

The One Sure Way

to have money is to save it. The one sure way to save it is by depositing it in a reliable Savings Bank. You will then be exempt from the annoyance of having it burn holes in your pockets, and aside from the fact that your money will be safe from theft, saving tends toward thrift, economy, discipline and understanding of business principles essential to your success.

County Assessor Carter started his deputies at work Monday. Wednesday and Thursday he spent in Modjes, instructing his deputy at that point.

Since the panic the opportunity for reading is larger, the patronage of the library has very materially increased and the number of application for books doubled.

Miss Jessie Gibson arrived Tuesday from North Yakima, to teach Latin and German in the High school, succeeding Miss Archer, who resigned on account of ill health.

The third case against Ole Vammen, charged with violating the Sunday law, came up in Judge Loomis' court on Tuesday, but on account of the illness of Mr. Vammen, was postponed until March 11.

While working as head loader at Camp 2, of the Polson Logging Co., Tuesday afternoon, John Strum was caught between two logs, and was so badly injured that he died while being taken to Hoquiam for medical aid.

Edward Dolan pleaded guilty before Judge Loomis yesterday morning to the charge of violating the Sunday law. There were three complaints against him, one of which was dismissed. He was fined $30 and costs in each of the two cases.

Now's the time to take Rocky Mountain Tea. It drives out the germs of winter, builds up the stomach, kidneys and liver. The most wonderful spring tonic to make people well. You'll be surprised with results. 35c. Tea or Tablets at W. B. Paine & Co.

Percy Morgan, a former Aberdeen newspaper reporter, is now regularly employed on the staff of the Milwaukee Free Press, United States Senator La Follette's organ. Mr. Morgan writes to friends here that he is contemplating matrimony.

Father Gribbin, of St. Joseph's hospital, has returned from a visit of several days in Seattle, where he met Bishop O'Dea and posted the dignitary on spiritual affairs in Aberdeen. Father Gribbin expects to take a trip to Mexico the coming summer.

The Lenten season began yesterday with services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. The services in each place of worship were largely attended. Rector Greene, of St. Andrew's church, will preach a series of specially prepared sermons during the season of fasting and prayer.

F. E. Jones has received a photograph of a fine school building in Detroit which was named the Myra Jones school, in honor of Mr. Jones' sister, who for twenty-four years was a respected teacher in the schools of that city. Miss Jones is now on the retired list and receives a pension from a fund created years ago by the school board.

He will take with him the good wishes of a host of Aberdeen friends.

The putting in of the foundation of the new steel bridge for the Northern Pacific across the Wishkah river is a point of great interest at present for the idle and for the curious. A railway company does its work so extensively, so well and so permanently that it is well worth stopping a few minutes to notice the proceeding.

A. P. Stockwell and J. D. Cray, who went east two weeks ago, returned Tuesday night and this morning left for Seattle, where they will remain several days. There are rumors of extension of the Grays Harbor Electric railway to Montesano and other places between here and the Sound, but the officials are giving out nothing just at present.

J. W. Walters and son, Fred, of Oregon, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carter. The men came from Colorado with Mr. Carter in the fall of 1883, and all three settled in different parts of the Pacific coast. Since then they have seen each other but little, and the visit to Grays Harbor was quite a surprise to the county assessor.

Shirley Randolph has received a letter from his brother, Howard Randolph, a senior in the State University, medical school at Ann Arbor, Mich., which is encouraging, for the young man is not yet 24 years of age. When a junior, Howard Randolph won out over his class in an interne contest, and now has been offered a position in the Northern Pacific hospital at Missoula, Mont.

The steamer Inman, which sailed from Hoquiam Wednesday, carried as part of her cargo 86 bags of oysters for San Francisco. This is the first shipment of oysters ever made from Grays Harbor, and is the result of the planting of young eastern oysters three years ago. From present indications the growing of oysters on Grays Harbor inland waters will prove a profitable and important industry.
