

Foreman Resigns From Irrigation District

RICHLAND—Gus Long, who for the past twenty-nine years has been employed by the Richland Irrigation District, resigned his position as foreman of the water maintenance crew. Before the present irrigation district was formed Long worked for nine years for the Horn Rapids project and was transferred to the present company in 1920.

R. R. McIntosh and son Charles and R. B. Dighton returned Tuesday from a business trip to Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

Mrs. Robert Brasfield of Keating, Oregon, is visiting her son, Robert at the Harlow Muncie home.

Mrs. Chet Linse, John Thompson and Jim Cowan of Naches were visitors at Willmsen's Monday.

T. Tureman, C. Turman and Laurence Carille from Unity, Oregon spent Wednesday in Richland at the F. Markham home.

T. Turman, Laurence Carille and Fred Markham sheared sheep for Carl Bauer Wednesday.

Installs Gas Pump

William Conwell has just completed the installation of a new gas pump at his service station across from Willmsen's green house. It is one of the latest model pumps available and is highly accurate and efficient, being equipped with a hose reel. The pump will be used for Richfield High-Octane gasoline.

Jack West of Ellensburg was in town Tuesday for a business conference with H. Willmsen, Don Rider, Earle McClendon and Bert Cloninger.

John Dam is a business visitor in Portland this week.

The Social Hour club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Copeland with Mrs. H. Copeland and Mrs. Norval assisting.

Miss Norma Carson of Seattle is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Thad Grosscup. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carson of Seattle are expected here to spend the week-end and their daughter will return to Seattle with them on Sunday.

Mrs. Idabel Hess, Mrs. Nig Vandine, A. L. Vandine and Mrs. H. Vandine visited Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Vandine, who is recuperating from a recent illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Reeder in Kennebec.

The Junior Senior home economics class motored to Walla Walla Friday, where they visited several large department stores, architects offices in regard to home furnishings, color, harmony styles and arrangements. Mrs. P. Schreiman, Mrs. Vic Nelson and Betty Kinney drove the girls over, and they were accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. L. Sloan.

Camp Fire Girls

The Camp Fire Girls of Richland attended a grand council fire held at Walla Walla Saturday. Sixteen members attended. Mrs. Rex Bell and L. Sloan took the girls over. They were accompanied by their guardian, Mrs. Peterson and assistant guardian, Miss Holms.

Mrs. Alice Van Fossen, Mrs. Leta Van Fossen, Tom and Annet Van Fossen and Mrs. Sam McMahon were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday. While in Walla Walla Tom Van Fossen applied for enlistment in the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Sam McMahon attended a party Tuesday evening in Pasco at the home of Mrs. Ed Goelet, the party was given in honor of Mrs. C. Hanson of Okanogan.

Ruth McGhan, who is a student nurse at the Pasco hospital, spent the week-end visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McGhan.

Introducing three sets of musically-inclined brothers and sisters, who will appear in Kennebec on April 6 with the College of Puget Sound's 32-voice Adelpian choral society. Reading from left to right, they are Wilfred and Kathryn Woo as of Wenatchee, Edward and Enid Miller of Tacoma and Bill and Betty Tregoning of Yakima.

Californian Visits Former Home Here

FINLEY—Mrs. Vic Hedington of Tulsa Lake, California came Monday for a few weeks' visit with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pielt. Mrs. Hedington will be remembered as Miss Mary Turner.

Harold Witham left Wednesday for Spokane for a couple of days. Mrs. Chris Erickson made a business trip to Dayton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lande are the parents of a girl born Monday, April 1 at the Pasco hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell of Creston visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Clint Glassner and Mrs. Glenna Nelson.

The Women's Auxiliary met Wednesday with Mrs. Clint Glassner. There will be no more meetings till September.

Miss Irma Schula of Pasco visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shula Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Witham and children, Shirley and Gene, will leave Thursday for a few days' visit in Seattle.

Yakima Guests

Mrs. Douglas McDonald, Floyd Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. J. Burlingame, all of Yakima, visited Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pielt. Mrs. Douglas is a sister of Mrs. Messenger and Mr. Elliott is a cousin of Mrs. B. Pielt.

Mrs. J. R. Ayers visited last week with R. I. Olds in Connell, returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pielt attended the funeral of Mrs. M. I. Wallace in Walla Walla Monday.

Lyman Stone left Wednesday to spend the next few days visiting relatives in Seattle.

