Obeys "De Speret."

An old negro was found casting a net in a preserved fish pond. I have caught you at last, exclaimed the owner. Stand right where you are. If you try to run I'll shoot you. What are you stealing my fish for?

Look y, ere you doan call dis stealin' feesh, does you?

Of course I do, you trifling scoundrel!

Wall, ef dat's de case dar's er pint o' diffence betwixt us. I calls it 'ligion, sah.

You call it what?

Ligion, sah; dat's what I calls it.

Peter and John an' all de 'ciples when da felt ligious, tuck er net an' went an' kotch some feesh, an' now when de sperit done moved me, an' I has come 'cordin' ter der scriptur' an' gunter cast de net, w'y yere you come and calls me er thief. Ez 'ligious er man ez you ez oughter be 'shamed o' yo'se'f. W'y, I rechen ef you hader libed in de ole days, an' hader seed Peter feeshin', you woulder got after him, too. Dar was jes sich men er libin' at dat time, sah, an' what did da do? Da strayed off attar de golden ca'f o' 'niquity an let de feesh o' righteousness er lone. De sperit moved me ter come off down yere an' cast dis yere net an' now you come an' ject ter de sperit.

I object to you stealing my fish, you trifling rascal.

I ain't stealin' yo' feesh, sah. I jest castin' de net like he speret tole me to do.

So you haven't taken any fish?

No, sah, cose I ain't; but I kain't hep it if de great speret tole me ter cast de net.

What have you got in that bag?

Dis bag right yere?

Yes that bag right there.

What's I got in it?

That's what I said.

Wall, sah, I put er few feesh in yere jest ter keep 'em frum bein' proud in de flesh. Feesh is mighty proud some time, sah, an' I wanten show 'em dar's richer thing ez pride comin' down putty low.

Yes, and I'll just show you there's such a thing as going to jail.

What! 'Caze I followed de speret an' tuck de pride outen de feesh?

Wall, I sees one thing mighty 'clar. Dar ain't no usen er man follerin' de speret dese days. Ef Peter was yere now he'd git 'gusted wid de white folks an' go off down yander wid de niggers. Now, sah, ef you wanten disgrace yo'se'f by takin' me ter jail I'se wid you.—Memphis Avalanche.

The Christmas Number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The Christmas (December) number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly is bound in a special illuminated cover of beautiful design, in lithographed colors and gold; and the contents amply fulfill the promise of this elaborate exterior. The leading article is a richly illustrated narrative of "Dr. Talmage in the Holy Land," describing the Palestine of to-day as seen by the great preacher during his recent visit. The life-story of Louisa, "the ideal Queen and ideal woman of Prussia," is told, accompanied by Mme. Lebrun's exquisite portrait, and many views. "An Old-time Chronicle" is gleaned from the famous Paston Letters, familiar to all students of medieval English literature. Other articles having profuse pictorial embellishment are: "Bits of the Black Forest," "Canine Pets," by Edwin H. Morris, "The Early California Missions," by Catharine Stevens Walter, "One Christmas in Egypt," by Col. J. Milliken and "China-painting" by Lily Marshall. There are short by Lucy Hooper, Nora Mable, Etta W. Pierce, Fanny Isabel Sherrick, and others, and illustrated poems by W. E. Henley and Georgia A. Davis.
