

To the Public

The Press will deem it a special favor if patrons who fail to receive their paper regularly will report the same to the office, as it is our only means of knowing how the carriers are doing their work.

We will pay a reward of $25 for evidence that will convict anyone of stealing papers after they are delivered to residences.

THE PRESS PUBLISHING CO.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Cabs and Messengers, Phone 153.

Fred Artell was a visitor at McGuire yesterday.

A. Minnick took in the sights at Spokane yesterday.

For plumbing, see Dezell.

Miss Alice Litherland was a visitor at McGuire Sunday.

Kodaks, films and paper, at the City Drug store.

Father Purcell took an early Spokane electric train today.

Wanted.—A good single driver. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman.

J. A. Spaulding was a Spokane visitor yesterday, called there on business.

List your property with Kemp & LeDeau to sell or rent, 319 Sherman street.

L. G. Willis, a juror of the October term of court, went to Rathdrum today on business.

Mrs. Stickney, formerly Miss Susan L. Davis, is in the city, visiting friends and relatives.

For rent—Seven room house for one year, apply 1012 north Sixth street.

Misses Hazel and Grace Davis, who were recently called to Spokane to the death bed of their sister, Miss Martha, returned home last night.

We have a five room house in Taylor's addition, lot 40 by 120 for $1100. Terms. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman street.

Mrs. Eugene Huff, who was visiting Mrs. E. M. Rogers, returned to Spokane Saturday.

The Doctors Martin left today for the Palouse country to look over that locality. Later, if not satisfactory, they will proceed to Seattle and locate.

Judge and Mrs. John T., the parents of Judge R. T. Morgan, arrived this afternoon from Boise to make their home, at least for a time, in Coeur d'Alene.

William Girard, who several weeks ago went to California, returned home last night. He expects to remain in Coeur d'Alene but a short time before going back to California.

For sale—Two room house on Second street, close in. Lot 55 by 100. Price $1200. This is a snap. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman street.

Hon. Joseph Patrick Fallon has written a letter from Washington City to his sister in Coeur d'Alene. He is enjoying the sights of the United States Capital. He expects to leave for the west in the near future.

For sale—One of the finest residences on Coeur d'Alene avenue, lot 100 by 110. Price $4000. Terms. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman street.

The Human Hearts theatrical company arrived in the city last night from Wallace and are comfortably quartered at the Hotel Idaho. This company is scheduled to play at the Auditorium tonight and the play promises to be a good one.

For Sale.—160 acres deeded timber land, will cruise a million and three quarters besides the tie and pole timber. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sullivan, who have been spending several days on the Pacific coast, returned home last night. They claim the coast is very lively but the climate is not satisfactory, so that they are well pleased with Coeur d'Alene.

New Sipla tone post card, the latest thing, for sale at the City Drug store.

Jerome Rice, residing at 1020 north Fifth street, came home last night, having been away for the past two months in the Big Bend country, running an engine for a threshing crew. He reports an excellent harvest in that locality. The wheat yield was large and the ranchers are realizing 75 cents per bushel which gives them a heavy profit. Threshing is about completed.

Prof. Hiram T. French stated today that the university had enrolled this year over 400 students. This is more than the total enrollment of last year. When asked how he accounted for the increased attendance, he stated: "There are many more people in the state, there is great prosperity and there is a better response from the people of south Idaho, than formerly, there being no less than 50 students from and in the vicinity of Boise. The university is very prosperous and the work being done is of a first class grade."

Best of music at the rink.

Mrs. Cora Kennedy went to Spokane today.

The special Thursday at the Idaho Mercantile will be better than last week. Watch for the ad.

Luke Williams was a Spokane visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Jos. Warren is visiting the family of P. T. Nixon.

Mrs. Frances and Mrs. J. C. White went to Spokane today.

Miss Hazel Wells visited in the city of Spokane today.

Mrs. George Mason went to Spokane today.

H. W. Wynn, of Garfield, is in the city today.

Mrs. Roy Weston left on an early train for Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Winn were Spokane visitors today.

For sale—three room house for $125. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman street.

A. C. Brady and Charles Hass left today for Saltese, Montana, to look up a location.

Joel Warren, ex-chief of police of Spokane, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Father Kelly was in Coeur d'Alene Sunday. He returned to his Rathdrum home today.