Teachers' Attend Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benson, Mr. and Mrs. C. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Miss Olga Wepola,

Powell to Speak at Improvement Club Meet

HIGHLANDS—The Highland Improvement club will hold its regular meeting Friday night at which time the Highland canal project committee, Chas. Powell, chairman, will tell of the accomplishments made so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Preston entertained with six tables of bridge and a dinner dessert. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Campbell won high, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lampson, second, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watkins low. The Spring motive was carried out in table decorations.

Attend Masonic Meet

W. S. Green accompanied several local Masons to Walla Walla Tuesday evening to attend a banquet and meeting of the Scottish Rite body, at which M. M. Moulton of Kennebec was the main speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Sol) Peter and family, Mrs. Peter's mother, Mrs. Conant, and Harry Lee motored to Coulee Dam Sunday. While there they visited Mrs. Peter's brother, Mr. Conant.

Alvin Paulsen, Mrs. F. L. Cole and Miss Eileen Bell of Seattle were week-end visitors at the W. B. Paulsen home.

Miss Betty Mueller and Ralph Soper were Colfax visitors on Sunday.

Highland youngsters are enjoying their spring vacation this week.

Visits on Coast

Mrs. Blanche Foraker and son, Herbie, accompanied Frank Hembrer Tuesday morning to Tacoma, where she plans to visit her sister and her mother and daughter in Hoquiam.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brand are living in an apartment at Muldrow's since the fire.

Miss Rosemary Watkins accompanied the Camp Fire Girls to Walla Walla to a council fire Saturday.

David Beinhart is ill with the measles this week.

The Girl Scout troop went on an all-day hike last Saturday. All of the girls passed their tests.

Mrs. S. R. Woodruff was a Thursday dinner guest at the Guy Morrison home.

Students Vacation

David and John Tweet are spending spring vacation at the home of their parents. John spent the week-end in Seattle and arrived here Tuesday morning.

O. E. S. Installation Held For Oncoming Officers

The local O. E. S. chapter held a very impressive installation service at the hall Thursday evening. Mrs. Marilla Oliver, worthy matron, acted as the installing officer, with the assistance of the other past matrons of the chapter. The following officers were installed to their positions, M. M. Pearl Green; W. P. Ed Frauen; A. M. Clarabel Safford; A. P. Floyd Hutchins; secretary, Lotie Lampson; treasurer, Ellen Lape; conductress, Gladys Kelso; associate conductress, Cora Reed; chaplain, Julia Hemenway; marshal, Marilla Oliver; organist, Bee McDonald; Ada, Eunice Washburn; Ruth, Grace Desgranges; Esther, Mabel Black; Martha, Zela Gravenslund; Electa, Ethel DuSair; Warder, Elsie Walters; and sentinel, Howard Withers.

An address took place with the past matrons escorting the past worthy matron from her office. Mrs. Oliver was presented with the past matron's jewel as well as other gifts.

Musical numbers included two vocal selections by Mrs. Hazel Long and piano numbers by Jean Osborne.

Welles Brings No Peace

Washington, D. C.—Although he has preserved unbroken silence during his European visit, it is felt that Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles returns to Washington with little prospect for an early peace among the belligerents abroad. He is reporting the results of his investigation to the President in person and in the utmost detail, while Myron C. Taylor, President Roosevelt's unofficial emissary to the Vatican, remain in Rome to continue his efforts toward peace.

There isn't a man in Kennebec whose wife didn't think, at some time or another, that he was a wonder.

It is still a bit too early to hear of plans to celebrate the Glorious Fourth!

Dramatics Club to Give One-Act Assembly Play

The dramatics club of the Junior High is now working earnestly on a one-act play entitled "Thanks Awfully." The characters are: Richard Montague, a woman hater, played by Wallace Preston; Dorothy Montague, his sister, played by Barbara Magnuson; Marion Gatewood, played by Maxine Whitmore; and Ann March, Marion's friend, played by Fern Sanders. Other characters are played by Betty Wood, Bonnie Toffer, Rosemary Watkins, Madeline Shields, Kathleen Anderson, Zela Dehnoff, Patty Higley, Dorothy Ann Reed, Clarabel Johns and Arlene Aman, all of whom are friends of Dorothy, and are attending a party at her home. "Dick" does not want to meet all these girls, but finally agrees to see them. He promises to say nothing but "Thanks Awfully" all evening and produces a very amusing situation.

The play will be put on in about two weeks at a Junior High assembly. Miss Steele is directing.

New Officers

The Woman's Club of White Bluffs has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. E. J. O'Leary; Vice-Pres., Mrs. Francis Moody; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Dan Williams; Trustees, Mrs. R. S. Reierson, Mrs. Roy Beene and Mrs. Jess Brown.

