

CANTEEN IN THE ARMY

POST EXCHANGE NECESSARY.

The Fight Made by Temperance People for a Permanent Establishment in the Army - Army Officers in Favor of It - It is Indispensable.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—As a result of the investigation made by the war department, it may be confidently stated that the army canteen is practically a permanent establishment. All the officers of the department are thoroughly tired of the canteen system which has had in it much that has been disagreeable and Adjutant General Corbin states that he now considers the matter as definitely settled.

Opinions of over 600 army officers were taken as to the advisability of continuing the canteen system, which it was found by the attorney general that the war department had the right to do, despite the paragraph in the army bill passed at the last session of congress, which the temperance people are anxious to have construed that no beer or any malt liquor should be sold at any army post or upon any government reserve. The replies of the army officers whose opinions were asked are almost unanimously in favor of continuing the canteen system, as being better for the morals of the soldiers themselves. It was at first thought that these replies would be given to the public as a sort of defense of the department against the attacks of the temperance people, but now it has been considered unnecessary and undesirable to do so, as still further stirring up a controversy that could have no good result. Acting Secretary McKeen, at least, decided not to do it, and Secretary Alger has not had time to take the matter up since his return.

It probably is not generally known outside of the department of war itself how great has been the hue and cry raised by the advocates of prohibition against the selling of beer at army posts, and loud, long and continuous have been the demands made upon the president that he should issue an executive order forbidding the sale of all kinds of liquor under any kind of an arrangement at the various barracks and army posts throughout the country.

Seems to Be a Necessity.

The reports received from army officers declare almost without exception that the post exchange is indispensable to the promotion and maintenance of the morality, comfort and contentment of the enlisted men. It is found to work without the slightest friction at all camps and garrisons, and contributes to the sobriety and efficiency of the troops.

IDAHO NOTES.

Lieutenant Governor Hutchison of Silver City delivered the Fourth of July oration at Boise.

Burglars entered the store of the Moscow Commission Company and broke open the safe recently. They succeeded in everything except in getting valuables.

Jerry Callahan and M. P. Boyle, log contractors, have started for the Kootenai lake country with the first of 12 rafts of logs. The rafts contain 4,000, 000 feet of lumber, being the largest contract filled this season.

The summer school at the University of Idaho is, in the words of President Blanton, "no longer an experiment, but an assured and triumphant success." The enrollment up to yesterday evening had reached 157, and many more are expected soon.

The first carload of lime has been burned from the marble ledge along the Clearwater, near Agatha, and a thorough test has demonstrated that it is of a superior quality. New kilns will be built at once and the lime put on the market.

The brick mill owned by the Moscow Brick and Tile Company has been running full time lately. Its capacity is about 30,000 brick per day. This is the first time that the mill has run since a year ago, when it finished contracts aggregating 400,000 brick.

A prisoner on the Nez Perce reservation boasted that he could give a $10,000 bond whereupon the justice made it $3,000, it being simply a peace bond—remembering that he had given it to him a little steeper than he would have done had the prisoner evinced a more humble disposition.

Recently fire broke out in the saloon building at Leland, owned by E. R. Davis, and in the absence of any fire-fighting apparatus, soon spread to the adjoining premises. By dint of hard work the inhabitants succeeded in preventing the flames from spreading to the opposite or north side of the street. The fire raged until checked by lack of material.

The Sandpoint Lumber company is building a new saw mill about one-half mile north of the present town of Sandpoint and a short distance from the old mill. It is to have a capacity of 50,000 feet of lumber a day, and in place of circular saws band saws will be used, and other improvements will be made.

O. P. Saylor of Newsome, employed by the Montana Placer Mining Company, met with a serious and perhaps fatal accident at the mine. One of a number of rifle blocks that had been cut some distance up the mountain side, fell and struck Mr. Saylor on the left shoulder, fracturing the shoulder blade and throwing him into the race. He also received a bad cut on the right side of the head, a cut over the right eye and lip.

Judge C. E. Arney, chief clerk in the state land office at Boise, is visiting north Idaho to look after the state's land business, which is heavy in Latah and Nez Perce counties, in each of which it is greater than in all the rest of the state combined. In Latah county the state has made 150 leases this year and in Nez Perce 125, besides hav-

Out of these large land holdings it is proposed to have a public sale shortly, when such tracts will be offered to the best bidder as the county treasurers think will be in demand.

L. L. Monty of Everett Shot.

Everett, July 3.—Simon Fox shot L. L. Monty, the ball entering the left breast and lodging in the neck.

Monty is married, and has been jealous of Fox for several years. Monty returned today, after an absence of several months and found Mrs. Monty keeping boarders in a house owned by Fox, who was at home when he arrived. Blows soon followed words, and when Fox was knocked down he drew a revolver and fired twice, the first ball missing, but Monty fell when struck by the second, and soon became unconscious, and at one time was thought to be dying. He was taken to the Everett hospital and attended by Dr. Cox. Fox went to the jail and gave himself up.

THE NAVY'S NEW UNIFORM

CHANGE TO BE MADE AT ONCE.

Those Orders Have Been Issued - Gorgeous Raiment of Admiral - Changes Made to Distinguish Rank - The Numerous Changes Are Elaborate.

Washington, July 1.—The new regulations prescribing the uniforms of naval officers have been issued.

