

CALOMEL IS MERCURY, IT SICKENS! STOP USING SALIVATING DRUG

Don't Lose a Day's Work! If Your Liver Is Sluggish or Bowels Constipated Take "Dodson's Liver Tone."—It's Fine!

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, dizzy and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick, you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into sour bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children! Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

"SO SHINES A GOOD DEED"

Thoughtful Act of Busy Man Led Another to Emulate His Work of Kindness.

He was a brisk, well-groomed young man, who looked as if he were hurrying to keep a date with Fortune. He had crossed the green grass and goldenrod piece by the big hotel near Union station, and had jumped the tiny ditch that is going to be a gutter some day, when he noticed an old whitey gray horse standing by what will be the curb.

The dejected patience of the poor creature must have appealed to the young man, for he sprinted back to the green grass, pulled a bunch of it and slipped it into whitey gray's mouth.

Old Mr. Horse munched his treat with a sudden interest in life that expressed itself in the flicker of its pallid ears and the general bracing up that means courage.

And a man who had come out of the big hotel in time to catch the incident also went over to the green grass pulled a bunch and slipped it into whitey gray's mouth.

Such is the force of example.—Exchange.

Crinoline in History.

The oft-threatened return of the crinoline, prophesied by alarmists of fashion, leaves us all wondering. We find that the crinoline was first worn in the sixteenth century by a Spanish princess, who used it to conceal her love letters from a forbidden admirer. According to pictures of Queen Elizabeth she was the first to wear it in England, a writer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch states. Perhaps she wore it for the same reason. She had need of pockets to hide such, provided all her admirers wrote to her. Among her earlier portraits we find that her dress resembled that of Queen Mary, her sister. The skirts of these were simply widened at the bottom.

When a man is compelled to eat his words his appetite is soon satisfied.

Sketch Under Shell Fire.

Some of the many artists who are at the front in France make their sketches undaunted by shell fire. The Century magazine publishes a picture of the ruins of a farm house, about which the battle had raged, drawn by Henri Jacquier, who took the first grand prix of the Salon. "While M. Jacquier," says a fellow-artist, "was finishing this drawing with very rapid pencil strokes, a shell burst near him, and actually flung the earth into his car. But the drawing was finished."

It was left to a Boston schoolboy of a dozen years to give the world some entirely new information about Abraham Lincoln. He did it in this way when asked by his teacher to write what he knew about the great war president:

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 31

THE BOY JOASH CROWNED KING.

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 11:4-12.

GOLDEN TEXT—The house of the wicked shall be overthrow; but the tent of the upright shall flourish.—Prov. 11:12, R. V.

This is a great and most intensely interesting boy's story. For thirty years two great heroes, Elijah and Elisha, fought against Baal. They stood up against kings and people, and fought for pure morals as the champions of Jehovah. Jehoshaphat, a good man, allowed his son to marry Jezebel's daughter and the nation reaped the results. The son of this union reigned over Judah but one year and was slain by Jehu, the destroyer of Ahab's dynasty. Athaliah, as dowager queen reigned for six years (See 2 Chron. 22). General Jehu wrought in the northern kingdom, hence the temporary escape of this child of Jezebel, the cursed queen.

I. Concealment, vv. 1-3. Jehosheba, the wife of Jehoiada, the high priest in charge of the temple, is thought to be the daughter of Joram by another wife than Athaliah. She was the agent in God's hands of saving the boy's life and of the final extinguishment of the seed of Ahab. Jehosheba, as daughter of one king, sister of another and high priest's wife, was familiar with every nook and corner of the temple, and "so a woman's ruthlessness was outwitted by a woman's cunning."—Farrar. Thus God saved the seed of David according to his Word (Psalms 89:3, 4).

II. Conspiracy, vv. 4-8. Athaliah's bloody reign is one of the darkest pages in the history of Judah. She murdered not her own children but her grandchildren to gain, or rather to continue, her rule, for as her son's counselor she was the real ruler of the nation (II Kings 8:26, 27; II Chron. 22:3, 4). God had made a promise (ch. 8:19; Isa. 7:6; Jer. 33:17-26) and that promise must be fulfilled, for no evil can thwart his will. Athaliah is a terrible example of unrestrained heredity. We have here the results of an unholy alliance. This is also an appalling example of the fruit of selfish ambition: (a) upon the nation, (b) on the family, (c) on the individual.

As against this picture we see a consecrated woman, a devoted home and the teaching of a pious priest, the final outcome of which was the overthrow of evil. This priest and his wife took certain other traits Joash inherited from his vile ancestors, such as courage, energy, skill and perseverance, and, training them under right and pious environment, turned them to the blessing of the nation. The early formative period of this boy's life was thus spent in such a way as to result in continuous blessing throughout his reign (12:1, 2).

III. Crowning, vv. 9-12 (to v. 16). It was a great service the priest and his wife rendered to Judah to save and to train a child. So likewise we are privileged, and those who are truly saved and rightly trained will also ultimately be crowned (II Tim. 4:8; I Peter 5:14; Rev. 2:10).

There are two accounts of the coronation ceremonies (see also II Chron. 22:10-23:21); they differ but do not conflict. The five captains and 500 bodyguards wrought a great work on that Sabbath day. Every man in the conspiracy did exactly as told. Joash is brought out at the exact moment. So also will our king appear at God's appointed time. The law is placed in his hands (v. 12, Ex. 25:16; Ps. 78:5; Isa. 8:16, 20). This controverts those who would have us believe the law was not written until Joash reigned. Aside from the law which was placed in his hands a crown was placed on his head and there was also the customary shouting and clapping of hands and cries of "God save the king" (Am. R. V.) which accompany such occasions.

IV. Conclusion. (1) Our Young Kings (and Queens). For everyone of our boys and girls there is awaiting a kingdom. Each is surrounded by dangers even as Joash. Their only safety is in God, in the love and power of his holy spirit, the knowledge of his word, the care and culture of his church, the guidance and influence of homes which belong to him.

(2) The Bible and the Coronation. The chief and most important part of the coronation was to place the word of God in the young king's hand. "Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee."

It is the royal law, life, lively oracles, food, light and wisdom for king and subject alike.

(3) The Anointed King. Symbolicaly Joash received the holy spirit that he might know how and have power to live and govern by the law just placed in his hands. (I Sam. 10:16; 16:13; Acts 4:27; Heb. 1:9).

Such anointed ones are kings and queens and their lives are a benediction to all the world.

(4) The Eclipse of Evil. The one who was most guilty, who took the sword that she might rule, was the first to cry treason. Her cry could not any longer hold back the purposes of God and she miserably perished.