The local high school was notified Wednesday that the date for the 21st Apple Blossom Festival at Wenatchee had been set for April 25th, 26th and 27th.

Apricot blooms are falling and peaches are in full regalia. Most of the soft fruit growers are prepared for smudging should it prove necessary.

Thomas Last, one of the newer settlers, is planting six acres more of peaches and apricots and two acres of grapes.

At an entertainment to be given by Hanford P-T-A. on April 3rd, at Hanford Community hall, Mrs. Richard Stevens of Pasco, will give one of her enjoyable book reviews, he subject being "Sea Island Lady," a novel of Georgia and the Civil War, by Francis Griswold.

Census Begins

Washington, D. C.—Under official instructions to exercise politeness and restraint in obtaining their answers to even the extremely private and personal queries in this year's census, 120,000 enumerators started this week to count noses from coast to coast, the Lakes to the Gulf. They are paid on the basis of 4 cents per name turned in, and will be engaged about a month on the job.

Flower Exchange to Take Place at Meeting

HIGHLANDS—The Highland Woman's Club meeting will be held Friday April 5. Don't forget to bring yarn and crochet hook to fit, crocheting string and hook for same; also small piece of cloth and needle and thread, so you can make use of the demonstrations on smoking and crocheting stitches. Also rug and pillow making. There will be an exchange of flower roots or bulbs, so everyone bring your extras.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reymore and family visited at the J. F. Bell and A. Lucke homes in Richland Sunday.

Ed Crooks was a Seattle visitor last week. While there he flew in the army air corps.

Miss Ella Mae Leibel accompanied the Misses Maxine and Betty Shelton of Pasco and the Misses Helen Campbell and Dorothea Franch to Palouse Falls Sunday.

The Badger Girl Scout troop will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Miss Ella Mae Leibel.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emerson, formerly of the valley, recently moved in to the place now owned by Carl Mayer.

The Highland Bridge Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Giles. Mrs. Neva Watkins won high, Mrs. May Lampson, second, and Mrs. Ed Watkins low. They will meet with Mrs. Ted Watkins on April 11.

Bring Back Students

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peter motored to Pullman Friday to bring Harry Lee and Phillip Foraker home for spring vacation.

Miss Lois Estes left Sunday for Portland. After spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Estes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDuffie of Pasco were Sunday dinner guests at the W. B. Paulsen home.

Mrs. Julia Hummel has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Lape after visiting the past two weeks at Wapato and Toppenish.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Henson of Klona were Sunday dinner guests at the Ed Lape home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Higley and four children, Mr. and Mrs. C. Taylor and two children of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Slaybaugh and two children of Yellepit and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuneman of Pasco at dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan were Sunday afternoon visitors at the C. H. Meyer home.

Attention Grangers

At the last Highland grange meeting there was a short Kenney Memorial program. Warren Giles and Raymond Fries presented a bell was obligated. All Highland grange members are urged to attend meeting Saturday night.

Clarence Paulson, Harlin Estes and Miss Ernie Morgan of Portland enroute to Idaho, visited at the Ernest Estes home.

Miss Trula Selph, who is spending spring vacation at the home of her parents, was an all-day guest of Miss Mary Green today (Thursday).

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Preston and family, Mrs. Ted Watkins and Rose Mary picnicked Sunday at Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor and two children of Dayton arrived Saturday evening at the C. H. Meyer home.

Bobbe Hummel of Toppenish, who accompanied his grandmother here is spending spring vacation at the Ed Lape home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Preston attended the funeral of Mrs. L. Wallace, mother of Mrs. C. Sherry of Finley, at Walla Walla Monday.

Miss Maude Lampson was a week end visitor at the Frank Lampson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pasche were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. N. E. Robbins will be hostess to the Executive Committee of the Yakima Valley District Federation of Woman's Club Friday.

Watch This Ad and— Save Money

- 50c Chamberlain's Lotion42c
- 50c Jergen's Lotion38c
- $1.00 Pond's Cold Cream80c
- 1 Pint Witch Hazel50c
- Alarm Clocks and Watches80c
- 1 lb. cans Talc. pwd.25c
- Package of 25 Medford Blades fit Gillette Razor25c

ACCURATE PRESCRIPTION WORK

Vibber-Gifford Drug Co.

Phone 721 Kennebec, Wash.

