Three Jobs for One Young Man

Dean Woods of the Minnesota State Agricultural college will turn out a fine lot of scientific farmers in his graduating class next month.

He has applications for three times as many young men as he has in his graduating class. Every one of the present class has, therefore, had the choice of at least three jobs paying from $1,200 to $1,500 per year to start with.

The graduates from the law and medical schools have long lean years ahead of them. The "ag" graduate not only starts with a good salary, but his work will keep him out doors where there is health and long life.

Over on the girls' side in this year's graduating class at Minnesota state the story is about the same. Almost every girl in the domestic science division has secured a position at from $900 to $1,200 per year, while the girls who have studied the "ologies" will get mighty little except their diplomas.

Boys and girls who are going to start a college course next fall will do well to think these facts over.

WHILE former President Crawford and Trustee Peabody are going hammer and tongs at each other for the receivership of the Seattle, Renton & Southern, the Rainier valley citizen is having a chuckle at his own. Also the municipal car line advocates.

A Prayer for the Babies

BY PROF. WALTER RAUSCHENBUSCH

Author of "Christianity and the Social Crisis."

O God, since Thou hast laid the little children into our arms in utter helplessness, with no protection save our love, we pray that the sweet appeal of their baby hands may not be in vain. Let no innocent life in our city be quenched again in useless pain through our ignorance and sin. May we who are mothers or fathers seek eagerly to join wisdom to our love, lest love itself be deadly when unguided by knowledge. Bless the doctors and nurses, and all the friends of men, who are giving of their skill and devotion to the care of our children. If there are any who were kissed by love in their own infancy, but who have no child to whom they may give as they have received, grant them such largeness of sympathy that they may rejoice to pay their debt in full to all children who have need of them.

Forgive us, our Father, for the heartlessness of the past. Grant us great tenderness for all babies who suffer, and a growing sense of the divine mystery that is brooding in the soul of every child. Amen.

"GOMEZ in full flight from Mexico," announce newspaper heads. What to do with her ex-presidents isn't worrying Mexico. They'll make bully aviators.

Peace in Sight

Ha! Our special commission of the Panama-Pacific exposition has visited St. Petersburg, been well wined, well fed, and departed for Vienna well pleased. Cablegrams omit to state that Russia has forgiven us in that little matter of the Jews and will patronize our exposition. However, our own darling, Gen. Clarence Edwards, had a satisfactory conference with the minister of war, Gen. Soukponiloff, and over their beer Souk assured Clarence that, so far as he and Clarence were concerned, there would be no immediate war between Russia and the United States.

Whether the commissioners will have the same success at Vienna is uncertain. They'll run up against an entirely new style of drinks in Austria.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

FIRE PROTECTION

To the Editor of The Star: "They were burning slashings, and the timber caught from that." How often we read that in an account of forest fires. One would think that with the hundreds of costly, and often fatal, fires yearly, that greater care would be exercised by those whose work or pleasure brings them into the woods. The campfire forgotten and left to smolder, the match thrown into the brush and the slashings that lumbermen burn out every year—these are the three principal causes that produce the many disastrous fires. The recent fires near Seattle, in which several have already perished, should bring this lesson very vividly home to us. There is an organization in this state, the Washington Forest Fire association, which has for its object the gathering of funds for the help of fire victims. If every one who works or lives in the woods would organize... into a committee of one for the prevention of forest fires, there would be little need for such an organization. The fact that there is, is a constant reminder of the carelessness of the people.

DUSTY STREETS

Editor of The Star: The Shriners who have been in our city for the last few days all had a good time. They were pleased with our city and its people, and they came here when the weather was at its best, but there is one regrettable feature of their visit, and that is that as soon as they got off the paved streets in their auto rides, the dust was frightful. Why isn't there more sprinkling done? The street commissioners going to depend on the rain to answer for it? The streets are dry and dusty, and certainly should be sprinkled. Visitors can't but help notice the conditions, and there is no reason why they should exist.

Pedestrian—I don't care for any soup, thank you.—San Francisco Chronicle.

