TODAY'S PROGRAMS

LIBERTY—Robert Warwick in "Jack Straw."
 CLEMMER—Res Beach's "The Silver Hurdle," second week.
 COLISEUM—Elaine Hammerstein in "Greater Than Fame."
 STRAND—Violet Heming and all-star cast in "Everywoman."
 REX—Claire Adams in "The End of the Road."
 COLONIAL—Edith Roberts in "The Triflers."
 CLASS A—Alan Dwan's "The Luck of the Irish."

IN THESE days of widely heralded all-star motion picture casts that so often fail to materialize on the screen, it is a relief to find a picture like "Everywoman," showing at the Strand, which presents an array of film favorites that has seldom been duplicated in one picture before. Violet Heming, the charming stage and screen player, has the leading role. Theodore Roberts is Wealth, Wanda Hawley, Beauty, and Monte Blue is Love. Bebe Daniels was recruited from the ranks of comedy to play the role of Vice.

Others in the cast are Raymond Hatton, Noah Beery, Irving Cummings, Charles Ogle, Raymond Hatton, Tully Marshall and Mildred Redmond.

COLISEUM

After a lengthy absence from the screen House Peters, one of the most popular screen players, is back again. Peters is the star in "Silk Husbands and Calico Wives," said to be an unusually interesting drama.

The story concerns the trials of a husband and wife who find themselves separated thru social ambitions. Deane Kambel (House Peters) is a small-town lawyer who is called to the city to practice his profession after winning a big case. His wife, formerly a court stenographer, is content to remain old-fashioned and tend to the domestic duties at home.

An adventure comes between the two and almost wrecks Kendall's life, but the author cleverly reunites husband and wife.

REX

"The End of the Road," the dramatic photodrama now showing at the Rex, will be held over several more days in the announcement made Thursday afternoon by the management of the Rex.

This photoplay which has caused a great deal of interesting discussion wherever it has been shown is from the pen of Dr. Katherine Bement Davis and Edward H. Griffith, Dr.

MACK SENNETT IN ACTION

Mack Sennett is here shown, directing a scene in "Down on the Farm," the big five-part comedy which opens at the Liberty Saturday. The popular comedy king is said to have outdone any of his previous efforts in producing this comedy, which includes all the famous Sennett players, Ben Turpin, Marie Prevost, Louise Fazenda, "Pepper," the cat, "Teddy," the dog, and the cunning little Sennett baby.

Sennett is the chap wearing the dark suit, light cap and big smile. Ben Turpin is the handsome chap with the white vest and cute little white spots, standing just behind Sennett.

Clemmer Will Star Nazimova

Bement is known thruout the country for corrective knowledge and achievement. Mr. Griffith was formerly a lieutenant in the United States army and for some time directed pictures for Thomas Edison.

The large cast of players is headed by Claire Adams and Richard Bennett.

COLONIAL

Six months were spent in producing "The Virgin of Stamboul," the big Universal production in which Priscilla Dean comes to the Colonial Saturday.

The story was written especially for Miss Dean by H. H. Van Loan and is based on the actual happenings in Constantinople, where he was stationed for several months as correspondent for a group of American newspapers.

Three hundred men and horses and a herd of camels are used in the picture.

Wheeler Oakman, the popular young leading man (to whom Miss Dean was recently married) is included in the cast.

Picture Patter

Alice Hollister is returning to the screen after two years' absence.

Bessie Love, having recovered from the flu, will resume work on "The Millarders."

"Young America," stage comedy, is to be made into a movie.

Frankie Mann, who left the movies temporarily to appear on the stage in "Upstairs and Down" is to return to the movies under the Pathe banner.

Ethel Clayton's next picture will be "The Ladder of Lies."

Charles Albert Smily, who is cast with Madeline Travers, in "The Spirit of Good," made his stage debut with Forbes-Robertson in England in 1919.

"No Limit Carson," the latest starring vehicle for Tom Mix, has been entitled "The Terror."

Eyes Sore?

If your eyes or lids are sore; if they itch, burn or feel dry; if your vision is blurred, your eyesight dim; if you are obliged to wear glasses, go to your druggist and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Dissolve one in a fourth of a glass of water and bathe the eyes from two to four times a day. Sound, comfortable eyes and improved eyesight will make the world look brighter.

Note: Doctors say Bon-Opto strengthens eyesight 25% in a week's time in many instances.

MISS HUFF NOW WITH SELZNICK

Louise Huff, who has appeared in many screen productions and has won high honors as a star has signed a five-year contract with Selznick.