ROXY
Kennebec
Adults 21c Kiddies 5c
Matinees—1 p.m. Sat. 3 p.m. Sun.
7 p.m. Week Days

Ends Saturday
Village Square Dance
Richard Crowell
Returns to Allen • Robert Baldwin
LAW OF THE PAMPAS
WILLIAM BOYD

Tuesday - Wednesday
THE HAND OF FRIENDSHIP AND THE FIST OF DEATH!
Hate in one man's heart... love in the other's... as a hero with a prayer meets a killer with a gun!

HOT from the HEADLINES...the timeliest adventure zooms across the screen!
SCOTT LINDSAY 20,000 MEN A YEAR
with Preston FOSTER Mary HEALY Kane RICHMOND Douglas WOOD
PLUS
Donald Duck IN "HOCKEY CHAMP"

MUTINY IN THE BIG HOUSE
A MONOGRAM PICTURE
STARRING CHARLES BICKFORD BARTON MACLANE

FLIRT SKIRT
...You'll be happy from laughter at the funny romance...!
Ma! He's Making Eyes At Me with Tom BROWN-Constance MOORE Richard CARLE - Anne NAGEL Jerome Cowan - Elizabeth Weston

Top 1 ACTION
Gene Autry RANCHO GRANDE
Sailor Buratto

Starting THURSDAY
THE JONES FAMILY IS OUT FOR FUN
...and you'll have Plenty FUN!!
YOUNG AS YOU FEEL
JED PROCTY Spring BINGTON Joan VALER Russell GLEASON

PASCO LIBERTY
Ends Saturday
AS YOU WANT THEM...
GABRIEL CRAWFORD STRANGE CARGO
CARTOON

Sunday - Monday
All the "ROONEY" FUN AND HUMOR
MICKY ROONEY Young Tom Edison with FAY Bainter GEORGE BANICOFF VIRGINIA WEIDLER EUGENE PALLETTE AND DONALD DUCK

Tuesday - Wednesday
IRISH WIT!
3 CHEERS FOR THE IRISH
Starring LARRY MITCHELL • MORGAN

PASCO
Starting Thursday APRIL 11th
TWO SHOWS A DAY
Promptly at 1 P.M. and 7 P. M.
All Seats Reserved
Prices Including Taxes
AFTERNOONS
General 75c Loges $1.15
EVENINGS
General $1.15 Loges $1.50

YOU'LL CALL THEM GREAT...AND THE PICTURE GREATER!
DAVID O. SELZNICK'S production of MARGARET MITCHELL'S Story of the Old South
GONE WITH THE WIND
IN TECHNICOLOR starring CLARK GABLE • HOWARD OLIVIA DeHAVILLAND • LEIGH
A Scholastic International Production
Reserve Seat Box Office Opens Monday, April 8th
12 noon until 5 p.m. Daily

PASCO
Starting Thursday APRIL 11th
TWO SHOWS A DAY
Promptly at 1 P.M. and 7 P. M.
All Seats Reserved
Prices Including Taxes
AFTERNOONS
General 75c Loges $1.15
EVENINGS
General $1.15 Loges $1.50

Plants 30 Acres Mint
Harry Snively has just completed the planting of 30 acres of mint on his farm north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCamish of Kennebec spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. McCamish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dam.

Friday evening Mrs. A. Weir entertained in honor of her husband, who left Tuesday for Wyoming, where he will spend the next few months.

Attends Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Earle Jones returned Monday evening from Seattle, where they attended the wedding of Miss Margaret Richards and E. V. Pitzer at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Richards. There were fifty guests present. The bride is a cousin of Mrs. E. Jones.

Miss Helen Millard and Boyd Nelson have been appointed census takers for this district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCarthy were Sunday guests at the O. H. Luelloff home.

Mrs. Amanda Breithaupt entertained Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. Alice Abbott, who is leaving soon for Canada to make her home.

Mrs. Sydney Relton assisted by Mrs. H. A. Muncie entertained 27 ladies Monday afternoon honoring Mrs. Alice Abbott, who will leave next Tuesday for Lacomb, Alberta, Canada to make her home.

The Business Week
Residents of the U. S. sent abroad $39,800,000 last year to support various charitable campaigns in behalf of distressed European and Asiatic races. . . Deposits in 13,535 banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, reached an all-time peak of $56,076,000,000, an increase of 13 percent over the previous year. . . Industrial activity in nearly all lines continued to drop in the general downward movement which began in December. . . Direct obligations of the Federal Government to the extent of $3,095,850 will expire within the next 12 months.

Hollywood Clubs Raided
Hollywood, California—Big shots of the film world beat a hasty retreat when vice squads raided three of the city's most notorious alleged gambling clubs. Stars and starlets whose identities are known will later be called upon to assist in identifying the owners of the raided resorts.