SUCH A BRIGHT BOY

"Thomas," said the professor to a pupil in the junior class in chemistry, "mention an oxide."
"Leather," replied Thomas.
"What is leather an oxide of?" asked the professor.
"An oxide of beef," answered the bright youngster.—San Francisco Chronicle.

"Then why not try windflowers?"—Baltimore American.

CONSTIPATION, COATED TONGUE, HEADACHE OR SICK STOMACH

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascarets tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascarets now and then and keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too, occasionally.

A MEAN ADVANTAGE

CLARENCE—Your valet went on strike, did he? I hope you didn't agree to his demands.

CLAUDE—Pon my life, I had to, old chap. The cunning creature walked out this morning when I was half dressed.

HIS NIGHT HOWLED

Last night my little boy burt his little dog. I asked him if he was aware that we had divided the poor dog a few days ago. He replied, "Yes, papa, but I just pinched its tail, and its your part that's doing the howling."

STREET CAR WENT UP

Two-year-old Gordon stood on the second floor of the Arcade building watching the passengers alight from the elevator. As the cage again ascended he called out excitedly, "See! See, pa! See the street car go upstairs!"

MRS. E. S. COLE,

927 N. 87th St.

HE DIDN'T COME

While going home the other night on a street car I heard a conversation between two gentlemen about boats. Dad Murphy, the "old newspaper boy," happened to be sitting behind them.

At last one of them turned around and said, "Dad, were you ever on a boat?" Dad looked at him for a few moments and said, "Say, what do you think I came over in, a hawk?"

IT RAINS EVERYWHERE

My brother's little boy from Port Townsend recently made a week visit with us here, and one day started out into the back yard with his little sister to play. Upon finding it was raining, he stopped and said, "It's raining out here, sister, let's go to the front yard." With that they trudged back through the house and out on the front plaza.

NOT LIKE GRANDMA

While making a social call the other day I was being entertained by two little girls, who said they were going to keep me company till mamma came down. The younger, a child of about five, was telling me of her visit to the dentist.

MISS OPHELIA FRIEDBERG,

SMITH &amp; WESSON

As I was walking down to work last night along the water front, I heard some loud talking, and on investigating, I found two colored men quarreling about something. One was a big, tall, burly fellow, and the other a rather small man. The little fellow seemed to be getting the worst of it, when he put his hand on his hip and looked up at the big fellow and said: "Look heah, 'nigger,' the Lord done favored you when he made you bigger 'n me, but the Smith & Wesson Gun company done us equal."

THEY SMELLED HIS HAIR

Monday afternoon Bob, a little boy about five years old, who had just been to the barber shop to have his hair cut for the first time, came running up to where his playmates were, and, pulling off his hat, yelled: "Hey, kids! come smell of my hair. I just came from the barber shop."

WILFRED BALKEMA,

CONVINCED THE BURGLAR

A prominent Seattle attorney, who prides himself on his ability as a "criminal lawyer," was extolling a man whom he had lately been able to successfully defend and receive an acquittal for, on a charge of burglary. "Now tell me," says the attorney, "did you really burglarize that house?" "Well, I'll tell you honest and square," said the crook. "Before I heard you spell that way to the jury I thought I was guilty all right, but since, I'll be hanged if I believe I did it at all."

G. LEWIS,

1442 West 47th St.

HE WAS THERE TO

The other day I took my boy to a motion picture house. Next to me sat an old colored man with two small children, about four and six years old. During the change of the reels the small boy got interested in his surroundings and began rubbing, which he kept up as the next reel was thrown on the screen. Mammy noticed this, and, grabbing him by the hair, she hissed at him:

"Locky heah, chile, I brought you down heah to be educated. If you don't pay 'tention and be educated I gonn' to bus' you in the jaw." Respectfully submitted,

A. A. PADMORE,

WHY ENPECKO OBJECTED

"I hate to go shopping with my wife," said Enpecko. "Every time I make a suggestion she sits down."
"I didn't know that they had seats in the stores," commented his friend.
"They don't," replied Enpecko. "She sits on me."

LEAVE IT TO HER!

Mother—I really think you'd be happier if you married a man who had less money.
Daughter—Don't worry, mother; he will have less in a very short time.—Boston Transcript.

