PAULSEN PLAT

By THURSA KIMBROUGH

We wish to be known as Paulsen's Plat. This was W. B. Paulson's farm home for nearly twenty years. In 1943, beginning of the Hanford project. Mr. Paulson had his place platted and sold lots, thus providing living space for numerous newcomers. Several families have owned homes here since early in '44.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Sherry and Mrs. D. Cochran and son and daughter of Walla Walla, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sherry Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lande and children were in Walla Walla on business Monday afternoon.

W. B. Paulson of Yakima came Wednesday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Paulson.

Norman and Belle Lewis have a new car, a "bee-yoo-ti-ful" red Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Kadlecik and daughter returned Thursday from LaGrande where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Clyde McElroy and daughter Donna and Mrs. Everett Eberly left for Idaho Thursday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Wendel Hire and daughter Mary Lou Jones, Richland, former residents of Gideon's Court, gave a picnic Thursday for a group of friends. They spent the day at Sacajawea park. The guests included Mrs. Ernest Mercer and son Jerry of Benton City, Mrs. C. W. Powell, Mrs. W. L. Stanley, Imogene Bruce, Doyce and Bob Collier, Alice Covington and Gilbert Kimbrough.

Callers at the Pete Fetter home during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Al Welle, Kennewick, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Shirdo of Richland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Pendleton, were guests of Mrs. Norman Lewis from Thursday until Saturday. Mr. Snyder is Mrs. Lewis' sister.

Mrs. Norvell Paulson spent the

Camera Fans to Meet In Pasco on April 20

The Pasco-Kennewick Camera club will meet April 20 at the Pasco Recreation hall. Anyone interested in photography is invited to attend.

Nomination of officers will be part of the meeting as well as a program suited for both still and movie camera fans.

Anyone interested in photography in any phase will find the club interesting, entertaining and educational.

Tongue With An Air

Tongue too, takes on an air when it has various companionable flavors added. For example, a slightly tart cherry, or raisin sauce is delicious—or a vegetable gravy might be served with it.

week end in Spokane.

Mrs. Clayton Pock's sister, Mrs. Walt Atkins of Boise, stopped by, Saturday, on her way to Bow, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lahti, of Kennewick, visited Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Paulson Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellison and son were Wednesday night guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stacy of Yakima.

Mrs. C. L. Bear was honored with a surprise layette shower Sunday evening. Mrs. Clayton Pock and Mrs. Harold Coture were hostesses. The many lovely gifts were placed in a simulated baby carriage decorated with white and blue crepe paper. The group enjoyed two hours of games and gossip. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at 9:30. Special mention must be made of the clever cake decorations—a big white stork and blue bows on one—a clothesline, holding baby garments twined around the top on the other. Mrs. Pock did the decorating.

Besides the hostesses and honoree, those present were Mrs. Jack Lee, Mrs. Earl Covington, Mrs. Willie Collier, Mrs. A. B. Campbell, Mrs. L. B. Lewis, Mrs. Frank Van Buren, Mrs. Pete Fetter, Mrs. Norman Lewis, Mrs. J. D. Dunlap and Mrs. R. B. Kimbrough.

The How, When And Y Of It

By Georgia Fisher

Elizabeth Jean McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCormick of North Richland, became the bride of Lyle Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Woodworth, Monday evening in an informal ceremony at the First Methodist church in Kennewick. The Reverend J. B. Coan read the vows.

Mrs. Theo Wade, the organist, opened the ceremony with "Poem." The bride's father presented the bride and the groom's brother and Eleanor McCormick, the bride's sister-in-law, acted as best man and matron of honor.

The bride chose for the occasion a blue afternoon dress accented with black accessories, and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. Baskets of bridal wreath, yellow jonquils, iris and snapdragons and candelabrum decorated the altar.

The matron of honor wore a printed silk afternoon dress and a corsage of red and white carnations. Both of the mothers wore corsages of gardenias.

The groom has been a resident of Kennewick for the past four years and the bride and her parents are formerly of Salem, Ore. The groom is employed at Richland with B.K.B.

The newlyweds left last night for a motor trip into Oregon, with no particular destination in mind.

The groom's parents are the owners of the "Y" Shell Service station and the bride's parents are employed in Richland.

Relatives and close friends attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Doris McBride, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Plueard and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Bloomore of the "Y" moved to North Richland this past week. We will all miss them, but, luck, all of you.

Little Gaylord Bloomore is confined to the hospital with mastoid. At last report he is very much improved.

Mrs. Ed Brogan and daughter Kathleen spent the week end in Spokane with relatives.

FASHION NEWS: It's time to get out grandma's quilting frames and combine jerseys and printed chintzes for quilted skirts and jackets or lower priced failles, chintzes, cottons, or even denims. There is a sudden summer demand for bright, bright red. Cotton note: quilted cotton skirts, lined cotton jackets, dark cotton plaid dresses with velvet trim. Cottons that will go through summer into fall.

G. B. Glendinning, physical therapist, a member of the A.A.M.M. is now practicing here. Dr. Glendinning has a number of special treatments.

Atomic News: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Siemens were Sunday dinner guests at the L. L. Thomason home in Richland.