Few material changes are made in the existing dress, but for the first time in many years provision has had to be made for distinguishing the admiral from other flag officers, and while Admiral Dewey's modesty will not be shocked by a revival of the gorgeous raiment of the officer of that grade, he will be conspicuous enough to satisfy the most of his admirers. He will not need to make any alterations in the eight costumes he must wear on various occasions, but his epaulet, sleeve ornaments, collar devices and cocked hat will have to be specially manufactured before he passes Gibraltar, for the regulations, which were approved May 8, go into effect practically as soon as they are received by officers, and the copies have been mailed.

To distinguish the admiral the following points are to be noted: He will have on his sleeves, near the cuffs, two stripes of two-inch gold lace, with one one-inch stripe between, set one-quarter of an inch apart. A rear admiral will have four of the one-inch stripes, and ensigns have one. Epaulet of all flag officers but those of the admiral are embellished with four silver stars of five rays each placed an equal distance from each other in the middle of the strap or frog of the epaulet, with a gold fowl anchor, one and one-eighth inches long, under each of the two outer stars, while rear admirals have only two stars, near each end of the frog, with a small silver fowl anchor in the center. Similar devices go to the shoulder straps, the admiral's strap being three-eighths of an inch longer and one-eighth of an inch wider than the straps of other officers.

On each side of his collar the admiral will wear four silver stars with a gold fowl anchor under each of the outer stars. Rear admirals have two silver stars and a silver fowl anchor.

The cocked hat of the admiral will have a strip of two-inch gold lace, laid on flat around the outer rim of the band, passing under the peaks. For rear admirals the gold lace is half an inch narrower.

The admiral's sword belt is embroidered on each edge with half-inch gold braid and has quarter-inch gold braid in the center. Rear admirals are entitled to half the width of gold on the same belt.

The cap for the admiral is the same as that for the rear admiral, and his coat, waistcoat, trousers, mackintosh, overcoat, cloak, cravat, scarf, shoes, rubber boots, shirts, collar and gloves are the same as for all commissioned officers in the navy.

His cravat is black ribbed silk, not more than 36 nor less than 32 inches long nor more than one and one-quarter inches, nor less than three-quarters of an inch wide, tied in a double knot in front. His shoes, high or low, shall be of black calf skin or patent leather, but in warm weather, white trousers, plain white shoes of canvas or buckskin or russet leather shoes are allowable when service dress is worn.

Floods in Texas.

Calvert, Texas, July 3.—The most disastrous storm for several years in this district has occurred. The streams and big rivers around here overran their banks and everything ahead of them was swept to destruction. The reports come in that two rivers, Little and Big Brazos, have met and that help is needed. On hearing this, all the business houses closed up and everybody went to the rescue of the unfortunate.

A number of lives have been reported lost. So far only five bodies have been recovered, all being negroes. A large number of houses in the lower part of the city are flooded.

The railroad bridges at both ends of the town have been destroyed. One of them was built of stone and cement. It has undergone the rises of the past 25 years, but it succumbed to this terrible rush of waters. The mayor and citizens have provided shelter and food for the destitute.

Grangeville Tragedy.

Grangeville, July 3.—The entire town was thrown into a furor of excitement yesterday, as a result of a shooting scrape between A. D. Green and J. F. Ailshe, two well-known citizens of Camas prairie. Each had a revolver and the chambers of both weapons were empty when the shooting ceased. Green was hit five times. Ailshe passed through the affair without a scratch. How both men escaped instant death is remarkable. One shot penetrated Green's side, breaking a rib, another passed through his right thigh and another through his right shoulder. The other two are flesh wounds. While suffering intensely, and while either of three of his wounds could prove fatal, he has strong chances of recovery.

Admiration Won Out.

New York, July 3.—Fully 15,000 people journeyed to Sheephead Bay to see the one-mile race for $15,000 between the greatest of the 3-year-old fillies, Admiration and May Hempstead. It was the east against the west and the east won, for Admiration came home in a gallop first by two lengths. The time, 1:40 1-5, was by no means what had been expected, but they fairly flew in the first part and when they came to the stretch May Hempstead had nothing left to finish with and the strong wind in their faces was too much for the big filly.

CRITICAL PERIODS

In Woman's Life Are Made Dangerous by Pelvic Catarrh.

Mrs. MATHILDE RICHTER.

Mrs. Mathilde Richter, Doniphan, Neb., says: "I suffered from catarrh for many years, but since I have been taking Pe-ru-na I feel strong and well. I would advise all people to try Pe-ru-na. As I used Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin while I was passing through the change of life, I am positively convinced your beneficial remedies have relieved me from all my ills."

Pe-ru-na has raised more women from beds of sickness and set them to work again than any other remedy. Pelvic catarrh is the bane of womanhood. Pe-ru-na is the bane of catarrh in all forms and stages. Mrs. Col. Hamilton, Columbus, O., says: "I recommend Pe-ru-na to women, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."

Remember that cholera morbus, cholera infantum, summer complaint, bilious colic, diarrhoea and dysentery are each and all catarrh of the bowels. Catarrh is the only correct name for these affections. Pe-ru-na is an absolute specific for these ailments, which are so common in summer. Dr. Hartman, in a practice of over forty years, never lost a single case of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea, or cholera morbus, and his only remedy was Pe-ru-na. Those desiring further particulars should send for a free copy of "Summer Catarrh." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

Captain Miller, of Libby, of the steamer North Star, who took the contract for taking the steamer Gwendoline around Kootenai falls and canyon, eleven miles below Libby, has suffered a severe financial loss through the undertaking.
