

Nylotis Powder Puffs

A FINE QUALITY PUFF SELLING AT
20 and 25 cents each

EITHER PINK OR WHITE AND A SAMPLE ENVELOPE OF NYLOTIS FACE POWDER WITH EACH PUFF. BRING BACK THE ENVELOPE AFTER YOU HAVE TRIED THE POWDER, AND WE WILL ALLOW YOU 10c ON A FULL SIZE BOX OF NYLOTIS POWDER.

TURNER DRUG STORE

Prescription Druggists

Ten per cent discount on extra heavy weed chains. Cottonwood Garage. 39-tf

Barley rolls, and size, corrugated promptly and correctly. South & Frick. 46-tf

Don't forget the big masquerade ball Monday evening. Given by the M. W. of A.

Dr. J. E. Smith was a business visitor in Cullasac Wednesday returning home that evening.

Joe South and son Bob returned Tuesday evening from Clarkston where they spent Christmas with friends and relatives.

F. G. Densow, bookkeeper at the First National Bank spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Reubens.

Both the public and catholic school will resume their school work Tuesday at the completion of their holiday vacation.

The free wedding dance given Wednesday evening by Henry Hattrup was well attended. Those patronizing the dance came from Keuterville, Ferdinand, Greencreek, Winona and Cottonwood.

The Chronicle office this week received a Christmas card from Delbert Hale who is now located at Prinville, Oregon. On his card he also stated that he was employed by a newspaper there and was learning the trade and so far liked it very well.

Twin baby girls arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Seibert Wednesday evening. Dr. Orr the attending physician reports all concerned doing nicely. John is about the happiest of all parties concerned and he says he could ask for no finer Christmas present.

Kenneth Richards, Earl Rink and Dick Goeckner all of Portland, Oregon arrived home Saturday evening to spend the Christmas holidays with homefolks. Mr. Richards and Mr. Rink are attending school in Portland and Mr. Goeckner holds down a fine position in the Rose city.

The rain of the past week has placed a smile on the face of John Maugg from ear to ear. John says that Cottonwood's swimming pool is going to become a reality and as he only lives a stone's throw from the "hole in the ground" that is to make Cottonwood famous as a bathing resort, he is going to get every duck that by chance happens to stop here while on its journey to the south.

January 23, 1923. Watch for further particulars.

Local business houses are busily engaged this week in making their annual inventory.

Mrs. Poyneer spent Christmas day with her husband in Spokane returning home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. V. Baker returned Saturday evening from Lewiston where she was confined in the St. Joseph hospital. Mr. Baker went to Lewiston Saturday morning to meet his wife.

The stork left a fine baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Terhaar late Sunday afternoon as a Christmas present. Both mother and baby are doing nicely according to Dr. Shinnick the attending physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Huddleston were passengers Tuesday morning for Portland, Oregon, where they will consult Dr. Coffee in regards to Mrs. Huddleston's health. They plan on being absent from the city for about two weeks.

Goff Eckert, M. A. Pierce and Dr. Orr left Thursday morning for Lewiston from which point they will take a boat up Snake river where they will spend two weeks doing development work on a mine.

Frank Arzen of the Greencreek section informed us yesterday that this was a million dollar rain. We told him we would announce it as such and would mention his name so that if next fall his wheat did not turn out 50 bushels to the acre he could not blame us for it.

J. V. Baker & Son conducted one of the most successful sales they have ever put on in the history of their store last week, December 21, 22, and 23rd, according to J. V. Baker the senior member of the firm. The sale was just twice as good as was anticipated.

If you don't think Cottonwood is the best town in this section just make a trip to some of our neighboring cities. Cottonwood and community has the distinction of being the best fixed financially of any community in this section. "Your German farmers are money makers and they do not spend it all either." If we heard that remark we heard it a hundred times when speaking of the financial condition of this community the first of this week while visiting with homefolks not many miles from here.

Chester Nuxoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nuxoll of Clarkston, is spending the holiday season with relatives and friends in Cottonwood.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McKinney returned Tuesday evening from Spokane where they spent Christmas day at the home of Roy McKinney.

The Cottonwood Garage is making a number of improvements about its office this week. New shelves are being installed and the room in general is being renovated and given a new coat of paint.

Helen Schmidt was an arrival on Saturday evening's train from Colton where she is attending the Sisters school to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schmidt of the Greencreek section.

Mrs. H. C. Matthiesen, daughter Elza and son Hobart, spent Christmas with Mrs. Matthiesen's parents in Lewiston. The Williams family had a family reunion on Christmas day, the first one in many years.

William Kelsey and family departed this morning for Lewiston where they will visit a day or two with relatives of Mrs. Kelsey. Before returning home they will also visit friends in Spokane. They expect to be gone about a week.

George McPherson spent Christmas day with his aged mother at Pomeroy, Wash., returning home on Tuesday evening's train. Mr. McPherson stated that his mother was in splendid health, when one considers her age.