Look for Norquist's big ad Wednesday night for special sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Marshall M. Taylor, Joe Warren, P. F. Nixon and Pearl Denhart are enjoying a few days at Chatolet fishing and camping.

Don't miss the Thursday special. It's better than last week. See ad of the Idaho Mercantile Co.

Claude Burlingame was called to Spokane on business today.

Granville Richey left this afternoon for Eugene, Oregon. He will be gone a month or more. He likes his new location but yearns to be back among old faces and life-long friends.

Paul Denhart, a partner of P. T. Nixon and a large property holder of Seattle, is in the city. He is interested in the same mining property in Alaska with Mr. Nixon.

See the advertisement tomorrow for the Thursday special. Better than last week, at the Idaho Mercantile Co.

G. H. Hopkins, who resides on north Fifth street, was a visitor at the Metropolitan of the Inland Empire today.

For Sale.—4 room cottage on Coeur d'Alene street, between First and Second street, 50 feet lot, price $1500. Terms to suit customer. Kemp & LeDeau, 319 Sherman.

E. Kirkpatrick, who recently purchased the J. H. Ried property on Fourth street, will leave in a few days for the Alberta country to dispose of his holdings. He likes this country much better than that, especially the climate.

Cougars are becoming extremely tame about Hayden lake. Saturday one walked across the road at Thornton's logging camp, leaving only the length of the horses between itself and the driver. It took its time in disappearing in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Whymann and Miss Belle Wals, of Wisconsin, relatives of Mrs. F. W. Fitze, arrived in the city yesterday and will visit the latter's home for some time.

The dredge which is to do the filling on the lake front will be put to work within the next few days or as soon as the pipe line arrives. Work will be hurried as rapidly as possible in order to use the good weather to the best advantage.

Charles Getka, of the Rose Lake Lumber company, who has been in the city for the past several days, left for that Coeur d'Alene river point today. He claims he experiences no more difficulty in securing all the help he wants, the labor problem becoming much easier.

"Human Hearts"

The theatrical manager of a decade ago used to believe that when a play had been established in public favor, that any kind of a cast could be employed to exploit it before the public, and for that reason and no other, can a great many of them ascribe their ultimate failure. Not so with W. E. Nankeville, manager of "Human Hearts" which comes to us on Monday, Oct. 21.

Mr. Nankeville has always maintained that the best is none too good for the public, and if by possible chance he can better his companies, he never fails to do so. It is to this policy, he attributes the wonderful success of "Human Hearts" with the theatre going public.

Putting It Right.

[Note.—Mr. Rockefeller will build a sixteen story institutional church in Cleveland whose purpose shall be the physical, moral, mental and spiritual uplifting of men, women and children, rich and poor alike.]

Shake, brother, shake;
We are glad to take
Your hand on this good scheme,
Which is no flimsy dream
Or educational bluff.
It is the real stuff.
The kind
In which are properly combined
Body and mind
And soul,
The whole
Trinity of man;
The plan
That lifts him from the sod
Up to the God.
Which is the best
That's in him; the test
By which to judge him fair,
Whether or not he's square—
Square with his Maker,
Square with his kind,
Square with his spirit.
His body and mind.
That's the goods, Brother John,
And we don't care
If the money is tainted.
When you put it there
You disinfect it.
And every cent
Becomes an odor
Of fine intent.
We call you brother
Because by this
To call you brother
Comes not amiss
For anybody
Or any pen.
And when you've done this one
Go do it again
And again.
—W. A. Lampton in New York World.

Lord Young's Wit.

Looking across the table of a public dinner at the overabundant and fishy eyes of his neighbor opposite, Lord Young, who was a famous lawyer, inquired who the owner of the vinous countenance might be and was told he was the president of a water trust. "Aye," said Lord Young. "Well, he looks like a man that could be trusted with any amount of water!"

Some one told Lord Young that the house of lords had on appeal affirmed a decision of his. "It may be right, after all," was his lordship's reply.

The Right Idea.

"How do you define the phrase 'as black as your hat'?" a father asked his son as the latter had just used the expression.

"Well," replied the youth, "I should define it as darkness that might be felt."—Cassell's Journal.