NATURE OF ASSEMBLAGE

"I understand you folks had a lovely family reunion."
"Well," said Mr. Crossroads, "that's what it started out to be, but some of them got to talking our rich relations over, and the occasion resolved itself into an indignation meeting."

NEVER SEES HIM

Ned—You've been calling on Boogie's daughter so long, it's a wonder he hasn't asked your intentions.
Ted—Never see him. I never reach his house until 8 and I always leave before 1 in the morning.

THE STAR CIRCLE

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY EDITED BY UNCLE JACK

WHICH IS BEST NEW MEMBER WON RECREATION? 2D PRIZE

Ever stop to think which is the best out-of-door recreation? Probably you haven't, but now it will be worth your while if you stop and think real hard and get a very good excuse for thinking such a thing. Out-of-door recreation is the topic of next week's contest, and it should attract a flood of manuscripts. The contest includes every recreation, games, fishing, picnics, etc. Out of the abundance of recreations which are included under this heading there is an abundance of children who have his or her little good time out of doors, that in their estimation "beats 'em all." For the best letter along this line, a prize of $1.00 will be awarded, and a second prize of 50 cents will be given to the next best.

THINKS CONTESTS FINE

Dear Uncle Jack: I wish to become a member of your most interesting Circle. I watch for the Circle regularly every Saturday and enjoy reading it very much. You have fine contests. Many of the children here contribute weekly. I am 14 years old. Hoping that I am eligible, I remain yours sincerely,
MARY TOWNSEND.
Bremerton, Wash.

A NEW ONE FROM FALL CITY

Dear Uncle Jack—I would like to join the Star Circle Club, as I am 13 years old. I would like to see the prize winners and contest of each week. I like The Star the best of all daily newspapers and love to read it. Yours truly,
ARTIE BURNS.
Fall City, Wash.

This drawing was awarded second prize by the judges in the "Drawing Contest." It was given by Miss Louise Graham of 1425 2nd av. Miss Graham is a new member of the Circle, joining only this week. The Circle certainly appreciates her membership.

POLITICAL GOSSIP FROM THE CAPITAL BY GILSON GARDNER

BY GILSON GARDNER

(Special Correspondent of The Star.)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The Roosevelt campaign has now progressed to the point where it becomes necessary to consider who is to have second place on the ticket. As things now look, the selection for vice president is likely to fall upon one of the following: Gov. Hiram Johnson of California, former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, Gov. W. R. Stubbs of Kansas or Gifford Pinchot.

The Roosevelt managers seem particularly to favor Gov. Johnson. It is understood that the latter is not enthusiastic about being drafted for vice president. He feels that there is still very important work to be done in California. Nevertheless, the pressure may be strong enough to induce Johnson to make the sacrifice. There is no doubt that Johnson is the ideal man for a running mate with Roosevelt. He is thoroughly progressive, aggressive, straightforward, and has a constructive record to his credit. The fact that he comes from a Pacific coast state is a recognition of the Far West, where most of the real progressive sentiment is to be found and nurtured. Johnson, in short, would add strength to the ticket and would add tremendously as a campaigner to the effectiveness of the fight.

From assurances which have been received by the Roosevelt managers, it is expected that the republican national committee will act fairly in the matter of contests. The only hope Taft has had for steering his nomination has for some time lain in a possibility that he could command a majority of the national committee for the purpose of deciding all contests against Roosevelt, regardless of the merits of the contest. The committee has been pretty thoroughly sounded, and it is found that its members feel that this would insure the destruction of the party, and that they would go down in the wreck.

JOHNNY'S RECOMMENDATION

The teacher didn't seem able to say much in Johnny's favor. "Well," replied the devoted mother, "she had to admit that he keeps his school books remarkably clean."—Washington Star.

STOPS YOUR HAIR FALLING OUT AND DISSOLVES DANDRUFF AT ONCE

Your hair appears soft, lustrous, fluffy and abundant after using a little Danderine

What causes Dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair? Who cares—so long as Danderine overcomes this—and it does, and quickly too—it does more, it grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really hair—sprouting all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how old, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knott's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—threw hair—sprouting all over the scalp.
