socialist society.

The pamphlet is divided into three parts: "National," "Proletarian," and "Soviet." Each part contains a series of articles discussing various aspects of the struggle for revolution. The "National" section discusses the role of the nation in the struggle for revolution, while the "Proletarian" section focuses on the role of the working class. The "Soviet" section describes the structure and function of the Bolshevik government.

The pamphlet concludes with a call to action, urging the workers to organize and fight for the establishment of a workers' government. It emphasizes the need for unity among the workers and for the overthrow of the capitalist system.

The pamphlet is a valuable resource for those interested in understanding the thought of the International Communist Federation and the struggle for revolution. It provides a comprehensive overview of the movement and offers a basis for organizing the American proletariat in the struggle for a socialist society.