E. J. Bennett, the Denver mill man, left Saturday morning for a two months' visit to his old home in Kentucky. This is his first visit to his old boyhood stamping grounds in 35 years. During his absence the mill at Denver will be in charge of his son, Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schroeder are spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Schroeder's parents in Lewiston having departed for that city on Saturday morning's train. They will return in time for Mrs. Schroeder to resume her school duties here, Tuesday.

John Engel, Thursday of this week had two fine monuments placed over the remains of his wife's parents who are buried in the Catholic cemetery. The work of setting up the monuments was done by Mr. Engel and a representative of the company from whom he purchased them.

Mrs. Ben Robertson and daughter returned Tuesday evening from Winchester after having spent some time there with relatives. The Robertsons will soon move to Grangeville to reside where Mr. Robertson will act in the capacity of deputy sheriff under Sheriff-elect Wm. Eller.

The fine residence of A. R. Wiley at Grangeville burned to the ground Monday morning destroying the building as well as its entire contents. The cause of the fire was probably a defective flu or an over heated stove. $2700 insurance was carried on the building and its contents.

Peter Bies returned to Clarkston Wednesday morning after spending Christmas day with his family here. He is constructing a bungalow in Clarkston. He was accompanied to Clarkston by his son, William. Pete says the banana belt has nothing on the prairie for weather and during the recent cold snap thermometers there registered as low as on the prairie.

A marriage license was issued at Grangeville, Wednesday, to Miss Cecilia Bruegeman of Cottonwood and to Mr. Thomas F. Ruef of Sublimity, Oregon. The wedding will take place in Cottonwood on January 9th. Mr. Ruef arrived in Cottonwood Sunday evening from his home in Oregon and will return with his bride to his home near Sublimity where he is engaged in farming, soon after the wedding.

John Morarity made his annual visit to Nezperce Saturday morning. While John makes his home with his family in Cottonwood during the school year his land is all situated in Lewis county and therefore he makes his tax payments there. Mr. Morarity is well pleased with Lewis county officials, who, he says run their offices with the minimum of expense, the result of which makes taxes much lower in that county than some of their neighboring counties. Mr. Morarity says a small county for me every time.

We Wish You one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year

The good will of our patrons and friends is one of our most valuable assets. We thank you for the business you gave us during the past year and hope we may have the pleasure of continuing the same

Cottonwood Mercantile Co.

WANTED—Will pay cash for 2000 No. 1 fence posts. T. Clark, the junk man. 52-4*

Miss Ruth Howell of Riverside, Wash., and Miss Rhoades of Grangeville spent Christmas at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhoades.

ORPHEUM

SATURDAY, DEC. 30

In the First National attraction of tonight you are once more carried around half of the world—where those, where least expected it met under the most critical circumstances.

Not Guilty

Is one of the most adventurous and mysterious productions put out for some time and

Sylvia Breamer

—AND—

Richard Dix

are just the personalities cut out for it.

In order that you might not forget to close 1922 with a hearty laugh we will show you

Nobodys Wife

10c and 30c

SUNDAY, DEC. 31

Gladys Walton

Is appointed to beat "Good by" to the old year and introduce you to the offerings of a Happy 1923 in her

The Lavender Lady

a play which suggests luxury and mystery, since in it a poor working girl with a vivid imagination gets a test of the life lead by the happy possessors of the "Millions."

ADDITIONAL

Peggy Be Good

10c and 30c

Start the New Year Right

Resolve:

To spend less than you earn and put the difference in the bank for a rainy day. Ben Franklin said many wise things in his day. One of his sayings is: "A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR EARNED" The moral is if you haven't already done so start a bank account now with

The First National Bank

COTTONWOOD, IDAHO

SAFE—SOUND—CONSERVATIVE

Happy New Year

THE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE COTTONWOOD STATE BANK TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXTEND TO THEIR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS THE SEASON'S GREETINGS WITH THE SINCERE WISH THAT THE YEAR

Nineteen twenty-three

MAY BE ONE OF HAPPINESS AND PROSPERITY

E. M. FHRHARDT, President M. M. BELKNAP, V. P.
H. C. MATTHIESEN, Cashier

FAVOR GASOLINE TAX

More than a hundred Latah county farmers, and a number of business men, at a meeting held in the Farmers' Union hall at Moscow Thursday afternoon, at which the Latah county delegation to the next legislature was present, went on record as favoring a tax of two cents or more per gallon on gasoline, the money to go toward the maintenance of the public highways.

If its lathe or machine work we can save you money. South & Frick. 46-tf Euclid Rice, who is employed by Armour & Co., of Spokane, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Rice.

Roy Twillegar a former resident of the Greencreek section but now residing in Lewiston with his parents came up from the lower country Tuesday evening on a business trip.

Don't Forget the M. W. of A.

Masquerade Ball

Monday Evening, January 1, 1923

R. H. KENDALL, Confectionery